Enemies Christina Vella, 2004-01-23 Born into wealth in New Orleans in 1795 and married into misery fifteen years later the Baroness Micaela Almonester de Pontalba led a life ripe for novelization Intimate Enemies however is the spellbinding true account of this resilient woman's life and the three men who most affected its course Immediately upon marrying Celestin de Pontalba Micaela was removed to his family's estate in France For twenty years her father-in-law attempted to drive her to abandon Celestin by law he could then seize control of her fortune He tried dozens of strategies including at one point instructing the entire Pontalba household to pretend she was invisible Finally in 1834 the despairing elder Pontalba trapped Micaela in a bedroom and shot her four times before turning his gun on himself Miraculously she survived Five years later after securing both a separation from Celestin and legal power over her wealth Micaela focused her attention on building following in the footsteps of her late illustrious father André's Almonester Her Parisian mansion the Hôtel Pontalba is today the official residence of the American embassy in France and her Pontalba Buildings which flank Jackson's Square in New Orleans form together with her father's St Louis Cathedral Presbytery and Cabildo one of the loveliest architectural complexes in America As for Celestin he eventually suffered a total physical and mental breakdown and begged Micaela to return She did so caring for him for the next twenty-three years until her death in 1874 In Intimate Enemies Christina Vella embroiders the compelling story of the Almonester Pontalba alliance against a richly woven background of the events and cultures of two centuries and two vivid societies She provides a window into the yellow fever epidemics that raged in New Orleans the rebuilding of Paris the Paris Commune uprising and the Second Empire of Napoleon III European ideas of power class money marriage and love during the baroness's lifetime and their inflection in the New World setting of New Orleans medical treatments legal procedures imperial court life banking practices and much more Combining the historian's meticulous research with the biographer's exacting knowledge of her subject and the novelist's gift for narrative Vella has crafted a rare cross-genre work that will capture the imagination and admiration of every reader The Enemy in

Contemporary Film Martin Löschnigg, Marzena Sokołowska-Paryż, 2018-08-21 Culture and conflict inevitably go hand in hand The very idea of culture is marked by the notion of difference and by the creative fraught interaction between conflicting concepts and values The same can be said of all key ideas in the study of culture such as identity and diversity memory and trauma the translation of cultures and globalization dislocation and emplacement mediation and exclusion This series publishes theoretically informed original scholarship from the fields of literary and cultural studies as well as media visual and film studies It fosters an interdisciplinary dialogue on the multiple ways in which conflict supports and constrains the production of meaning on how conflict is represented how it relates to the past and projects the present and how it frames scholarship within the humanities Editors Isabel Capeloa Gil Catholic University of Portugal Lisbon Portugal Paulo de Medeiros University of Warwick UK Catherine Nesci University of California Santa Barbara USA Editorial Board Arjun Appadurai New York University Claudia Benthien Universit t Hamburg Elisabeth Bronfen Universit t Z rich Bishnupriya Ghosh University of California Santa Barbara Joyce Goggin Universiteit van Amsterdam Lawrence Grossberg University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Andreas Huyssen Columbia University Ansgar N nning Universit t Gie en Naomi Segal University of London Birkbeck College M rcio Seligmann Silva Universidade Estadual de Campinas Ant nio Sousa Ribeiro Universidade de Coimbra Roberto Vecchi Universita di Bologna Samuel Weber Northwestern University Liliane Weissberg University of Pennsylvania Christoph Wulf FU Berlin Longxi Zhang City University of Hong Kong Carnivalizing

Reconciliation Hanna Teichler, 2021-10-15 Transitional justice and national inquiries may be the most established means for coming to terms with traumatic legacies but it is in the more subtle social and cultural processes of memory work that the pitfalls and promises of reconciliation are laid bare This book analyzes within the realms of literature and film recent Australian and Canadian attempts to reconcile with Indigenous populations in the wake of forced child removal As Hanna Teichler demonstrates their systematic emphasis on the subjectivity of the victim is problematic reproducing simplistic narratives and identities defined by victimization Such fictions of reconciliation venture beyond simplistic narratives and identities defined by victimization offering new opportunities for confronting painful histories Holy Moments Martha Dalton Ward, 2018-07-06 Momentslife is a sequence of them In the joyous times the spectacular instances seem to hurry by too quickly In the routine of everyday life ordinary moments slip by often unnoticed During anxious times it is as though every minute creeps by at an agonizingly slow pace But as Rev Martha Ward illustrates God is present at all times and if we open ourselves to that reality every moment is holy In Holy Moments When Life and Faith Intersect Rev Ward links her own personal stories and those of her family with key scriptures to illustrate the variety of ways our life events become holy moments Her hope is that readers will use her reflections as a springboard to consider how God is present in the moments of their lives After Satan Martine Hennard Dutheil de la Rochère, Kirsten Stirling, 2010-07-12 This volume is the result of a collective desire to pay homage to Neil Forsyth whose work has significantly contributed to scholarship on Satan This volume is after Satan in more ways than one tracing the afterlife of both the satanic figure in literature and of Neil Forsyth s contribution to the field particularly in his major books The Old Enemy Satan and the Combat Myth Princeton University Press 1987 revised 1990 and The Satanic Epic Princeton University Press 2003 The essays in this volume draw on Forsyth s work as a focus for their analyses of literary encounters with evil or with the Devil himself reflecting the richness and variety of contemporary approaches to the age old question of how to represent evil All the contributors acknowledge Neil Forsyth's influence in the study of both the Satan figure and Milton's Paradise Lost But beyond simply paying homage to Neil Forsyth the articles collected here trace the lineage of the Satan figure through literary history showing how evil can function as a necessary other against which a community may define itself They chart the demonised other through biblical history and medieval chronicle Shakespeare and Milton to nineteenth century fiction and the contemporary novel Many of the contributors find that literary evil is mediated through the lens of the Satan of Paradise Lost and their articles address the notion raised by Neil Forsyth in The Satanic Epic that the literary Devil figures under consideration are particularly interested in linguistic ambivalence and the twisted texture of literary works themselves The multiple responses to evil and the continuous reinvention of the devil figure through the centuries all reaffirm the textual presence of the Devil his changing forms necessarily inscribed in the shifting history of western literary culture These essays are a tribute to the work of Neil Forsyth whose scholarship has illuminated and guided the study of the Devil in English and other literatures

Heresy and Identity in Late Antiquity Eduard Iricinschi, Holger M. Zellentin, 2008 The papers collected in this volume shift the focus away from heretics and heresy to heresiological discourse by contextualizing the late antique Jewish and Christian groups that produced our extant literature The contributors to the volume draw from multiple literary corpora and genres bringing a variety of late antique perspective to explore the discursive construction of the Other They unravel ethnic identities and recreate the multiple voices textured in the dialogue between the orthodox and heretical writers

BOOK JACKET Intimate Enemies Jessica Steele, 1979-01-01 Enemy Images in War Propaganda Marja Vuorinen, 2012-01-17 In the post 9 11 world the emotionally charged concepts of identity and ideology enmity and political violence have once again become household words Contrary to the serene assumptions of the early 1990s history did not end Civilisations are busy clashing against one another and the self proclaimed pacified humanity is once again showing its barbaric roots Religion mixes with politics to produce governments that abuse even their own citizens and victorious insurgents too often fail to carry out the promised reforms Terrorists blow up unsuspecting pedestrians and allegedly democratic nations threaten to bomb allegedly less democratic ones back to the Stone Age Mass demonstrations materialise like flash mobs out of nowhere prepared to hold their ground until the bitter end Where does all this passionate intensity come from To better understand how the ideological enmity of today is moulded spread and managed this book investigates the propaganda operations of the past Its topics range from the ruthless portrayal of female enemy soldiers in an early 20th century civil war setting to the multiple enemy images cherished by Adolf Hitler and onwards to the WWII Soviet Russians as a subtype of a more ancient notion of the Eastern Hordes Of more recent events the book covers the Rwandan genocide of 1994 and the still ongoing Israel Palestine conflict The closing chapter on cyber warfare introduces the reader to the invisible enemies of the future

The Politics of Penance Michael Griffin, 2016-08-02 Bless me Father for I have sinned says the penitent to open the dialogue in Catholic confessionals across the globe and throughout the ages Along with the priest s words For your penance this encounter is an icon of Catholic life But does the script and the practices it signifies have any relevance beyond the confessional In The Politics of Penance Michael Griffin responds yes He explores great figures of the Christian tradition the early Irish monks St Thomas Aquinas and Pope St John Paul II to offer surprising insights for social repair The result is a new ethic which Griffin applies to contemporary crises in criminal justice truth and reconciliation and the treatment of soldiers returning from war

A rose of yesterday* Francis Marion Crawford,1897      Building the Land of Dreams Eberhard L. Faber,2018-07-10 The history of New Orleans at the turn of the nineteenth century In 1795 New Orleans was a sleepy outpost at the edge of Spain s American empire By the 1820s it was teeming with life its levees packed with cotton and sugar New Orleans had become the unquestioned urban capital of the antebellum South Looking at this remarkable period filled with ideological struggle class politics and powerful personalities Building the Land of Dreams is the narrative biography of a fascinating city at the most crucial turning point in its history Eberhard Faber tells the vivid story of how American rule forced New Orleans through a vast transition from the ordered colonial world of hierarchy and subordination to the fluid unpredictable chaos of democratic capitalism The change in authority from imperial Spain to Jeffersonian America transformed everything As the city s diverse people struggled over the terms of the transition they built the foundations of a dynamic contentious hybrid metropolis Faber describes the vital individuals who played a role in New Orleans history from the wealthy creole planters who dreaded the influx of revolutionary ideas to the American arrivistes who combined idealistic visions of a new republican society with selfish dreams of quick plantation fortunes to Thomas Jefferson himself whose powerful democratic vision for Louisiana eventually conflicted with his equally strong sense of realpolitik and desire to strengthen the American union Revealing how New Orleans was formed by America s greatest impulses and ambitions Building the Land of Dreams is an inspired exploration of one of the world s most iconic cities

The Middle East in Turmoil John V. Canfield,2001 Middle East in Turmoil Volume 1      Indigenous Plots in Twenty-First Century Latin American Cinema Maria Chiara D'Argenio,2022-03-31 In this engaging book Maria Chiara D Argenio delineates a turn in recent Latin American filmmaking towards inter cultural feature films made by non Indigenous directors Aimed at a global audience but played by Indigenous actors these films tell Indigenous stories in Indigenous languages Over the last two decades a growing number of Latin American films have screened the Indigenous experience by combining the local and the global in a way that has proved appealing at international film festivals Locating the films in composite webs of past and present traditions and forms Indigenous Plots in Twenty First Century Latin American Cinema examines the critical reflection offered by recent inter cultural films and the socio cultural impact if any they might have had Through the analysis of a selection of films produced between 2006 and 2019 the book gauges the extent to which non Indigenous directors who set out to engage critically with colonial legacies and imaginaries as well as with contemporary Indigenous marginalization succeed in addressing these concerns by unthinking and undoing Western centrism and coloniality Drawing on a wide range of disciplines and considering the entire cinematic process from pre production to the films production circulation and critical reception Indigenous Plots in Twenty First Century Latin American Cinema makes the case for a holistic cultural criticism to explain the cultural and political work cinema does in specific historical contexts German Literature and the First World War: The Anti-War Tradition Brian Murdoch, 2016-03-09 The period immediately following the end of the First World War witnessed an outpouring of artistic and literary creativity as those that had lived through the war years sought to communicate their experiences and opinions In Germany this manifested itself broadly into two camps one condemning the war outright the other condemning the defeat Of the former Erich Maria Remarque's All Quiet on the Western Front remains the archetypal example of an anti war novel and one that has become synonymous with the Great War Yet the tremendous and enduring popularity of Remarque's work has to some extent eclipsed a plethora of other German anti war writers such as Hans Chlumberg Ernst Johannsen and Adrienne Thomas In order to provide a more rounded view of German anti war literature this volume offers a selection of essays published by Brian Murdoch over the past twenty years Beginning with a newly written introduction providing the context for the volume and surveying recent developments in the subject the essays that follow range broadly over the German anti war literary tradition telling us much about the shifting and contested nature of the war The volume also touches upon subjects such as responsibility victimhood the problem of historical hiatus in the production and reception of novels drama poetry film and other literature written during the war in the Weimar Republic and in the Third Reich The collection also underlines the potential dangers of using novels as historical sources even when they look like diaries One essay was previously unpublished two have been augmented and three are translated into English for the first time Taken together they offer a fascinating insight into the cultural memory and literary legacy of the First World War and German anti war texts
