Women as Unseen Characters Pascale Bonnemère, 2013-03-26

Rituals have always been a focus of ethnographies of Melanesia providing a ground for important theorizing in anthropology This is especially true of the male initiation rituals that until recently were held in Papua New Guinea For the most part these rituals have been understood as all male institutions intended to maintain and legitimate male domination Women's exclusion from the forest space where men conducted most such rites has been taken as a sign of their exclusion from the entire ritual process Women as Unseen Characters is the first book to examine the role of females in Papua New Guinea male rituals and the first systematic treatment of this issue for any part of the world In this volume leading Melanesian scholars build on recent ethnographies that show how female kin had roles in male rituals that had previously gone unseen Female seclusion and the enforcement of taboos were crucial elements of the ritual process forms of presence in their own right Contributors here provide detailed accounts of the different kinds of female presence in various Papua New Guinea male rituals When these are restored to the picture the rituals can no longer be interpreted merely as an institution for reproducing male domination but must also be understood as a moment when the whole system of relations binding a male person to his kin is reorganized By dealing with the participation of women a totally neglected dimension of male rituals is added to our understanding

The Masochistic Pleasures of Sentimental Literature Marianne Noble, 2000-04-04 For generations critics have noticed in nineteenth century American women's sentimentality a streak of masochism but their discussions of it have over simplified its complex relationship to women's power Marianne Noble argues that tropes of eroticized domination in sentimental literature must be recognized for what they were a double edged sword of both oppression and empowerment She begins by exploring the cultural forces that came together to create this ideology of desire particularly Protestant discourses relating suffering to love and middle class discourses of true womanhood She goes on to demonstrate how sentimental literature takes advantage of the expressive power in the convergence of these two discourses to imagine women's romantic desire Therefore in sentimental literature images of eroticized domination are not antithetical to female pleasure but rather can be constitutive of it The book however does not simply celebrate that fact In readings of Warner's The Wide Wide World Stowe's Uncle Tom's Cabin and Dickinson's sentimental poetry it addresses the complex benefits and costs of nineteenth century women's literary masochism Ultimately it shows how these authors both exploited and were shaped by this discursive practice The Masochistic Pleasures of Sentimental Literature exemplifies new trends in Third Wave feminist scholarship presenting cultural and historical research informed by clear lucid discussions of psychoanalytic and literary theory It demonstrates that contemporary theories of masochism including those of Deleuze Bataille Kristeva Benjamin Bersani Noyes Mansfield are more relevant and comprehensible when considered in relation to sentimental literature
