Creative Nonfiction Lee Gutkind, Leslie Rubinkowski, 2024-11-05 The very best writing from one of America's most groundbreaking literary magazines When Creative Nonfiction debuted in 1994 the literary genre it championed was largely the target of skepticism or downright ridicule But at a time when few editors were interested in the personal essay the magazine doggedly explored new ideas and fresh modes of expression and over the next three decades its contributors pioneered what would come to be known as the fourth genre The thirty two essays collected here bring together some of the finest work Creative Nonfiction published over its seventy eight issues Read Pulitzer Prize winner Charles Simic's boyhood remembrances of the bombing of Belgrade Carolyn Forché's haunting lyric catalog of her daily life as she faced down a cancer diagnosis and John Edgar Wideman's meditation on the photo of a murdered boy his same age Emmett Till and how the image haunted him forever Here you'll find work by such luminaries as Adrienne Rich and John McPhee but also essays from more contemporary voices like Brian Broome Elizabeth Fortescue and Anne McGrath With an introduction by Lee Gutkind Creative Nonfiction's founder and editor this collection captures the evolution of a genre and the amazing work of the little magazine that helped make it all happen

Humanities Janelle Adsit, 2021-11-29 Epistemic Justice Mindfulness and the Environmental Humanities explores how contemplative pedagogies and mindfulness can be used in the classroom to address epistemic and environmental injustice In recent years there has been a groundswell of interest in contemplative pedagogies in higher education with increasing attention from the environmental sciences environmental humanities and sustainability studies Teachers and writers have demonstrated how mindfulness practices can be a key to anti oppression and anti racist efforts both in and out of the classroom Not all forms of contemplative pedagogy are suited for this anti colonial and anti oppressive resistance however Simply adopting mindfulness practices in the classroom is not enough to dislodge and dismantle white supremacy in higher education Epistemic Justice Mindfulness and the Environmental Humanities advocates for mindfulness practices that affirm multiple epistemologies and cultural traditions Written for educators in the environmental humanities and other related disciplines the chapters interrogate the western uptake of mindfulness practices and suggest anti colonial and anti oppressive methods for bringing mindfulness into the classroom The chapters also discuss what mindfulness practices have to offer to the pursuit of a culturally relevant pedagogy This highly applied and practical text will be an insightful read for educators in the environmental humanities and across the liberal arts disciplines Creative Nonfiction , 1999 Write
