Journey Into Romanesque George A. Nebolsine, 1969 A Story of the Soul's Journey in the Nag Hammadi Library Ulla Tervahauta, 2015-08-19 Authentikos Logos NHC VI 3 also known as Authoritative Teaching is a little studied story of a soul's descent and ascent in the Nag Hammadi library With her book Ulla Tervahauta fills a gap in the scholarship and provide the first monograph length study that has this writing as its primary focus The aim is to find a place and context for Authentikos Logos within early Christianity but Tervahauta also adds new insight into the scholarship of the Nag Hammadi Library and study of early Christianity Contrary to the usual discussion of the Nag Hammadi writings from the viewpoint of Gnostic studies she argues that Authentikos Logos is best approached from the context of Christian traditions of late ancient Egypt between the third and the fifth centuries Tervahauta discusses the story of the soul's journey in light of various Christian and Platonic writings Also she analyses the relationship of Authentikos Logos with the Valentinian Wisdom myth and suggests that no firm evidence connects the writing closely with Valentinian traditions And although a Platonic mind set can be assumed the writing combines motifs in a unique manner For example the four epithets used in the writing the invisible soul the pneumatic soul the material soul and the rational soul are not found thus combined elsewhere Discussion of matter hyle is connected with Christian scriptural allusions and the focus is on ethics and the evilness of matter The body on the other hand is the soul's place of contest and progress The Pauline term pneumatic body 1 Cor 15 44 is used allusively and from a Platonic perspective With this book Ulla Tervahauta makes an important contribution to the study of early Christianity in late ancient Egypt by discussing a writing that shows knowledge and creative combination of literary traditions that circulated in late ancient Egypt Sacred Journeys in the Counter-Reformation Elizabeth C. Tingle, 2020-06-08 Sacred Journeys in the Counter Reformation examines long distance pilgrimages to ancient international shrines in northwestern Europe in the two centuries after Luther In this region in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries saints cults and pilgrimage were frequently contested more so than in the Mediterranean world France the Low Countries and the British Isles were places of disputation and hostility between Protestant and Catholic sacred landscapes and journeys came under attack and in some regions were outlawed by the state Taking as case studies hugely popular medieval shrines such as Compostela the Mont Saint Michel and Lough Derg the impact of Protestant criticism and Catholic revival on shrines pilgrims motives and experiences is examined through life writings devotional works and institutional records The central focus is that of agency in religious change what drove spiritual reform and what were its consequences for the ordinary Catholic This is explored through concepts of the religious self holy materiality and sacred space Exploring Romanesque Architecture in Catalonia , Journey Through France , 2000-04-17 A beautiful new guide featuring 100 of the most interesting and spectacular locations in France The International Studio Charles Holme, Guy Eglinton, Peyton Boswell, William Bernard McCormick, Henry James Whigham, 1922 American Journal of Archaeology , 1918 A Luminary Legacy: Treasures of
