South African English Children's Literature Elwyn Jenkins, 2006-11-01 This is the first full length study of South African English youth literature to cover the entire period of its publication from the late nineteenth century to the early twenty first century Jenkins book focuses on what made the subsequent literature essentially South African and what aspects of the country and its society authors concentrated on What gives this book particular strength is its coverage of literature up to the 1960s which has until now received almost no scholarly attention Not only is this earlier literature a rewarding subject for study in itself but it also throws light on subsequent literary developments Another exceptional feature is that the book follows the author s previous work in placing children s literature in the context of adult South African literature and South African cultural history e g cinema He also makes enlightening comparisons with American Canadian and Australian children s literature

Joburg! ,2006 Wake Up, This Is Joburg Tanya Zack, Mark Lewis, 2022-09-19 A single image taken from a high rise building in inner city Johannesburg uncovers layers of history from its premise and promise of gold to its current improvisations It reveals the city as carcass and as crucible where informal agents and processes spearhead its rapid reshaping and transformation In Wake Up This Is Joburg writer Tanya Zack and photographer Mark Lewis offer a stunning portrait of Johannesburg and personal stories of some of the city s ordinary odd and outrageous residents Their photos and essays take readers into meat markets where butchers chop cow heads the eclectic home of an outsider artist that features turrets and full of manikins long abandoned gold pits beneath the city where people continue to mine informally and lively markets taxi depots and residential high rises Sharing people s private and work lives and the extraordinary spaces of the metropolis Zack and Lewis show that Johannesburg s urban transformation occurs not in a series of dramatic wide scale changes but in the everyday lives actions and dreams of individuals

Anxious Joburg Nicky Falkof, Cobus van Staden, 2020-10-01 An interdisciplinary account of the life of Johannesburg South Africa s global south city Anxious Joburg focuses on Johannesburg the largest and wealthiest city in South Africa as a case study for the contemporary global South city Global South cities are often characterised as sites of contradiction and difference that produce a range of feelings around anxiety This is often imagined in terms of the global North s anxieties about the South migration crime terrorism disease and environmental crisis Anxious Joburg invites readers to consider an intimate perspective of living inside such a city How does it feel to live in the metropolis of Johannesburg what are the conditions intersections affects and experiences that mark the contemporary urban Scholars visual artists and storytellers all look at unexamined aspects of Johannesburg life From peripheral settlements to the inner city to the affluent northern suburbs from precarious migrants and domestic workers to upwardly mobile young women and fearful elites Anxious Joburg presents an absorbing engagement with this frustrating dangerous seductive city It offers a rigorous critical approach to Johannesburg revealing the way in which anxiety is a vital structuring principle of contemporary life The approach is strongly interdisciplinary with contributions from media studies anthropology religious studies urban geography migration studies and psychology It will appeal to students and teachers as well as to academic researchers concerned with Johannesburg South Africa cities and the global South The mix of approaches will also draw a non academic audience The Blinded City Matthew Wilhelm-Solomon,2022-07-01 Shortlisted for the 2023 Sunday Times Literary Awards One of the best works of narrative non fiction to emerge from the country in years Quite simply brilliant NIREN TOLSI Amid evictions raids killings the drug trade and fire inner city Johannesburg residents seek safety and a home A grandmother struggles to keep her granddaughter as she is torn away from her A mother seeks healing in the wake of her son s murder And displaced by the city s drive for urban regeneration a group of blind migrants try to carve out an existence The Blinded City recounts the history of inner city Johannesburg from 2010 to 2019 primarily from the perspectives of the unlawful occupiers of spaces known as hijacked buildings bad buildings or dark buildings Tens of thousands of residents both South African and foreign national live in these buildings in dire conditions This book tells the story of these sites and the court cases around them which strike at the centre of who has the right to occupy the city In February 2010 while Johannesburg prepared for the FIFA World Cup the South Gauteng High Court ordered the eviction of the unlawful occupiers of an abandoned carpet factory on Saratoga Avenue and that the city s Metropolitan Municipality provide temporary emergency accommodation for the evicted The case which became known as Blue Moonlight and went to the Constitutional Court catalysed a decade of struggles over housing and eviction in Johannesburg The Blinded City chronicles this case among others and the aftermath a tumultuous period in the city characterised by recurrent disposessions police and immigration operations outbursts of xenophobic violence and political and legal change All through the decade there is the backdrop of successive mayors and their attempts to clean up the city and the struggles of residents and urban housing activists for homes and a better life The interwoven narratives present a compelling mosaic of life in post apartheid Johannesburg one of the globe s most infamous and vital cities Global Voices Susan B.
