Journeys Through Dreamtime Oceanic Myth:

Journeys Through Dreamtime Tony Allan, 1999 It is the cultural information that never seems to make it into history books strange stories mystic rites angry gods vision quests magic symbols This series captures culture by culture the intersection of imagination history wisdom dream and reality Dreaming the Land Friedrich Schweitzer, International Academy of Practical Theology. Meeting, 2007 Dreaming the Land Theologies of Resistance and Hope is a theme that testifies to the contextual nature of practical theology This present volume contains a collection of essays with international contributions to practical theology In their original form these essays were presented at the seventh biennial conference of the International Academy of Practical Theology IAPT held at Brisbane Australia in June 2005 The dreaming and the land are both concepts central to the thinking of the aboriginal peoples of Australia The dreaming encompasses the creative and life giving forces which govern and express the lifeworld of these same people while the land is sacred space where the spirits of the ancestors of all human plant and animal life are represented The theme is the common thread in the first part of the book Here the search for Theologies of Resistance and Hope is related to experiences in the southern hemisphere to issues of the land as a concept for practical theology and to questions of human rights The Lessons of Nature in Mythology Rachel S. McCoppin, 2015-10-29 This examination of myths from around the world focuses on the role nature plays within mythology Creation myths from myriad cultures recognized that life arose from natural elements inextricably connecting human life to the natural world Nature as portrayed in myth is unpredictable and destructive but also redemptive providing solace and wisdom Mythology relates the human life cycle to the seasons with spring summer fall and winter as metaphors for birth adulthood old age and death The author identifies divinities who were direct representations of natural phenomena The transition of mythic representations from the Paleolithic to Neolithic period is discussed The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Global Medieval Life and Culture Joyce E. Salisbury, Nancy Sullivan, 2008-12-30 The period we know as the Middle Ages roughly the years 400 1400 saw the formation of ideas and institutions that mark modern societies Developments as disparate as the foundation of Islam and the emergence of the middle class occurred during this pivotal millennium Although historical study of the Middle Ages has traditionally focused on Western Europe modern historians recognize the complex global nature of this era For all major world regions this three volume work offers in depth essays on broad themes short entries on specific topics and carefully selected primary documents to help readers more fully understand this critically important period Edited by Joyce Salisbury who is general editor of the award winning Greenwood Encyclopedia of Daily Life and written by Professor Salisbury and a series of prominent historians with regional expertise Greenwood Encyclopedia of Global Medieval Life and Culture comprises three volumes covering the following areas of the globe Volume 1 Europe and the Americas Volume 2 Islam and Africa Volume 3 Asia and Oceania Each regional section comprises seven in depth essays covering the following broad topics and concluding with bibliographies of important and current information resources

Historical Overview of the Region Religion Economy The Arts Society Science and Technology and Global Ties The Global Ties essays trace the political social economic religious technological or commercial connections that existed between the region under discussion and any other world regions during the Middle Ages Each regional section also includes a series of brief entries covering people events developments and concepts mentioned in the in depth essays Examples of entry topics include the following Berbers Emperor Harsha Ethiopian Christianity Flowery Warfare Footbinding Hildegard of Bingen Jainism Jihad Maya Collapse Neo Confucianism Romanesque and Sharia A series of sidebars in each section will provide lists graphs charts and other useful data relating to the region Each section will also be illustrated and will include a selection of interesting primary documents that further illustrate the main themes addressed in the in depth essays Cross references within the sections and a detailed subject index will also help readers access information in the essays and short entries

Books in Print Supplement ,2002      Dictionary of Nature Myths Tamra Andrews,2000 Comprehensive and cross referenced this informative volume is a rich introduction to the world of nature as experienced by ancient peoples around the globe 51 halftones      National Geographic Essential Visual History of World Mythology ,2008 Conveniently sized yet large in scope National Geographic Essential Visual History of World Mythology an irresistible treasure to own and to give BOOK JACKET      The Oceania Monographs ,      Oceania Alfred Reginald Radcliffe-Brown,Raymond Firth,Adolphus Peter Elkin,1988      Myths of Oceania Anita Dalal,2002 Presents some of the mythology of Oceania particularly Polynesia and Australia and gives some background information on the peoples there      Emplaced Myth Alan Rumsey,James F. Weiner,2001-01-01 Australia and Papua New Guinea share a number of important social cultural and historical features making a sustained comparison between the two especially productive This situates the ethnography of the two areas within a comparative framework and examines the relationship between indigenous systems of knowledge and place an issue of growing concern to anthropologists The essays demonstrate the manner in which regimes of restricted knowledge serve to protect and augment cultural property and the proprietorship over sites and territory how myths evolve to explain and culturally appropriate important events pertaining to contact between indigenous and Western societies how graphic designs and other culturally important iconic and iconographic processes provide conduits of cross cultural appropriation between indigenous and non indigenous societies in today s multicultural nation states      Narratives and Journeys in Rock Art: A Reader George Nash,Aron Mazel,2018-11-19 Why publish a Reader Today it is relatively easy and convenient to switch on your computer and download an academic paper However as many scholars have experienced historic references are difficult to access Moreover some are now lost and are merely references in later papers This can be frustrating      Tristan Tzara and Mário de Andrade's Journeys from Ethnography to the Avant-Garde Nefeli Zygopoulou,2021-05-14 This book presents a comparative study of Tristan Tzara 1896 1963 and M rio de Andrade 1893 1945 analysing their contributions to oral language traditions and to the body of criticism on modernism This is the first work to offer an analysis of Tzara s posthumously published prose Personnage d'insomnie and the first in the English language that explores de Andrade's libretto for the opera Café as well as other examples of their poetry and prose. The Romanian Jewish poet and writer Tzara, later a naturalised French citizen, became a central figure in the European avant-garde from 1916 when he took part in the Dada Movement. Mario de Andrade, the Brazilian poet, writer, and musicologist of mixed origins, was a contemporary of Tzara and a similarly central figure in the 1922 São Paulo Modern Art Week that defined Brazilian Modernism. Both emerged from very different backgrounds but they followed a parallel creative path. This book discusses their research and adaptation of various language manifestations, ethnopoetics, and folk traditions that led them to the creation of distinct and individual styles. The historical and socio-political events of the late 1930s would later prompt both authors to develop militant poetics. Through chronologically compatible case studies, the reader will discover that Tzara and de Andrade, alongside their playful language, actively criticised cultural imperialism and advocated against hate. Journeys can be physical and intellectual; they can crisscross, leave traces, and overlap. This book takes the reader from two starting points: a small Romanian town in the foothills of the Carpathians and a two-storey house in an unusually tranquil street in São Paulo, Brazil, to the heart of the twentieth-century avant-garde. As it shows, Tristan Tzara and Mario de Andrade traversed borders and geographical points, and their poetics meet in Mozambique, Parisian cafés, and Bantu chants.
