The Joy of the Lord is My Strength Michael Soppeland, 2018-04-09 Music has been called the universal language I have found very few people who do not like some genres of it It touches all of us The appeal of music is that the human person is affected by the ideas it promotes and the emotions it evokes Words like rhythm melody harmony and color are all included in the art of music I have used music to introduce each chapter as I write my thoughts about life and all that it means This book is my own description of peace love hope and joy As a Christian I am influenced by God Scripture and my hope that all people would come to love and know God through the person of his son Jesus the Christ When the Israelites were bringing the Ark of the Covenant into Jerusalem King David commanded the chiefs of the Levites to appoint their brethren as the singers who should play loudly on musical instruments on harps and lyres and cymbals to raise sounds of joy 1 Chronicles 15 16 RSV And through the challenges of life that is why I claim Nehemiah 8 10 as the title of this work The Joy of the Lord Is My Strength

The God Who Rejoices Christian D. Kettler, 2010-06-01 How does one deal with despair Are joy and despair irreconcilable How does the joy and despair of Jesus Christ relate to our joy and despair Continuing to explore the implications of the vicarious humanity of Christ as he did in The God Who Believes Christian Kettler investigates the christological implications of the all too human phenomenon of despair All people experience the pain of personal loss and lack of the meaningfulness of existence We also desire and covet joy as difficult as it is often to define or maintain Jesus was both the man of sorrows and one who for the joy set before him endured the cross Heb 12 2 Can we think of the despair of Christ and the joy of Christ as both being vicarious in our place and on our behalf and thus have a theological way to possess joy in the midst of despair as well as to have a more robust theology of the atonement Drawing on wide ranging resources from Augustine Calvin Karl Barth and T F Torrance to Bob Dylan the fantasy writer Ray Bradbury and Ed Wood the director of Plan Nine from Outer Space Kettler seeks to bring Trinitarian and incarnational theology deep into our flesh filled with real despair and joy and find that Jesus is there with his own despair there to lift us up with his own joy
