Expect Something Beautiful Laura Booz, 2021-10-05 Is motherhood only about self sacrifice Or will it bless your life too You know that motherhood makes high demands Yet you know it's worth the cost because it benefits your child On some grand level it's also good for civilization And of course it's a calling from God So is that what you're doing here pouring out your life for God and others while getting little in return except the consolation that you've done the right thing Laura Booz wants you to expect something more out of motherhood something truly beautiful You might be asking Will I lose myself in motherhood Compromise my career Squander my potential What's the point of all that unseen and uncelebrated serving cleaning caring snuggling discipling and praying Laura wants to help you see that behind all the giving that mothers do is the receiving of something special a profound growth in God that is cultivated through motherhood's everyday ups and downs Let this book give you a renewed vision of motherhood to see God's good purpose for you as a mother a woman and a follower of Christ

Joy-bearing Grief Hannah Hunt, 2004-11-01 This volume is the first full length study of penitential tears of contrition since Hausherr's in 1944 It traces its exposition in the early eastern Christian tradition through detailed analysis of Greek and Syriac texts by Klimakos Ephrem Isaac and Symeon the New Theologian It suggests why such weeping is for these writers a joyful as well as a sobering experience and it places their writings in their historical and geographical context giving some lexicographical background Issues of religious anthropology and the unusual choice of a female exegete in the person of the sinful woman Luke 7:36-50 are considered The conclusion points the way to an appropriate theological interpretation of these teachings and highlights modern non monastic examples of joy bearing penitent grief
