The Grove Book of Art Writing Martin Gayford, Karen Wright, 2000 A collection of thoughts and ideas about art spanning thousands of years from Pliny the Elder to Picasso Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, L.W. Conolly, 2004-11-30 Post Colonial Literatures in English together with English Literature and American Literature form one of the three major groupings of literature in English and as such are widely studied around the world Their significance derives from the richness and variety of experience which they reflect In three volumes this Encyclopedia documents the history and development of this body of work and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide Joyce and Militarism Greg Winston, 2012-11-25 Each of James Joyce's major works appeared in a year defined by armed conflict in Ireland or continental Europe Dubliners in 1914 at the outbreak of the First World War A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man in the same year as the 1916 Easter Rising Ulysses in February 1922 two months after the Anglo Irish Treaty and a few months before the outbreak of the Irish Civil War and Finnegans Wake in 1939 as Joyce complained that the German army's westward advances upstaged the novel's release In Joyce and Militarism Greg Winston considers these masterworks in light of the longstanding shadows that military culture and ideology cast over the society in which the writer lived and wrote The first book length study of its kind this articulate volume offers original and interesting insights into Joyce's response to the military presence in everything from education and athletics to prostitution and public space Claiming History Eleni Coundouriotis, 1999 Places African literature novels of the colonial and postcolonial periods written in both French and English in their proper context within the field of postcolonial studies and illustrates how historical narration not only answers back to Europe's colonialist legacy but also serves as a complex form of dissent among Africans themselves The Coretta Scott King Awards, 1970-2009 Henrietta M. Smith, 2009-06-29 Gathers together the best African American children's literature Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff, R R Bowker Publishing, 1996-09

William Blake G.E. Bentley Jr., 2002-09-10 The Critical Heritage gathers together a large body of critical sources on major figures in literature Each volume presents contemporary responses to a writer's work enabling students and researchers to read for themselves for example comments on early performances of Shakespeare's plays or reactions to the first publication of Jane Austen's novels The carefully selected sources range from landmark essays in the history of criticism to journalism and contemporary opinion and little published documentary material such as letters and diaries Significant pieces of criticism from later periods are also included in order to demonstrate the fluctuations in an author's reputation Each volume contains an introduction to the writer's published works a selected bibliography and an index of works authors and subjects The Collected Critical Heritage set will be available as a set of 68 volumes and the series will also be available in mini sets selected by period in slipcase boxes and as individual volumes
