Joyce Smiths Running:

Joyce Smith's Running Book Bryan Smith, 1983-01-01 Running Encyclopedia Richard Benyo, Joe Henderson, 2002 An A to Z resource on running including history key figures major events and primary training theories and terms When Running Made History Roger Robinson, 2018-05-17 Robinson takes readers on a globe trotting tour that combines a historian's insight with vivid personal memories going back to just after World War II From experiencing the 1948 Austerity Olympics in London as a young spectator to working as a journalist in the Boston Marathon media center at the moment of the 2013 bombings Robinson offers a fascinating first person account of the tragic and triumphant moments that impacted the world and shaped the modern sport He chronicles the beginnings of the American running boom the emergence of women's running the end of the old amateur rules and the redefinition of aging for athletes and amateurs With an intimate perspective and insightful reporting Robinson captures major historical events through the lens of running He recounts running in Berlin at the time of German reunification in 1990 organizing a replacement track meet in New Zealand after the disastrous 2011 earthquake and the triumph of Ethiopian athlete Abebe Bikila in the 1960 Olympics in Rome As an avid runner journalist and fan Robinson brings these global events to life and reveals the intimate and powerful ways in which running has intersected with recent history Running Times, 2007-09 Running Times magazine explores training from the perspective of top athletes coaches and scientists rates and profiles elite runners and provides stories and commentary reflecting the dedicated runner's worldview The 1984 Los Angeles Olympic Games Matthew Llewellyn, John Gleaves, Wayne Wilson, 2017-10-02 The 1984 Los Angeles Olympic Games stand as the most profitable and arguably the most important event in the history of the modern Olympic movement Fresh off the back of the financially disastrous Montreal Games of 1976 and the politically controversial Moscow Games of 1980 the Olympic movement returned to the United States for the sixth time in an attempt to salvage the economic viability and global prestige of the Olympics The Los Angeles Olympics proved to be both provocative and polarizing On the one hand they have been heralded as an overwhelming transformative success ushering the Olympic movement into the modern commercial age On the other hand critics have repudiated the Games as a manifestation of commercial excess and a platform for western political and cultural propaganda In conjunction with the 30th anniversary of the Los Angeles Olympics this volume examines their legacy With an international collection of contributing scholars this volume will span a range of global legacies including the increasing commercialization of the Games the changing participation of women the Communist boycott movement nationalism and sporting identity and the modernization and California cation of the Games This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of the History of Sport First Ladies of Running Amby Burfoot, 2016-04-05 Today millions of women and girls around the world enjoy running and entering races It wasn't always so In 1961 when Julia Chase edged to the start of a Connecticut 5 miler officials tried to push her off the road At the 1966 Boston Marathon Roberta Gibb hid behind a forsythia bush worried that police might arrest her The next year at Boston Kathrine Switzer was assaulted mid race by a furious race organizer In the mid 60s Indianapolis high schooler Cheryl Bridges was told not to run anywhere near the boys track team because she might distract them When Charlotte Lettis signed up for the University of Massachusetts cross country team in the fall of 1971 she was told to use the men s locker room A few years later in coastal Maine young Joan Benoit would stop her workouts to pretend she was picking roadside flowers embarrassed that her neighbors might spot her running First Ladies of Running tells the inspiring stories of these and other fiercely independent runners who refused to give up despite the cultural and sports barriers they faced Legends such as Doris Brown Francie Larrieu Mary Decker Jackie Hansen Miki Gorman and Grete Waitz are chronicled by Runner s World editor Amby Burfoot Burfoot even runs the 1994 Marine Corps Marathon with Oprah Winfrey whose successful finish opened the floodgates for other women runners First Ladies of Running is a beautiful and long overdue tribute to the pioneers of women s running and a gift of empowerment for female runners everywhere In the Running Phil Hewitt,2016-09-08 From the strength and stamina of well known runners who achieve the almost impossible to the extraordinary runners who have changed lives and history this collection of unforgettable stories will inspire anyone who s ever pounded the pavement to keep on running and enjoy every minute of this liberating sport
