Living In-between: The Search for Identity in Leslie Marmon Silko's Ceremony Ariane Peters, 2007-09 Seminar paper from the year 2003 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 1.3 A Ernst Moritz Arndt University of Greifswald Institute for Anglistics American Studies language English abstract Although Leslie Marmon Silko's complete works have received exemplary reviews Ceremony seems to be the most talked about and recognized for its literary achievement One reason for this large attention is the strange narrative form due to the combination of the Indian storytelling myth poetry and a plot that takes place in a modern western¹ environment Another reason for the remarkable success of this novel is Silko's way to show the negative repercussions on Native Americans caused by racism alcoholism dislocation poverty as well as the industrial exploitation of the land In this paper I will discuss one of the principal themes presented in Leslie Silko's Ceremony the issue of Native American identity In the first part I will briefly introduce the characters of Tayo and Rocky two Native Americans who grew up on a reservation for the Laguna Pueblo in New Mexico After that I will examine the similarities between these two young men who both take part in the Second World War and make horrible experiences In the main part of this paper I will try to find out the differences between Tayo and Rocky in order to explain their different ways of searching their own identity Furthermore I will explore the sources of Tayo's selfdestructive behaviour and his problem of alienation Therefore I will have to ponder on the following questions How does the white culture influence these characters Do both men suffer from the loss of Indian self esteem What are the effects of internalized racism and colonization on the health of Tayo Why is Tayo able to return to the community to lead a stable and productive life In the final comment there will be a concluding assessment and a summary of the theme
