A Less Than Perfect Beginning Diane L. Huffman, 2014-03 During Beth Stedman's formative years in the late 1940s and early 1950s she wonders if the families depicted on the weekly television shows Leave It to Beaver Father Knows Best The Donna Reed Show existed in real life The fathers in the sitcoms had good paying jobs The mothers stayed home and vacuumed in dresses and high heels The brothers and sisters were respectful and obedient They lived in perfect harmony in perfect houses in perfect suburbs Once she was old enough to visit friends she realized that other families do in fact resemble those blissful television portrayals But hers certainly doesn't Growing up in her deranged East Coast household Beth feels like an outsider but a grateful outsider because her family is riddled with alcoholism poverty and an abundance of insanity Beth has her defenses though her faith a positive attitude and a penchant for putting a comedic spin on life She also harbors a secret escape plan and eventually the knowledge as to why she has always been the black sheep of the family Beth survives a deadbeat dad a defeated mom an overindulged sister and a villainous brother to demonstrate that the School of Hard Knocks doesn't have to ruin you for life In fact it can almost guarantee success
