LaLonde, 2012-06-19 I was around ten years old sleeping in the back seat of my mom's car parked during evenings at the Detroit River I looked out the window at the stars as I feared morning until by exhaustion I would fall asleep I often woke up having wet my pants from my very real and imagined fears By day my mom would look for work and wash clothes while I hung out with the old black guys that would spend their day fishing in the Detroit River I thought I was the only one who grew up in fear in a world of abuse until at thirteen I finally met my half brother at a professional boxing match He was sitting next to our dad Donny looked at me from inside the ring trying to figure out who I was as the fight announcer was making his formal introductions All we had shared at this point was the same biological father Little did we know Sitting with the Within Masters Kris A.
