Preskill, Tessie Tzavaras

Catsambas, 2006-06-21 I enjoyed the book I found the approach refreshing and useful The structure of the book made the argument easy to follow Practitioners of evaluation or any organizational change process will find the approach useful Anona Armstrong Evaluation Journal of Australasia This important volume represents a paradigm shift in the evaluation field presenting an approach that shifts evaluation from being something that we should do to something that stakeholders can look forward to doing even something they might actually love doing turning what can often be drudgery that ends up with reports that sit on shelves to dynamic processes that are downright fun while at the same time profound resulting in accelerating positive change in organizations programs and those who are part of them The book challenges the basic tenets underlying evaluation pushes the boundaries of the discipline The field may never be the same Malcolm J Odell Jr Appreciative Inquiry Consulting LLC I am delighted that the authors have taken AI and found new uses for this approach They provide concrete examples of the many ways evaluators have successfully used the AI approach in a wide variety of program and geographic settings Combining theory and practice this book is an important contribution to the evaluation field Gail Johnson The Evergreen State College Gail Johnson Reframing Evaluation Through Appreciative Inquiry is the first book to introduce the application of Appreciative Inquiry AI an approach for organizational development and change to the practice of evaluation Authors Hallie Preskill and Tessie Tzavaras Catsambas lay out the theoretical foundation of AI and build a bridge between the theory and practice of applying AI to evaluation Key Features Provides a step by step guide Written in a clear accessible style the text explains the way this particular approach has been used to frame design and conduct evaluations in various sectors worldwide Reflects specific real world applications of AI to evaluation practice Numerous U S based and international case examples enhance readers ability to see the nuances of applying AI to evaluation in a wide variety of international and multicultural organizational community and population contexts Offers a whole systems approach This text provides a whole systems approach which enables evaluation to deal with complex and dynamically changing programs Intended Audience This book will appeal to a broad audience that includes evaluators management and organization development consultants program staff and researchers in a wide variety of organizational and community settings It is an ideal supplemental text for graduate courses that require students to practice evaluation

Research Integration Using Dialogue Methods David McDonald, Gabriele Bammer, Peter Deane, 2009-08-01 Research on real world problems like restoration of wetlands the needs of the elderly effective disaster response and the future of the airline industry requires expert knowledge from a range of disciplines as well as from stakeholders affected by the problem and those in a position to do something about it This book charts new territory in taking a systematic approach to research integration using dialogue methods to bring together multiple perspectives It links specific dialogue methods to particular research integration tasks Fourteen dialogue methods for research integration are classified into two groups 1 Dialogue methods for understanding a problem broadly integrating judgements 2 Dialogue methods for understanding particular aspects of a problem integrating visions world views interests and values The methods are illustrated by case studies from four research areas the environment public health security and technological innovation

Feminist Reconstructions in Psychology Mary Gergen, 2000-10-03 Feminist Reconstructions in Psychology introduces a distinctive new mode of doing psychology This psychology is based on an increasingly popular range of ideas called social constructionism Within the book new forms of theory and methods of inquiry relating social constructionism to feminist topics are introduced Each chapter highlights different topics of special concern within gender studies especially the psychology of women The first chapter outlines the purposes of the book and positions social constructionism in relation to the more traditional feminist psychologies empiricist and feminist standpoint Given the trend toward social constructionism the author thinks the broad audience of people doing gender work will be interested in becoming familiar with this approach to the field The second and third chapters are focused on narrative methods as a means for studying gender differences in popular autobiographies The discussions center on differences in stories of achievement family love and embodiment Quotations from well known personalities such as Donald Trump and Martina Navratilova enrich the text The fourth fifth and sixth chapters involve issues of menopause with a focus group methodology a historical look at the male gaze as it is poised on the Naked Maja painting by Goya and how relationships function within imaginal conversations The two final chapters in the book are exemplars of a recent innovation in the field called performative psychology One monologue is about aging in contemporary society and the other is a feminist critique of aspects of postmodernism itself The book draws from the central tenets of postmodern inquiry as played out in the positive framework of social constructionism Emphasized are reflexivity the social basis of reality making the breakdown of traditional narrative forms the loss of objectivity as a scientific standard and the possibilities for new forms of doing research In this respect the book is unique and serves to provide a point of view on an intriguing movement that is gaining momentum across the social sciences and humanities It is hoped that this book might serve as a catalyst for further innovative work in psychology This text encourages such moves by its own irreverence for traditions and its overt efforts to break down resistances to creativity in the field
