Schwartz,2002 This book discusses the challenges facing humanity and the Jewish teaching related to these challenges in order to Galvanize Jews to help repair the world as required by Jewish law      Judaism and Global Survival Richard Schwartz,2023-08-15 Judaism and Global Survival discusses the challenges facing humanity and the Jewish teachings related to these challenges in order to galvanize Jews to help repair the world tikkun olam as required by Jewish law It argues that we don t need to discover new values and approaches to address current global threats What is needed is a rediscovery and application of basic Jewish teachings and mandates such as to pursue peace and justice to love our neighbors as ourselves and to act as co workers with God in protecting and preserving the world Judaism and Global Survival is meant to be a wake up call the strongest that one can make on the urgency of addressing climate threats and other environmental threats and the importance of Jews applying Jewish values in addressing these threats Among the issues discussed in the book are the following Jews are to guardians of the earth partners and co workers with God in working toward tikkun olam the healing repair and proper transforming of the world climate change is an existential threat to the world and the only hope to avert a climate catastrophe is through a major shift to plant based diets as that would enable reforestation of the vast areas now used for animal agriculture reducing atmospheric CO2 to a much safer level vegetarianism and even more so veganism is the diet most consistent with Jewish teachings on preserving our health treating animals with compassion protecting the environment conserving natural resources and helping hungry people      American Jewish Year Book 1995 ,1995 The Library owns the volumes of the American Jewish Yearbook from 1899 current      American Jewish Year Book, 1996. ,1995 The Library owns the volumes of the American Jewish Yearbook from 1899 current      Kapporos Then and Now: Toward a More Compassionate Tradition Yonassan Gershom,2015-06-03 Every year right before Yom Kippur the Day of Atonement there is a cultural war in certain Jewish neighborhoods over a ceremony called Kapporos in which a chicken is slaughtered just before the holy day The animal rights people show up claiming Meat is murder while the Orthodox and Hasidic Jews who practice this ceremony accuse the activists of antisemitism and violating their freedom of religion Epithets fly and confrontations occur across the barricades but nobody is really listening to each other Rabbi Gershom seeks to build a bridge of understanding between these two warring camps On the one hand he opposes using live chickens as Kapporos and like many other religious Jews before him advocates giving money to charity instead But on the other hand he is himself a Hasid who understands and believes in the kabbalistic principle of raising holy sparks so central to the ceremony In fact he says it is that very mysticism that has led him not to use chickens for the ritual      The Book of Legends/Sefer Ha-Aggadah Hayyim Nahman Bialik,Y.H.
