Let a Sorrowful Heart Sing Cheryl L. Boone, 2012-02 Somewhere in this little book is a hidden message meant for someone in need at this very moment Somehow this message will find its way into the hands of that one person that the Lord wants to encourage and bless It seems that in this life everyone has their trials tribulations and life lessons that the Lord sets before you If you want to be used of the Lord then you must listen learn and take a step of faith For Cheryl it seemed that every experience in her life somehow worked together to bring her to this place Looking back she could see that the Lord orchestrated every experience to work for her good Along the way through difficult times and exciting times she had questions that weighed heavy with emotion While sitting at a kitchen counter one day during one of these times pen and paper in hand she started writing to the Lord By the time she came to the end she had an answer Though the writings were personal it became evident that the Lord used these writings to help others who could relate to the circumstance It was through these writings that lessons have been learned Though encouraged by her daughter and family to share these writings there was always something that held her back Then just at that perfect moment a friend told her how one of her poems had helped someone who was hurting Someway the Lord will use this book to Let a Sorrowful Heart Sing Back to Freethorn Lillian Fielding, 2022-11-03 High atop the ancient stone tower of Freethorn Watcher Annie stood alone searching the restless waters of the Great Sea spread out far below With no ships in sight she turned to a matter of great urgency To the north and a couple of miles away she directed her gaze upon Blueberry Hill where two young sisters of the land had suddenly vanished along with their tree house Closing her eyes Watcher Annie let out a long weary sigh She knew where to search for the girls but was reluctant to follow The two Karen and Amy had found themselves in Watcher Annie s homeland where years before the watcher ruined her life in one dark moment But there was no choice to be had As watcher it was her duty to go after the girls and help them if she could With her she took Caune the girls closest friend and another boy named Asiay When the sisters arrived in this strange new land they were thrust into an unexpected adventure They discovered the ways of the people odd and forbidding Against their will they became separated but not before pledging to find each other again and to return to their beloved home With some help Watcher Annie finally caught up to Karen in the woods As time was running out the watcher tried her best but she wasn't sure that in the end the girls would be able to get back home to Freethorn Love, Lies & Fudge Frosted Cookies Julietta Drake, 2015-07-02 Lyssette a talented baker thinks her life is perfect until she finds out secrets about her fianc Relying on her one great skill baking she relies on the most famous cookie she created that draws everyone to her little bakery in downtown Seattle She goes about reclaiming her life only for the past to come back to haunt her
