Lets Go Soul Winning:

Let's Go Soul Winning Jack Hyles, 1980 Here are simple step by step lessons in exactly how to lead a soul to Christ They have been given in great soul winning conferences all over America and have made many average Christians into amazingly effective soul winners Let's Go Soul Winning Jack Hyles, 1962 Let's Build an Evangelistic Church Jack Hyles, 1962

Let's Go Fishing! Evangelist Carol J. Pryor, 2014-05-20 This book was written out of my heart and experiences serving under the leadership of my brother pastor and bishop the late Bishop Marvin C Pryor Even though he has made his transition to Heaven his life has left an impact that will never be erased or forgotten The information shared is not theory but written from the brainstorming planning services events and regular staff sessions conducted at Victorious Believers Ministries Church of God in Christ from Saginaw Michigan In October of 2012 nearly four months prior to his death Bishop Marvin C Pryor celebrated twenty five years as pastor of the church I was blessed and honored to have been involved during most of that time The church name was Williams Memorial COGIC but by the end of his life the vision had reflected his purpose on earth so being changed to Victorious Believers Ministries VBM He and his wife Evangelist Ruth C Pryor lead us from Catch the Vision to the Vision Unfolds to Run with the Vision Pastor Pryor made the decision to change the name of the church from Williams Memorial to what is now called Victorious Believers Ministries VBM He chose a name to reflect the vision for the ministry and would stimulate each member to live victoriously no matter circumstances I served as the Director of Evangelism at the local church It was one of my responsibilities to encourage members to do personal evangelism one on one contact and corporate outreach efforts which extend to the masses VBM is yet working at fulfilling the vision even though Bishop Pryor is no longer present to guide His son Pastor Christopher V Pryor is directing and mandating the outreach of the ministry Preaching to Convert John Fletcher, 2013-11-13 Preaching to Convert offers an intriguing new perspective on the outreach strategies of U S evangelicals framing them as examples of activist performance broadly defined as acts performed before an audience in the hopes of changing hearts and minds Most writing about activist performance has focused on left progressive causes events and actors Preaching to Convert argues against such a constricted view of activism and for a more nuanced understanding of U S evangelicalism as a movement defined by its desire to win converts and spread the gospel The book positions evangelicals as a diverse complicated group confronting the loss of conservative Christianity's default status in 21st century U S culture In the face of an increasingly secular age evangelicals have been reassessing models of outreach In acts like handing out Bible tracts to strangers on the street or going door to door with a Bible in hand in elaborately staged horror themed morality plays or multimillion dollar creationist discovery centers in megachurch services beamed to dozens of satellite campuses and in controversial ex gay ministries striving to return gays and lesbians to the straight and narrow evangelicals are redefining what it means to be deeply committed in a pluralist world The book's engaging style and careful argumentation make it accessible and appealing to scholars and students across a range of fields

Bringing Others to Jesus , Take Him to the Streets Jonathan Gainsbrugh,1985 The Quest For Truth Michael Dedivonai,2012-08 This book is for the reader who takes interest in an age old issue that remains contemporary with every succeeding generation When how and why we are here are questions that have caused countless generations of thinkers and laymen alike to intuitively seek at the very least the semblance of an answer to questions that have become more of an outlook than a science and in turn spring up among the problems of modern life as opposed to allowing for a resolution to that which was intended to clarify instead of further complicate Free from the shackles and bias imposed by the various schools of religious scientific and philosophical thought the examinations offered herein are rooted in systematic analyses of the scientific philosophical ethical social and finally the religious which in turn allows for the explanation and justification of concepts that enable the reader to adopt a perspective relevant to the distinctions of absolute truth and relativistic assumptions Our age is accurately referred to as the age of advancement and technology and for good reason The rapid pace of progression over the last century in the life sciences has contributed to a broadened understanding of knowledge itself and its relation to the psychological and sociological aspects of our existence As a result of the significant expansion of the sciences the desire for an understanding of self and simply of why has in many ways been diluted thus negating the never ending questions that once tugged at man s conscious in the middle of the night for thousands of years Today s amazing achievements have laid the foundation for a whole series of newer problems and questions that threaten mankind as never before The medical and biological sciences have enabled us to have a life expectancy beyond that of prior generations however coupled with that are the problems of population explosion which in the not too distant future will give rise to serious concerns We have the ability to harness the power of the atom yet along with it comes the ability to destroy all that we hold sacred Taking into consideration the advanced age we live in how does one account for the remarkable complexity extant throughout the known universe Is one to assume that our consciousness coupled with our overwhelming sense of purpose can be attributed solely to random chance alone The law of causation deals with the need for a preceding event leading to the outcome and despite the fact that this scientific age has left its handprint on every facet of life today it has failed to satisfy the innate question of simply why The Work is The Worker Zacharias Tanee Fomum,1901 The raising and training of competent ministers of the gospel were one of the three burdens that the author Professor Z T Fomum carried permanently in his heart alongside those of prayer and soul winning As disciples of the Lord Jesus Christ we are called to face the challenge of the unfinished task of the evangelization of all nations More than two centuries after the ascension of Jesus there are still many people groups that are yet to be reached with the gospel of salvation And as members of the body of Christ we the people of Christian Missionary Fellowship International CMFI are called to bring one billion people from 250 nations to know Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior who are disciplined to obey Him in all things by the year 2065 A D Professor Fomum was concerned not only by the challenge of an unfinished task but also by the eternal loss of many souls for whom

Christ died To this end competent ministers of the New Covenant are in short supply That is the essence of The Work is The Worker a desperate attempt to produce the kind of workers who will do the work to the satisfaction of God s heart This second volume comprises teachings delivered at various sessions of the CMFI Missionary Academy The School of Knowing and Serving God SKSG between 1999 and 2009 Encyclopedia of Fundamentalism: Volume 3 of Religion & Society Brenda Brasher,2001-10-19 The Encyclopedia of Fundamentalism is the third volume of the acclaimed Religion Society series The Encyclopedia of Fundamentalism follows a broad definition of fundamentalism and covers fundamentalism across time and place although the emphasis remains on its primary manifestation Protestant fundamentalism in the United States It draws upon the work of historians sociologists religious scholars anthropologists political scientists and others The Soul Winner (Updated Edition) Charles H. Spurgeon,2016-11-15 A must read for anyone who loves God and their neighbor As an individual you may ask How can I an average person do anything to reach the lost Or if a pastor you may be discouraged and feel ineffective with your congregation much less the world Or perhaps you don t yet have a heart for the lost Whatever your excuse it s time to change Overcome yourself and learn to make a difference in your church and the world around you It s time to become an effective soul winner for Christ As Christians our main business is to win souls But in Spurgeon s own words like shoeing smiths we need to know a great many things Just as the smith must know about horses and how to make shoes for them so we must know about souls and how to win them for Christ Learn about souls and how to win them from one of the most acclaimed soul winners of all time In this book Charles Spurgeon discusses The role of conviction The need for holiness in the soul winner Why simplicity is more effective How to be interesting How to pray for the lost How to deal with failure The role of discipleship How to engage others to help The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1967 Those Practical Proverbs David Balsley,2018-12-13 Those Practical Proverbs is a verse by verse commentary on the book of Proverbs from a pastor s perspective It begins with an exploration of the authorship of Proverbs most of which was written by King Solomon with brief sections by Agur the son of Jakeh and the words of King Lemuel from an oracle which his mother taught him It proceeds to an explanation of the structure of Hebrew poetry a list of some of the topics addressed in the book and an outline of the book The opening chapters of Proverbs 1-9 consist of longer wisdom poems on a variety of significant subjects Most of the chapters of Proverbs consist of single verse observations concerning many of life s practical concerns with occasional multiverse entries The book concludes with the entries of Agur and King Lemuel and finally the classic alphabetic acrostic poem regarding the excellent wife Because the book focuses largely on the wisdom and understanding which find their origin in the fear of the Lord it is among the most life enriching books ever written It is extremely important for anyone who longs for practical guidance in the many issues of life Driven by Compassion to Set the Captives Free Jeanette Simpson,2015-05-22 We have all experienced pain in our lives If we respond properly to our pain we will discover its ability to drive us to a destination known as change In this book Driven by Compassion to Set the Captives Free discover how the pain of child abuse altered the landscape of Jeanettes life causing her to go on a mission in search of love acceptance and emotional healing After experiencing supernatural deliverance from years of trauma she sets out on a mission to pay it forward by delivering others Also learn how God desires to use the everyday ordinary Christian to do the extraordinary when prompted by the compassion of Jesus I invite you to take a journey through the pages of Jeanettes life and discover how God has taken her painful beginning and given her supernatural power to assist in transforming the lives of others The Black Family Lee N. June,1991 In the fifteen chapters that comprise this comprehensive look at the Black family today each of the contributors deals with an aspect of family life that pertains especially to the Black community The topics include the extended family single female parenting teenagers male female relationships the role of the church pastoral counseling marital counseling sexuality money management sexual abuse drug abuse and evangelizing the Black male What Every Preacher Should Know! Hugh F. J. Rushdoony,Kenneth Gentry Jr.,Herbert Bowsher,Lewis Bulkeley,Donovan Courville,Jefferson Duckett,P. Richard Flinn,James Jordan,Francis Mahaffy,Tommy W. Rogers, What s wrong with Reformed evangelism Something certainly appears to be wrong When we look at the growth of Arminian Baptist churches and compare this growth with the various Reformed Baptist and Presbyterian denominations the numbers are very discouraging When J Gresham Machen left the old Presbyterian Church of the USA he believed that his newly formed Presbyterian Church of America would grow rapidly as a result of its commitment to biblical inerrancy and the fundamentals of the faith Instead it suffered a split the next year June 1937 and the two new denominations the Bible Presbyterians and Orthodox Presbyterians have not grown much in membership since 1937 Much the same has been true of the various Dutch based Reformed denominations They grow only if the birth rate increases and the death rate decreases within the respective groups As I noted at age 21 the Dutch churches seem to have substituted procreation for a Board of Home Missions I wasn t tactful in my youth the way I am today So what s the problem As you might expect there is more than one problem There is a whole pile of problems such as 1 not systematic evangelism programs 2 imitation Arminian evangelism programs 3 ineffective evangelism programs 4 a message geared to confrontation not conquest 5 the humanism of our era 6 lack of capital 7 lack of confidence 8 lack of past successes to serve as precedents

9 seminaries that don't emphasize evangelism 10 too much concern for the rigors of theological speculation and not enough for the demands of applied theology 11 an inability to recognize and emphasize the strong points of the Reformed heritage relevance concrete answers for social problems scholarship organization 12 fatalism regarding stagnation and defeat 13 ignorance of the warfare between Christianity and humanism 14 compromised apologetic methodology rationalism 15 a constricted view of the Kingdom of God 16 incompetence in the area of communication 17 a failure to tithe One of the criticisms that has been aimed at the Christian reconstructionist movement is that it has not been concerned with evangelism An odd charge coming from pastors who have never demonstrated that they have had any grasp of evangelism techniques given their tiny churches and invisibility in their communities The Christian reconstruction movement is less than a decade old It has little capital Yet despite its youth and its lack of capital it has been influential enough to become a force in American thought and culture When Newsweek identified the source of the religious right's ideas it listed Chalcedon and only Chalcedon Feb 2 1981 p 60 But this is not evangelism in the eyes of the critics This doesn't count So what does count Not sheer numbers certainly the critics cannot point to their own success using this criterion What is the nature of legitimate evangelism The latest issue of The Journal of Christian Reconstruction addresses itself to this important question But more than this it offers specific affordable suggestions to struggling congregations about how they can grow become more influential and count for something within their communities We need both a theory of evangelism and a practical program for evangelism The Symposium on Evangelism offers both There has been an enormous waste in virtually all popular programs of evangelism They have not been cost effective They have not targeted their audiences properly They have not been geared to repeated contacts They have not been structured in terms of long range objectives objectives stretching out two or more generations The evangelism programs popular if that word can even be used in Reformed circles have generally been warmed over versions of Arminian evangelism These techniques have not worked for Reformed churches yet the pastors have not been willing to scrap them and rethink the whole question Is there a distinctively Reformed evangelism Are its techniques fundamentally different from those employed by Arminian churches Is there a distinctively Christian reconstructionist evangelism a type of evangelism unavailable to the majority of Arminian denominations and congregations The answer to all three questions is the same Yes The Journal provides the evidence Far from being unconcerned with evangelism the Chalcedon movement is vitally concerned with evangelism It is a small movement at present and it needs capital How can it expect to become a world wide force for social change if it neglects evangelism How can its perspective spread to the decision makers of this age except by evangelism Everyone needs evangelism the Arminians the introspective Reformed groups the traditional conservatives the Roman Catholics the universities the heathen seats of power the media the Iron Curtain nations and all points in between But the average pastor faces more immediate problems He has to build up his struggling congregation He needs to take the first steps That's why we have devoted an issue of the Journal to evangelism

What distinguishes the Chalcedon movement's view of evangelism from the rival varieties that are common today is the scope of evangelism. We are convinced that no evangelism program can hope to succeed unless it is driven by a vision of universal conquest. The three strongest political forces in the world today are Marxism, militant Islam, and modern science. All three are predestinarian. All three are officially optimistic. All three believe that they possess the key which will unlock the door of history. All three believe that they have access to the true law structure which will give them power over the world. All three see themselves as agents of historical and social change. All three see the whole world as their proper and required domain. Until Christians can match them doctrine for doctrine, vision for vision, we will sit on the sidelines of history, cheering for no one in particular. Waiting for the game to end so that we can go home. That's what most Christians are doing now. This produces an ineffective evangelism. It produces a socially irrelevant witness. It produces the kind of witness the Roman emperors would have preferred to see the early church proclaim. The emperors of our day can live with this sort of witness too. It is time to change both our strategy and our tactics. Gary North Drawing the Net William (BILL) Taylor, 2010-12-30
