The Face of Minnesota John Szarkowski, 2008 Ducks in a stream the bridge at St Anthony Falls streets of cities and towns a fish in a net the glittering lakes seen under low skies The Face of Minnesota is a fresh simple unpretentious statement of a place and time by people who know what Minnesota is because they live there

Minor White Aperture 1958 John Szarkowski is the single most important curator that photography has ever had Looking at his photographs created over the last fifty years makes me want to weep They are truly American pictures one feels his desire to show not just what America was but what it still can be

Ingrid Sischy Vanity Fair 2005 Originally commissioned to commemorate Minnesota's centennial in 1958 and out of print for nearly forty years The Face of Minnesota is a lost masterpiece of photography and an eloquent tribute to the people and places of the North Star state Republished in celebration of the state's sesquicentennial this beautifully produced edition includes contemporary essays about John Szarkowski's impact on American photography and introduces his work to new generations of Minnesotans Featuring more than 175 arresting photographs as well as essays filled with wit and affection The Face of Minnesota opens with this statement This book is about Minnesota now But as a mature man carries on his face and in his bearing the history of his past so does the look of a place today show its past what it has been and what it has believed in Though Minnesota has changed dramatically during the past fifty years The Face of Minnesota reveals the simple beauty of the imprint of the past and its deep resonance today

program at the Museum of Modern Art in New York where he transformed our understanding of the art of photography through influential exhibitions and books including Looking at Photographs 1973 In 2005 his work was surveyed in a traveling exhibition accompanied by the book John Szarkowski Photographs Verlyn Klinkenborg joined the editorial board of the New York Times in 1997 He is the author of several works including The Rural Life Richard Benson has worked as a photographer and printer since 1966 He teaches at Yale University and is the coauthor with John Szarkowski of A Maritime Album 100 Photographs and Their Stories Clearwater National Forest (N.F.), North Lochsa Face ,1999 Lolo National Forest (N.F.), Frenchtown Face Ecosystem Restoration ,2006 Lithographer Joseph Clayton Martin,1987 Engineering and Mining Journal ,1911 The Janus Face of International Politics Willem Gravett,2023-11-25 This work investigates the Janus face of international relations refracted through the prism of the duality of Jan Christian Smuts as it manifested in his contribution to the League of Nations and his struggle against the emerging peace treaty A predominant characteristic of international relations is its requirement to face two different ways at the same time its Janus face States profess their adherence to lofty ideals for humanity alongside the pursuit of their own immediate self interest This phenomenon in the behaviour of states has been referred to as the distance between vision and reality and the gap between rhetoric and reality International relations is and is likely to remain suspended between these two extremes on the one hand the pursuit of utopian ideals for the world and on the other a defence of narrow self interest often prompted by the dictates of the realpolitik of the moment How then are the values that underlie the founding of the first cornerstone of the current international order the League of Nations to be understood An under explored case study in understanding the complex framework of international relations is that of the visionary and controversial South African Jan Christian Smuts 1870 1950 On the one hand Smuts was one of the principal authors of the Covenant of the League of Nations and the person directly responsible for the recognition of human rights as a founding value of the Charter of the United Nations On the other the Premier of racially segregated South Africa The Gift of the Face Shamoan Zamir,2014-08-14 Edward S Curtis s The North American Indian is the most ambitious photographic and ethnographic record of Native American cultures ever produced Published between 1907 and 1930 as a series of twenty volumes and portfolios the work contains more than two thousand photographs intended to document the traditional culture of every Native American tribe west of the Mississippi Many critics have claimed that Curtis s images present Native peoples as a vanishing race hiding both their engagement with modernity and the history of colonial violence But in this major reappraisal of Curtis s work Shamoan Zamir argues instead that Curtis s photography engages meaningfully with the crisis of culture and selfhood brought on by the dramatic transformations of Native societies This crisis is captured profoundly and with remarkable empathy in Curtis s images of the human face Zamir also contends that we can fully understand this achievement only if we think of Curtis s Native subjects as coauthors of his project This radical reassessment is presented as a series of close readings that explore the relationship of aesthetics and ethics in photography Zamir's richly illustrated study resituates Curtis's work in Native American studies and in the histories of photography and visual anthropology FCS Tourism Operations L2 Duncan Duffet, 2008
