long time assistant Jerry Fielder it also shares a rare and intimate look at the man's life from surviving the Armenian genocide to becoming one of the world's most sought after portrait photographers. Famously reticent about his work, this is a rare invitation to learn the stories behind Karsh's most famous meetings with great men and women and of his aesthetic choices when met with the challenge of capturing them as they were. Publishers Weekly Portrait in Light and Shadow Maria Tippett, 2007 Portrait in Light and Shadow tells for the first time the full story of a young Armenian immigrant living in Ottawa in the 1930s who became the most prominent portrait photographer of the twentieth century. Unpacking the Personal Library Jason Camlot, J.A. Weingarten, 2022-07-01 Unpacking the Personal Library: The Public and Private Life of Books is an edited collection of essays that ponders the cultural meaning and significance of private book collections in relation to public libraries. Contributors explore libraries at particular moments in their history across a wide range of cases and includes Alberto Manguel's account of the Library of Alexandria as well as chapters on library collecting in the middle ages, the libraries of prime ministers and foreign embassies, protest libraries and the slow transformation of university libraries and the stories of the personal libraries of Virginia Woolf, Robert Duncan, Sheila Watson, Al Purdy and others. The book shows how the history of the library is really a history of collection, consolidation, migration, dispersal and integration where each story negotiates private and public spaces. Unpacking the Personal Library builds on and interrogates theories and approaches from library and archive studies, the history of the book, reading, authorship and publishing. Collectively the chapters articulate a critical poetics of the personal library within its extended social, aesthetic and cultural contexts.

Popular Photography - ND, 1946-12 The Official Picture Carol Payne, 2013-06-01. Mandated to foster a sense of national cohesion, The National Film Board of Canada's Still Photography Division was the country's official photographer during the mid twentieth century. Like the Farm Security Administration and other agencies in the US, the NFB used photographs to serve the nation. Division photographers shot everything from official state functions to images of the routine events of daily life, producing some of the most dynamic photographs of the time seen by millions of Canadians and international audiences in newspapers, magazines, exhibitions and filmstrips. In The Official Picture, Carol Payne argues that the Still Photography Division played a significant role in Canadian nation building during WWII and the two decades that followed. Payne examines key images, themes and periods in the Division's history, including the depiction of women, munitions workers, landscape photography in the 1950s and 60s and portraits of Canadians during the Centennial in 1967, to demonstrate how abstract concepts of nationhood and citizenship as well as attitudes toward gender, class, linguistic identity and conceptions of race were reproduced in photographs. The Official Picture looks closely at the work of many Division photographers, from staff members Chris Lund and Gar Lunney during the 1940s and 1950s to the expressive documentary photography of Michel Lambeth, Michael Semak and Pierre Gaudard in the 1960s and after. The Division also produced a substantial body of Northern imagery documenting Inuit and Native peoples Payne details how Inuit groups have turned to the archive in recent years in an effort to reaffirm their own cultural identity For decades the Still Photography Division served as the country's image bank producing a government endorsed official picture of Canada A rich archival study The Official Picture brings the history of the Division long overshadowed by the Board's cinematic divisions to light Historical Dictionary of Armenia Rouben Paul Adalian,2010-05-13 There are two Armenias the current Republic of Armenia and historic Armenia The modern state dates from the early 20th century Historic Armenia was part of the ancient world and expired in the Middle Ages Its people however survived and from its residue recreated a new country The history of the Armenians is the story of how an ancient people endured into modern times and how its culture evolved from one conceived under the influence of Mesopotamia to one redefined by the civilization of Europe The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Armenia relates the turbulent past of this persistent country through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and over 200 cross referenced dictionary entries on significant persons events places organizations and other aspects of Armenian history from the earliest times to the present Popular Photography - ND ,1947-12 Photography Trenton Hamilton,2016-07-15 Photography is generally considered to have had its birth in 1839 when Louis Jacques Mand Daguerre first revealed his photographic process to the public Increasingly cameras have become more automated and electronic over the years In spite of the increasing sophistication of the equipment however the photographer's eye continues to be all important Photography remains a unique human act This compendium focuses on the technology of photography the camera and its parts types of lenses shutters and speeds films and filters making photographs exposing film lighting darkroom techniques and processing printing photographs and some of the practical applications of the medium Popular Photography - ND ,1947-05 Newsletter ,1961 Department of State News Letter United States.
