FACING ETHNIC CONFLICTS

TOWARD A NEW REALISM

Facing Ethnic Conflicts:

Facing Ethnic Conflicts Andreas Wimmer, 2004 Ethnic conflict is the major form of mass political violence in the world today and it has been since World War II Dramatic acts of terrorism and calculated responses to them may distract the attention of policymakers and the public but ethnic and nationalist conflict continues to pose the greatest challenge to peace and security across the globe Causes of such conflict and ideas about how to address it are hotly debated in the literature that has emerged over the past fifteen years This volume offers a unique overview of research and policy approaches to ethnic conflicts It is the first book to bring together experienced policymakers and key scholars from all disciplines They debate how to best understand the rise and escalation of ethnic conflict assess different strategies for peacemaking mediation and reconciliation and evaluate the prospects for conflict management through institutional design In contrast with a more enthusiastic assessment of the willingness and capacity to successfully intervene in ethnic conflict this volume documents the new realism that has emerged over the past decade It recognizes the complex and protracted nature of such conflicts and demands a multifaceted case by case approach sustained by long term political engagement Published in co operation with the Center for Development Research University of Bonn

The Transformation of Violent Intercommunal Conflict Stephen Ryan, 2016-02-24 In recent years there has been a remarkable growth of interest in the concept of conflict transformation and the closely related strategy of grass roots peace building Yet there exists no general critical analysis of the concept of conflict transformation in the context of violent inter communal conflict and the different approaches that can be included in response to this category of dispute This study offers a comprehensive survey and critical overview of this emerging area Examining the reasons for the growing interest in the concept of conflict transformation in situations of ethnic conflict the book explores the different dimensions of transformation It draws on examples of strategies from a number of situations of ethnic conflict including Northern Ireland Israel Palestine Bosnia Kosovo Cyprus Spain Sri Lanka and the former Soviet Union to identify and assess key issues and problems that have emerged and ultimately to propose a stronger emphasis on the promotion of inter subjective understanding

Mobilization and Conflict in Multiethnic States Manuel Vogt, 2019-08-30 Why are some multiethnic countries more prone to civil violence than others This book examines the occurrence and forms of conflict in multiethnic states It presents a theory that explains not only why ethnic groups rebel but also how they rebel It shows that in extremely unequal societies conflict typically occurs in non violent forms because marginalized groups lack both the resources and the opportunities for violent revolt In contrast in more equal but segmented multiethnic societies violent conflict is more likely The book traces the origins of these different types of multiethnic states to distinct experiences of colonial rule Settler colonialism produced persistent stratification and far reaching cultural and economic integration of the conquered groups as for example in Guatemala the United States or Bolivia By contrast in decolonized states such as Iraq Pakistan or Sri Lanka in which independence led to indigenous self rule the colonizers divide and rule policies resulted in deeply segmented post colonial societies Combining statistical analyses with case studies based on original field research in four different countries in Sub Saharan Africa and Latin America Vogt analyzes why and how colonial legacies have led to peaceful or violent ethnic movements Radical Conflict Andrew R. Smith, 2016-05-05 Radical Conflict addresses conflict at interpersonal and communal legal and rhetorical ethnopolitical global and geopolitical levels The conflicts analyzed are radical because in each some intense and often prolonged violence takes place The chapters address different kinds of violence s physical and gratuitous structural and socio economic legal and symbolic all with significant ill effects and injustices that spiral in all directions All share an interest in exploring imaginatively and speculatively what can be done to attenuate such cycles of violence The volume analyzes how recurrent narratives mythologies media ted constructions and other discourse s of liberal democratic and authoritarian states play a significant role in exacerbating or thwarting violence exposing escalating legitimizing rationalizing propagating but also possibly mitigating violence in all of its forms Each contributor provides a critical interpretation of the status of the conflict under inquiry including a teacher verbally abusing and ridiculing a student then exposing it in social media a community torn apart by environmental disaster the incommensurate but not incommensurable conflict between Israelis and Palestinians the Muslim Brotherhood and the militarized state s of Egypt and Libya urban discourses in cyberspace among Moroccan and Maghreb youth that have become counter signifying publics against oppression of the state the role of media and violence in Zimbabwe s political struggle the impact of the Circassian diaspora in global politics especially in the United States India s soft power approach to the Kashmir conflict as a way to capitalize on it through tourism the agonistic discourses that pervade the conflict over the Sahara and deprive Sahrawi people of rights and how the liberal state is implicated in the gratuitous violence of ISIL The volume also offers a section on the rhetoric of exclusionary laws associated with intractable conflicts of the abortion conflict the right to die controversy and a Burkean perspective on violence in Bangladesh Contributors suggest what can be done conceptually and politically to mitigate and end violations of those who are most vulnerable banished forgotten damaged and often silenced Conflict Prevention from Rhetoric to Reality David Carment, Albrecht Schnabel, 2004-01-01 Offers a critical evaluation of existing and emerging approaches to applied conflict prevention that involve nontraditional actors ranging from the corporate sector and NGOs to regional and multilateral economic and political organizations The volume suggests best practices for individuals within these organizations to use the array of political economic social and developmental instruments available to them Contested Nationalism Nina Caspersen, 2010-01-01 Only unity saves the Serbs is the famous call for unity in the Serb nationalist doctrine But even though this doctrine was ideologically adhered to by most of the Serb leaders in Croatia and Bosnia disunity characterized Serb politics during the Yugoslav disintegration and war Nationalism was contested and nationalist claims to homogeneity did not reflect the reality of Serb politics This book provides a comprehensive analysis of Serb politics and challenges widespread assumptions regarding the Yugoslav conflict and war It finds that although Slobodan Milosevic played a highly significant role he was not always able to control the local Serb leaders Moreover it adds to the emerging evidence of the lack of importance of popular attitudes hardline dominance was generally based on the control of economic and coercive resources rather than on elites successfully playing the ethnic card It moves beyond an assumption of automatic ethnic outbidding and thus contributes toward a better understanding of intra ethnic rivalry in other cases such as Israel Palestine Northern Ireland Nagorno Karabakh and Rwanda The Many Faces of Early Modern Italian Jewry Martin Borýsek, Davide Liberatoscioli, 2024-07-22 The Jewish population of early modern Italy was characterised by its inner diversity which found its expression in the coexistence of various linguistic cultural and liturgical traditions as well as social and economic patterns The contributions in this volume aim to explore crucial questions concerning the self perception and identity of early modern Italian Jews from new perspectives and angles Explaining & Managing Ethnic Conflict in Africa Adele L. Jinadu, 2007 Theories of Violent Conflict Jolle Demmers, 2012 The book examines related questions from a number of perspectives constructivism social identity theory structuralism political economy human needs theory relative deprivation theory collective action theory and rational choice theory The final chapter aims to synthesise structure and agency based theories by proposing a critical discourse analysis of violent conflict Somali Piracy and Terrorism in the Horn of Africa Christopher L. Daniels, 2012 The first contribution to Global Flashpoints A Scarecrow Press Series Christopher Daniels Somali Piracy and Terrorism in the Horn of Africa provides readers with a comprehensive and in depth analysis of the spate of piracy and terrorism plaguing the waters of Somalia and the global threat posed by this activity Contesting the commonly held perception that the piracy and terrorism occurring in Somalia are two separate and unrelated activities Daniels reveals how the collapse of the Somali state and the chaos that has ensued created the environment for piracy and terrorism to flourish in combination He also notes how the failure to restore a functioning central government has allowed both to become dangerous threats not only to the people of Somalia but the entire world Underscoring Somalia's dire state Somali Piracy and Terrorism in the Horn of Africa lays out for readers such significant topics as the reasons behind the collapse of the Somali state and the secession of Somaliland Puntland and Jubaland the rise of internationally linked terrorist groups such as Al Shabaab and Hizbul Islam and the dramatic spike in pirate attacks off the Somali coast Daniels concludes by critiquing the methods that have been used to help alleviate these global security challenges and gives policy recommendations for future consideration Designed to enhance readers grasp of this global flashpoint this volume includes a timeline a glossary of terms biographical entries on key individual and institutional actors in this conflict and selected primary sources It is the ideal introduction to students and scholars of international relations African history and politics terrorism and maritime studies Constitutions and Conflict Management in Africa Alan J. Kuperman, 2015-06-29 Each of Africa's countries has a different constitutional design is characterized by a unique culture and history and faces different stresses that threaten to undermine political stability Presenting the first database of constitutional design in all African countries along with seven original case studies

Constitutions and Conflict Management in Africa explores the types of domestic political institutions that can buffer societies from destabilizing changes that otherwise increase the risk of violence With detailed comparative studies of Burundi Ghana Kenya Nigeria Senegal Sudan and Zimbabwe contributing scholars identify key turning points at which a state's political institutions either mitigated or escalated the effects of economic environmental demographic and political shocks They find that stability can be promoted by various constitutional designs not only by accommodative institutions that encourage decentralization and multiculturalism but also by the integrative centralized designs that characterize the constitutions of most African countries The greatest danger may arise from partial or inequitable accommodation that can exacerbate societal tensions culminating in violence up to and including civil war and genocide Accordingly Constitutions and Conflict Management in Africa cautions against the typical international prescription for radical reform to replace Africa's existing constitutions with accommodative designs instead prescribing more gradual constitutional reform to strengthen liberal institutions such as strong judiciaries and independent electoral commissions This detailed and methodical volume provides vital lessons for fostering democracy and reducing civil conflict via constitutional reform in Africa and beyond Contributors Justin Orlando Frosini Gilbert M Khadiagala Alan J Kuperman Karly Kupferberg Eli Poupko Eghosa E Osaghae Andrew Reynolds Filip Reyntjens Arame Tall Hillary Thomas Lake Stefan Wolff I William Zartman The Prevention and Intervention of Genocide Samuel Totten, 2008-03-31 This volume is comprised of over 2 300 annotations on a wide array of issues and topics germane to the subject of preventing the atrocities of genocide and managing these conflicts when they do arise Samuel Totten brings together in one comprehensive collection the research and findings in various fields such as political science sociology history and psychology to enable specialists in genocide studies peace studies and conflict resolution to benefit from the insights of a diverse range of scholars and foster an understanding of how the various components of genocide studies connect Among the topics included are key conventions international treaties and covenants genocide early warning signals and forecasting risk data bases sanctions peacekeeping missions conflict resolution the International Criminal Court realpolitik vis vis the issue of genocide prevention and intervention key non governmental agencies key governmental and UN bodies working on these important issues In addition to the annotations Totten frames the bibliography with a major essay that introduces the reader to the subject of prevention and intervention of genocide raising a host of critical issues regarding the strengths weaknesses and limitations of various approaches germane to issues of managing these conflicts

Terrorism: Bridging the Gap with Peace and Conflict Studies Ioannis Tellidis, Harmonie Toros, 2016-01-08 This book opens up the discussion of the interrelation between terrorism studies and peace and conflict studies The aim is to examine the instances and circumstances under which both fields can benefit from each other Even though it is often accepted that terrorism is a form of political violence it is also quite frequent that research on the topic is dismissed when it is approached with conflict analysis frames More importantly policy approaches continue to inhibit obstruct and reject frameworks that are concerned with the transformation and resolution of terrorist conflicts partly because they see the state as the ultimate referent object to be secured At the same time peace and conflict studies seem to be excessively focused on problem solving approaches which overemphasise the role of parity during negotiations and misdiagnose the distribution of power both within conflicts as well as within conflict management resolution and or transformation approaches This book was published as a special issue of Critical Studies on Terrorism

Conflict Management and Resolution Ho-Won Jeong,2009-12-04 Conflict Management and Resolution provides students with an overview of the main theories of conflict management and conflict resolution and will equip them to respond to the complex phenomena of international conflict The book covers these four key concepts in detail negotiation mediation facilitation reconciliation It examines how to prevent manage and eventually resolve various types of conflict that originate from inter state and inter group competition and expands the existing scope of conflict management and resolution theories by examining emerging theories on the identity power and structural dimensions of adversarial relationships The volume is designed to enhance our understanding of effective response strategies to conflict in multiple social settings as well as violent struggles and utilizes numerous case studies both past and current These include the Iranian and North Korean nuclear weapons programmes the war in Lebanon the Arab Israeli conflict civil wars in Africa and ethnic conflicts in Europe and Asia This book will be essential reading for all students of conflict management and resolution mediation peacekeeping peace and conflict studies and International Relations in general Ho Won Jeong is Professor of Conflict Analysis and Resolution George Mason University USA He has published nine books in the field of international relations peace and conflict studies He is also a senior editor of the International Journal of Peace Studies Language, Identity and Conflict

Diarmait Mac Giolla Chríost,2004-03-01 This innovative study of language and identity in recent and contemporary cases of ethnic conflict in Europe and Eurasia sets out a response to the limitations in the fields of linguistics and political science Using examples of language policy and planning in conflict situations it examines the functions of language as a marker of identity in ethnic conflict and the extent to which language may be a causal factor in ethnic conflict Politics and Ethnicity

J. Rudolph,2006-08-05 This book offers a brief broad comparative study of ethnic politics that places ethnic conflict within the context of particular political systems To develop these themes they are explored by comparing and contrasting the experiences of France Czechoslovakia and its subsequent division and Nigeria Human Security and Sierra Leone's

Post-Conflict Development Francis Wiafe-Amoako,2014-07-22 Achieving security and development in the post conflict era is a challenge with which stakeholders have to grapple While stakeholders are quick to claim success when physical hostilities cease between the belligerents ensuring sustainable peace has been a daunting task In some countries in Africa the post conflict era is characterized by organizing elections to ensure greater political participation It is believed that elections will begin a process of openness and trust in the governing system A supplement to electoral democracy has been power sharing arrangements used to resolve post election violence and ensure stability within the state However what underlie most conflicts in Africa is the marginalization and lack of an enabling environment to achieve individual life objectives Policies and strategies to achieve security and enhance development post conflict have at best been an extremely slow process and sometimes elusive In Sierra Leone for instance though the official declaration of the end of war and the successful general elections held in 2002 2007 and 2012 have led to some domestic stability developmental targets in the post conflict era have proceeded at a snail s pace The country continues to rank at the bottom of most UNDP human development indicators since 2002 Human Security and Sierra Leone s Post Conflict Development analyzes the extent to which human security issues have been addressed and subsequently implemented in the post conflict reconstruction process While Sierra Leone has made tremendous efforts at implementing reforms in the areas of political sensitization promotion of civil rights and civil liberties as well as personal security the lack on the part of the government to effectively address the unemployment problem has negatively affected security and developmental targets Thus the post conflict management strategies in Sierra Leone fail to secure and promote some aspects of human security leading to fragile peace and slow progress in achieving sustainable security and development Human security is an all encompassing phenomenon and must be addressed to achieve overall wellbeing of the people especially in post conflict environments

Routledge Handbook of Environmental Conflict and Peacebuilding Ashok Swain,Joakim Öjendal,2018-04-17 The past two decades have witnessed the emergence of a large body of research examining the linkage between environmental scarcity violent conflict and cooperation However this environmental security polemic is still trying to deliver a well defined approach to achieving peace Studies are being undertaken to find the precise pathways by which cooperative actions are expected not only to pre empt or moderate resource conflicts but also to help diffuse cooperative behaviour to other disputed issues The recognition that environmental resources can contribute to violent conflict accentuates their potential significance as pathways for cooperation and the consolidation of peace in post conflict societies Conceived as a single and reliable reference source which will be a vital resource for students researchers and policy makers alike the Routledge Handbook of Environmental Conflict and Peacebuilding presents a wide range of chapters written by key thinkers in the field organised into four key parts Part I Review of the concept and theories Part II Review of thematic approaches resources scarcity intervention adaptation and peacebuilding Part III Case studies Middle East Iraq Jordan Liberia Nepal Colombia Philippines Part IV Analytical challenges and future oriented perspectives Enabling the reader to find a concise expert review on topics that are most likely to arise in the course of conducting research or policy making this volume presents a truly global overview of the key issues and debates in environmental conflict and peacebuilding Development, Governance and Gender in South Asia Anisur Rahman,Niharika Tiwari,2021-10-23 This book offers a multidisciplinary and comprehensive approach to understand the trends and issues of development governance and dynamics of gender in the South Asian region It familiarizes the reader with the quantitative as well as qualitative aspects of governance and development Contributing authors pay close attention to the socio political and economic developments in South Asia in their respective chapters The book is divided into four parts The first part analyzes the social and economic development of South Asia in the context of human development state apparatus and migration The second part focuses on issues of good governance and human rights Issues related to minorities and corporate governance are also discussed specifically The third part deals with the role of media and literature in the development narratives of South Asia The last part highlights the inter linkages between gender narratives and development It is a must read for those interested in understanding the socio economic fabrics political dynamics and trajectory of development in South Asia

Women and Conflict in India Sanghamitra Choudhury, 2016-02-05 This book analyses the impact that prolonged socio political conflict in India has had on political and social spaces for women Focusing in particular on Assam in the North East of India it looks at how the conflict can be restricting and yet can also have the potential to expand these spaces for women owing to the collapsing of boundaries of gender roles thereby creating niche areas that may be leveraged for socio political transformation Based on empirical material collected from in depth interviews with individuals on both sides of the conflict the book locates the analysis in both a legal and political context It examines the causes dynamics and impact of the ethno political conflicts in Assam as well as the efficacy and outcomes of capacity building programmes aimed at rehabilitating the surrendered militants as well as assisting affected women The book goes on to look at the role played by civil society especially the Mahila Shanti Sena Women Peace Corp towards conflict transformation It highlights the preventive mitigative and adaptive measures taken by the women and their role as agents of peace in the volatile zones of North East India Analysing the changing role of women in conflict situations as well as the legal measures and regulatory mechanisms in place for women in vulnerable pockets of India this book is a useful contribution to Gender Studies Peace and Conflict Studies and South Asian Politics
