Facing History And Ourselves Holocaust And Human Behavior:

Holocaust and Human Behavior Facing History and Ourselves, 2017-03-24 Holocaust and Human Behavior uses readings primary source material and short documentary films to examine the challenging history of the Holocaust and prompt reflection on our world today Facing History and Ourselves Margot Stern Strom, William S. Parsons, 1982 Designed to offer educators from a variety of classroom settings appropriate materials and techniques for bringing the history of 20th century genocide the Holocaust and the Armenian genocide to their students Page 18 Facing History and Ourselves, 1994 The Holocaust Paul R. Bartrop, Michael Dickerman, 2017-09-15 This four volume set provides reference entries primary documents and personal accounts from individuals who lived through the Holocaust that allow readers to better understand the cultural political and economic motivations that spurred the Final Solution The Holocaust that occurred during World War II remains one of the deadliest genocides in human history with an estimated two thirds of the 9 million Jews in Europe at the time being killed as a result of the policies of Adolf Hitler and Nazi Germany The Holocaust An Encyclopedia and Document Collection provides students with an all encompassing resource for learning about this tragic event a four book collection that provides detailed information as well as multidisciplinary perspectives that will serve as a gateway to meaningful discussion and further research The first two volumes present reference entries on significant individuals of the Holocaust both victims and perpetrators anti Semitic ideology and annihilationist policies advocated by the Nazi regime giving readers insight into the social political cultural military and economic aspects of the Holocaust while enabling them to better understand the Final Solution in Europe during World War II and its lasting legacy The third volume of the set presents memoirs and personal narratives that describe in their own words the experiences of survivors and resisters who lived through the chaos and horror of the Final Solution The last volume consists of primary documents including government decrees and military orders propaganda in the form of newspapers and pamphlets war crime trial transcripts and other items that provide a direct look at the causes and consequences of the Holocaust under the Nazi regime By examining these primary sources users can have a deeper understanding of the ideas and policies used by perpetrators to justify their actions in the annihilation of the Jews of Europe The set not only provides an invaluable and comprehensive research tool on the Holocaust but also offers historical perspective and examination of the origins of the discontent and cultural resentment that resulted in the Holocaust subject matter that remains highly relevant to key problems facing human society in the 21st century and beyond Centering Educational Administration Robert J. Starratt, 2003-04-02 In this book Starratt enters the national conversation among educational administration scholars and practitioners about what constitutes the core of their knowledge and practice In Part I he develops three main themes cultivating meaning community and moral responsibility which he then positions against national themes about the core of educational administration school improvement democratic community and social justice Rather than focusing on the routine managerial tasks normally associated with school administration budgeting personnel and legal problems time and resource management etc this text asks aspiring school leaders to reflect first on the underlying philosophical and sociological perspectives that constitute the substance of administrative work in education Centering Educational Administration provides A Unique Perspective on Leadership The author views leadership as organically related to teaching and learning as concerned with internal capacity building in response to state imposed accountability pressures and as an existential process of writing one s autobiography through their day to day work An Interdisciplinary View of Educational Administration Centering Educational Administration asks educational administrators to bring contemporary philosophical ethical and anthropological issues as well as learning theory social theory and political theory into their thinking about the daily operation of the school A Unique Perspective on School Improvement This text asserts that school improvement narrowly defined as improving results on high stakes tests can likewise place the nation at risk An equally important agenda is teaching the young the basic satisfactions norms and potential of using their knowledge in the service of the community and of a wider humanity Exercises in Reflective Practice This book challenges the reader to use the ideas of each chapter to analyze the current practices in their school and to propose concrete changes to improve the teaching and learning environment of their school Looking Backward,

Moving Forward Richard G. Hovannisian, 2017-07-05 The decades separating our new century from the Armenian Genocide the prototype of modern day nation killings have fundamentally changed the political composition of the region Virtually no Armenians remain on their historic territories in what is today eastern Turkey The Armenian people have been scattered about the world And a small independent republic has come to replace the Armenian Soviet Socialist Republic which was all that was left of the homeland as the result of Turkish invasion and Bolshevik collusion in 1920 One element has remained constant Notwithstanding the eloquent compelling evidence housed in the United States National Archives and repositories around the world successive Turkish governments have denied that the predecessor Young Turk regime committed genocide and like the Nazis who followed their example sought aggressively to deflect blame by accusing the victims themselves This volume argues that the time has come for Turkey to reassess the propriety of its approach and to begin the process that will allow it move into a post genocide era The work includes Genocide An Agenda for Action Gijs M de Vries Determinants of the Armenian Genocide Donald Bloxham Looking Backward and Forward Joyce Apsel The United States Response to the Armenian Genocide Simon Payaslian The League of Nations and the Reclamation of Armenian Genocide Survivors Vahram L Shemmassian Raphael Lemkin and the Armenian Genocide Steven L Jacobs Reconstructing Turkish Historiography of the Armenian Massacres and Deaths of 1915 Fatma Muge Go cek Bitter Sweet Memories The Armenian Genocide and International Law Joe Verhoeven New Directions in Literary Response to the Armenian Genocide Rubina Peroomian Denial and Free Speech Henry C Theriault Healing and Reconciliation Ervin Staub State and Nation Raffi K Hovannisian

Teaching Global History Alan J. Singer, 2019-10-28 This updated edition of Teaching Global History challenges prospective and beginning social studies teachers to formulate their own views about what is important to know in global history and why This essential text explains how to organize curriculum around broad social studies concepts and themes as well as student questions about humanity history and the contemporary world All chapters feature lesson ideas a sample lesson plan with activity sheets primary source documents and helpful charts graphs photographs and maps This new edition includes connections to the C3 framework updates throughout to account for the many shifts in global politics and a new chapter connecting past to present through current events and historical studies in ways that engage students and propel civic activism Offering an alternative to pre packaged textbook outlines and materials this text is a powerful resource for promoting thoughtful reflection and debate on what the global history curriculum should be and how to teach it The Care of the Witness Michal Givoni,2016-10-31 During the twentieth century witnessing grew to be not just a widespread solution for coping with political atrocities but also an intricate problem As the personal experience of victims soldiers and aid workers acquired unparalleled authority as a source of moral and political truth the capacity to generate adequate testimonies based on this experience was repeatedly called into question Michal Givoni s book follows the trail of the problems torments and crises that became commingled with witnessing to genocide disaster and war over the course of the twentieth century By juxtaposing episodes of reflexive witnessing to the Great War the Jewish Holocaust and third world emergencies The Care of the Witness explores the shifting roles and responsibilities of witnesses in history and the contribution that the troubles of witnessing made to the ethical consolidation of the witness as the leading figure of nongovernmental politics Dilemmas of Diversity After the Cold War Michele R. Adolescence Joy G. Dryfoos, Carol Barkin, 2006-08-03 Publisher description Modern Genocide Paul R. Bartrop, Steven Leonard Jacobs, 2014-12-17 This massive four volume work provides students with a close examination of 10 modern genocides enhanced by documents and introductions that provide additional historical and contemporary context for learning about and understanding these tragic events Modern Genocide The Definitive Resource and Document Collection spans nearly 1 700 pages presented in four volumes and includes more than 120 primary source documents making it ideal for high school and beginning college students studying modern genocide as part of a larger world history curriculum The coverage for each modern genocide from Herero to Darfur begins with an introductory essay that helps students conceptualize the conflict within an international context and enables them to better understand the complex role genocide has played in the modern world There are hundreds of entries on atrocities organizations individuals and other aspects of genocide each written to serve as a springboard to meaningful discussion and further research The coverage of each genocide includes an introductory overview an explanation of the causes consequences perpetrators victims and bystanders the international reaction a timeline of events an Analyze section that poses tough questions for readers to consider and provides scholarly pro and con responses to these historical conundrums and reference entries This integrated examination of genocides occurring in the modern era not only presents an unprecedented research tool on the subject but also challenges the readers to go back and examine other events historically and consequently consider important questions about human society in the present and the future

Philosophical Dimensions of Public Policy William Galston, 2017-07-12 At the mid point of the twentieth century many philosophers in the English speaking world regarded political and moral philosophy as all but moribund Thinkers influenced by logical positivism believe that ethical statements are merely disguised expressions of individual emotion lacking propositional force or that the conditions for the validation of ethical statements could not be specified or that their content however humanly meaningful is inexpressible Philosophical Dimensions of Public Policy presents thirty four articles written by research scholars numerous fields philosophy political theory medicine law biology economics ecology and sociology treating a broad range of topics in practical philosophy The Institute for Philosophy and Public Affairs has been home for these ideas pioneering a distinctive method of conducting inquiry into the moral dimensions of public life and contributing to public discussion and deliberation Members of the Institute reject the idea that public philosophy means reaching into the philosopher s tool kit and applying prefabricated theories to particular problems They set in motion a dialogue between the distinctive moral features of practical problems and the more general moral theories or considerations that seem most likely to elucidate these problems The volume is divided into five areas Politics Civic Life and Moral Education Diversity Identity and Equal Opportunity Human Rights Development Ethics and International Justice

Biotechnology Genetic Research and Health Policy and Natural Environment Human Communities Philosophical Dimensions of Public Policy presents empirical data and philosophical arguments with the intention of informing public policy and public deliberation Scholars as well as graduate and undergraduate students are certain to find it useful to their research work

Centuries of Genocide Samuel Totten, William Spencer Parsons, 2013 The fourth edition of Centuries of Genocide Essays and Eyewitness Accounts addresses examples of genocides perpetrated in the nineteenth twentieth and twenty first centuries Each chapter of the book is written by a recognized expert in the field collectively demonstrating a wide range of disciplinary perspectives The book is framed by an introductory essay that spells out definitional issues as well as the promises complexities and barriers to the prevention and intervention of genocide To help the reader learn about the similarities and differences among the various cases each case is structured around specific leading questions In every chapter authors address Who committed the genocide How was the genocide committed Why was the genocide committed Who were the victims What were the outstanding historical forces What was the long range impact What were the responses How do scholars interpret this genocide How does learning about this genocide contribute to the field of study While the material in each chapter is based on sterling scholarship and wide ranging expertise of the authors eyewitness accounts give voice to the victims This book is an attempt to provoke the reader into understanding that learning about genocide is important and that we all have a responsibility not to become immune to acts of genocide especially in the interdependent world in which we live today Revision highlights include New chapters on genocide of Native Americans in the nineteenth century genocide in Australia and genocide in the Nuba Mountains New chapter authors on Herero genocide and Rwanda genocide Consolidation of the 3 chapters on the Holocaust into one focused case Several chapters from past editions that were omitted are now available on a companion website Indonesia Burundi indigenous peoples Paths to Teaching the Holocaust Tibbi Dubois, 2008-01-01 Paths to Teaching the Holocaust edited by Tibbi Dubois is an important new book It offers contributions by childhood middle and secondary teacher educators from various regions and universities in the continental United States The array of material is a strength of this unique book Some contributors write about ways in which they infuse existing courses with Holocaust materials while others focus on where and when to begin the education of their students with respect to genocide Curriculum and instruction are examined from the perspective of existing research Preparing oneself to teach the material and personal teaching style are presented in ways that will be helpful both to new and to experienced teachers and those interested in the kinds of questions embedded in this material Educators and others will see how events focused upon in the Holocaust are connected to violations of human rights and social justice committed during the period of National Socialism Readers are reminded of the approximate nature of knowledge when it is not born of lived experience and are invited to raise questions about the Holocaust and other genocides The varied nature of the chapters offers a platform for engaging in discourse likely to pique the interest of people who have limited experience with the topic and of those whose knowledge may be rich and of long standing Teachers often seek to bridge the gap between theory and practice and will find the References of each writer an invaluable resource The contents of Paths to Teaching the Holocaust will be useful to educators and others concerned with oppression human rights and social justice Open Minds to Equality Nancy Schniedewind, Ellen Davidson, 2006 An educator's sourcebook of activities to help students understand and change inequalities based on race gender class age language sexual orientation physical mental ability and religion The activities also promote respect for diversity and interpersonal equality among students fostering a classroom that is participatory cooperative and democratic Learning activities are sequenced to build awareness and understanding First students develop skills for building trust communication and collaboration Second they learn to recognize stereotypes and discrimination and explore their presence in people's lives and in institutions Finally students create changes gaining self confidence and experiencing collective responsibility This book is an essential resource for teachers leaders in professional development and curriculum specialists

Teaching REPORTER Facing History and Ourselves, 2010-12 Facing History and Ourselves has developed Teaching Reporter to help classrooms explore essential questions about being a global citizen in the information age The documentary Reporter follows New York Times columnist Nicholas Kristof on a reporting trip to central Africa Watching Kristof identify stories that he thinks will galvanize readers to take action to prevent further humanitarian disasters in places such as Congo and Darfur gives us an opportunity to think about not only the role of the journalist but also our own roles as members of a global society To whom do we show compassion Under what circumstances How can information be used to encourage action on behalf of others Teaching Reporter includes materials that help students make connections between the dramatic events presented in the film and the choices they make in their own lives as creators and consumers of media By addressing issues ranging from journalistic objectivity to psychic numbing the resources in this study guide help develop students civic and media literacy skills

The Jewish American Paradox Robert H Mnookin, 2018-11-27 Who should count as Jewish in America What should be the relationship of American Jews to Israel Can the American Jewish community collectively sustain and pass on to the next generation a sufficient sense of Jewish identity The situation of American Jews today is deeply paradoxical Jews have achieved unprecedented integration influence and esteem in virtually every facet of American life But this extraordinarily diverse community now also faces four critical and often divisive challenges rampant intermarriage weak religious observance diminished cohesion in the face of waning anti-Semitism and deeply conflicting views about Israel Can the American Jewish community collectively sustain and pass on to the next generation a sufficient sense of Jewish identity in light of these challenges Who should count as Jewish in America What should be the relationship of American Jews to Israel In this thoughtful and perceptive book Robert H Mnookin argues that the answers of the past no longer serve American Jews today The book boldly promotes a radically inclusive American Jewish community one where being Jewish can depend on personal choice and public self identification not simply birth or formal religious conversion Instead of preventing intermarriage or ostracizing those critical of Israel he envisions a community that embraces diversity and debate and in so doing preserves and strengthens the Jewish identity into the next generation and beyond
