Facing Up To Aids

James D. Wolfensohn

Facing Up To Aids:

Facing Up to Scarcity Barbara H. Fried, 2020-02-27 Facing Up to Scarcity offers a powerful critique of the nonconsequentialist approaches that have been dominant in Anglophone moral and political thought over the last fifty years. In these essays Barbara H. Fried examines the leading schools of contemporary nonconsequentialist thought including Rawlsianism, Kantianism, libertarianism, and social contractarianism. In the realm of moral philosophy, she argues that nonconsequentialist theories grounded in the sanctity of individual reasons cannot solve the most important problems taken to be within their domain. Those problems, which arise from irreducible conflicts among legitimate and often identical individual interests, can be resolved only through large-scale interpersonal trade-offs of the sort that nonconsequentialism foundationally rejects. In addition to scrutinizing the internal logic of nonconsequentialist thought, Fried considers the disastrous social consequences when nonconsequentialist intuitions are allowed to drive public policy. In the realm of political philosophy, she looks at the treatment of distributive justice in leading nonconsequentialist theories. Here, one can design distributive schemes roughly along the lines of the outcomes favoured, but those outcomes are not logically entailed by the normative premises from which they are ostensibly derived, and some are extraordinarily strained interpretations of those premises. Fried concludes, as a result, that contemporary nonconsequentialist political philosophy has to date relied on weak justifications for some very strong conclusions.

Facing Up to AIDS John Mordaunt, 1989 A Badge of Injury Sébastien Tremblay, 2023-12-04 A Badge of Injury is a contribution to both the fields of queer and global history. It analyses gay and lesbian transregional cultural communication networks from the 1970s to the 2000s, focusing on the importance of National Socialism, visual culture, and memory in the queer Atlantic. Provincializing Euro-American queer history, it illustrates how a history of concepts which encompasses the visual offers a greater depth of analysis of the transfer of ideas across regions than texts alone would offer. It also underlines how gay and lesbian history needs to be reframed under a queer lens and understood in a global perspective. Following the journey of the Pink Triangle and its many iterations, A Badge of Injury pinpoints the roles of cultural memory and power in the creation of gay and lesbian transregional narratives of pride or the construction of the historical queer subject. Beyond a success story, the book dives into some of the shortcomings of Euro-American queer history and the power of the negative, writing an emancipatory yet critical story of the era.

Legal Responses to AIDS in Comparative Perspective Lawrence Gostin, Stanislaw J. Frankowski, 1998-10-01 AIDS and Development in Africa Kempe R. Hope, 1999 AIDS and Development in Africa demonstrates the human consequences of AIDS and the efforts being made by governments, individuals, families, villages, communities, and non-governmental organizations to respond to the pandemic. You will read beyond the usual analysis of demographics and receive much more substantial assessments and analyses of the burden on people, economies, and health care systems of the African countries.

Doyle Roche, 2009-01-01 It is common knowledge that in developing countries Africa India Southeast Asia Africa Latin America the burden of HIV AIDS falls disproportionately on women who are generally the victims of male carriers of the disease In this book Roman Catholic women theologians from all over the world will discuss the pandemic in terms of their particular geographical and social location The model for the volume is Continuum's Catholic Ethicists on HIV AIDS Prevention 2000 edited by James Keenan S J The occasion or impetus for the volume was the First International Crosscultural Conference for Catholic Theological Ethicists single handedly created by James Keenan he raised 3 4 of a million dollars and held at Padua July 2006 The plenary sessions will be published by Continuum under the title Catholic Theological Ethics in the World Church The mentors for the volume will be James Keenan editor Iozzio's Doktorvater and Margaret Farley America's leading Catholic feminist theological ethicist 19 Dec review of Just Love in America Farley's advocacy both in the US and Africa on the issue of women and AIDS is renowned and she will be the best known contributor The leading contributor from English speaking Europe is Linda Hogan from Trinity College Dublin AIDS in Africa and the Caribbean George Clement Bond, 2019-04-09 This book offers detailed ethnographic studies from Africa and the Caribbean to explain AIDS in a global and comparative third world context The essays move beyond medical or epidemiological models explaining the epidemic in its economic social political and historical contexts Rethinking AIDS Prevention Edward C. Green, 2003-11-30 This is not another book about how AIDS is out of control in Africa and Third World nations or one complaining about the inadequacy of secured funds to fight the pandemic The author looks objectively at countries that have succeeded in reducing HIV infection rates along with a worrisome flip side to the progress The largely medical solutions funded by major donors have had little impact in Africa the continent hardest hit by AIDS Instead relatively simple low cost behavioral change programs stressing increased monogamy and delayed sexual activity for young people have made the greatest headway in fighting or preventing the disease's spread Ugandans pioneered these simple sustainable interventions and achieved significant results As National Review journalist Rod Dreher put it Rather than pay for clinics gadgets and medical procedures especially in the important earlier years of its response to the epidemic Uganda mobilized human resources In a New York Times interview Green cited evidence that partner reduction promoted as mutual faithfulness is the single most effective way of reducing the spread of AIDS That deceptively simple solution is not merely about medical advances or condom use It is about the ABC model Abstain Be faithful and use Condoms if A and B are impossible Yet deeply rooted Western biases have obstructed the effectiveness of AIDS prevention Many Western scientists have attacked the ABC approach as impossible and moralistic Some Western activists and HIV carriers have been outraged thinking the approach passes moral judgment on their behaviors But there is also a troubling suspicion among a growing number of scientists who support the ABC model that certain opponents may simply be AIDS profiteers more interested in protecting their incomes than battling the disease This book is a bellwether in the escalating controversy offering persuasive evidence in support of the ABC approach and exposing the fallacies and motivations of its opponents Thinking Politically about HIV Kent Buse, Dennis Altman, 2016-04-08 AIDS has a unique political history As fears grew of a global pandemic on the scale of AIDS in sub Saharan Africa AIDS was briefly treated as an issue of high politics in the international arena and generated significant resources for country programmes That initial commitment is now declining and if AIDS is to maintain its visibility and contribution to global solidarity human rights and dignity its politics will have to evolve to reflect the profound geo political economic and social transformations underway today This volume brings together leading scholars from a variety of disciplines who work at the intersection of politics and HIV They reflect on the lessons learned from the past thirty years of the politics of AIDS and how political science writ large can further contribute to the understanding and practice of political mobilization around AIDS Through case studies and analysis new insights into identity politics and social movements in countries as diverse as Brazil Switzerland Vietnam and Zambia are offered alongside new approaches to understanding the determinants and incentives which generate political will and commitment This book was published as a special issue of Contemporary Politics Facing Up to Climate Reality: Honesty, Disaster and Hope John Foster, 2019-03-29 We are used to hearing that the climate crisis is serious but still tractable if we start acting on it soon The reality is different Things are going to get much worse for a long time whatever we now do though hardly anyone wants to admit it This book from the Green House collective offers climate honesty The time for focusing primarily on mitigation is over We now need to adapt to the dark reality of climate breakdown But this means a deep reframing of our entire way of life The book explores how transformative adaptation might enable us to confront escalating climate chaos while not giving up hope Facing up to Climate Reality is a book for those brave enough to abandon the illusion of continuing normality and embark on a harder truer journey The Transition to Democratic Governance in Africa John Mukum Mbaku Esq., Julius O.
