Literacy, Place, and Pedagogies of Possibility Barbara Comber, 2015-07-30 How can teachers ensure a pedagogy of possibility underpinned by social justice and what has literacy got to do with this This book explores the positive synergies between critical literacy and place conscious pedagogy Through rich classroom research it introduces and demonstrates how a synthesis of insights from theories of space and place and literacy studies can underpin the design and enactment of culturally inclusive curriculum for diverse student communities and illustrates how making place and space the objects of study provide productive resources for teachers to design enabling pedagogical practices that extend students' literate repertoires The argument is that systematic study of and engagement with specific elements of place can enable students' academic learning and literacy Literacy Place and Pedagogies of Possibility is informed by critical literacy place conscious pedagogy and spatial theory is richly illustrated with examples from classroom research including teacher and student artifacts provides new directions for classroom practice in critical literacy This novel combination of multidisciplinary theory and classroom research extends previous work in critical literacy pedagogy drawing on two decades of ethnographic and collaborative inquiry in classrooms situated in culturally and linguistically diverse classrooms

The New Literacy John Willinsky, 2017-11-28 Originally published in 1990 This book examines the innovative programs that changed the way reading and writing was taught during the previous ten years Both teacher and critic of the New Literacy programs the author gives a perspective that allows educators parents and other readers to assess the promise of these programs Examining the work of educators from the USA UK and Canada he compares programs from first grade to college that foster a new level of literate engagement and voice in students while creating a less authoritative place in which to learn The book opens up wider debate about literacy in a society concerned with shifting authority from text and teacher to student      Education in an Era of Schooling Christine Edwards-Groves, Peter Grootenboer, Jane Wilkinson, 2018-09-07 This book is a Festschrift for Emeritus Professor Stephen Kemmis who has a long and eminent career as an educational researcher and academic spanning over 40 years His work in curriculum evaluation critical practice action research and practice theory has been influential across all continents of the world The book examines critical perspectives on educational practice and the participatory nature of action research including practitioner research particularly as undertaken by teachers in schools Including vignettes from Kemmis colleagues and mentors it draws on contributions from a range of academics whose scholarship has been inspired influenced and initiated by his work The chapters stem from a range of countries including Australia Canada Finland Sweden the United Kingdom United States of America and Trinidad and Tobago a testimony to the enduring and global legacy of Kemmis scholarship Contributing authors include leading educational research scholars indigenous elders from Australia and community leaders concerned with environmental sustainability The concluding focus of this book turns towards practice theory Kemmis later work led to the development of the theory of practice architectures and gave rise to the development of the theory of ecologies of practices in education Research drawing on the theory of practice architectures and ecologies of practices resulted in the leading text Changing practices changing education Kemmis Wilkinson Edwards Groves Hardy Grootenboer Bristol 2014 Springer that reports on an Australian investigation of the ecological relationship between student learning teaching professional learning leading and researching practices This theory is now being applied to study practices across a wide range of international contexts sites and disciplines including early childhood school education university education vocational education and training community environment indigenous cultural sustainability and health

Re-imagining Education for Democracy Stewart Riddle, Michael W. Apple, 2019-05-13 Contemporary education research policy and practice are complex and challenging The political struggle over what constitutes curriculum and pedagogy is framed by quasi markets and technocratic models of education This has had a significant effect on larger issues of policy But it has also had profound effects inside educational sites in terms of the economics and politics of what is and is not considered legitimate knowledge over what should be taught how it should be taught and by whom Re-imagining Education for Democracy takes up the unfinished project of resisting the de-democratisation of education and growing levels of social and educational inequality Where are the spaces for change and articulating hopeful alternatives How might we imagine and produce different futures What are the opportunities for affirmative interference and how could we produce a more sustainable re-imagining and re-doing of the critical project of education The work is framed within two complementary sections the first addresses some key policy political and philosophical concerns of contemporary educational contexts while the second provides a series of empirical case studies and other local global narratives of resisting and reframing dominant discourses in education around the world The chapters provide a range of empirical methodological and conceptual focuses from different educational communities and international contexts engaging with the proposition of re imagining education for democracy in multiple and diverse ways This book will be essential reading for researchers and students of education research policy and practice      Encyclopedia of Language and Education Leo van Lier,P. Corson,2013-11-01

ENCYCLOPEDIA OF LANGUAGE AND EDUCATION This is one of eight volumes of the Encyclopedia of Language and Education published by Kluwer Academic The publication of this work signals the maturity of the field of language and education as an international and interdisciplinary field of significance and cohesion These volumes confirm that language and education is much more than the preserve of any single discipline In designing these volumes we have tried to recognise the diversity of the field in our selection of contributors and in our choice of topics The contributors come from every continent and from more than 40 countries Their reviews discuss language and education issues affecting every country in the world We have also tried to recognise the diverse interdisciplinary nature of language and education in the selection of the editorial personnel themselves The major academic interests of the volume editors confirm this As principal volume editor for Volume 1 Ruth Wodak has interests in critical linguistics sociology of language and language policy For Volume 2 Viv Edwards has interests in policy and practice in multilingual classrooms and the sociology of language For Volume 3 Bronwyn Davies has interests in the social psychology of language the sociology of language and interdisciplinary studies For Volume 4 Richard Tucker has interests in language theory applied linguistics and the implementation and evaluation of innovative language education programs      Resources in Education ,1985      Theory and Practice of Writing William Grabe,Robert B. Kaplan,2014-09-25 This book undertakes a general framework within which to consider the complex nature of the writing task in English both as a first and as a second language The volume explores varieties of writing different purposes for learning to write extended text and cross cultural variation among second language writers The volume overviews textlinguistic research explores process approaches to writing discusses writing for professional purposes and contrastive rhetoric It proposes a model for text construction as well as a framework for a more general theory of writing Later chapters organised around seventy five themes for writing instruction are devoted to the teaching of writing at the beginning intermediate and advanced levels Writing assessment and other means for responding to writing are also discussed William Grabe and Robert Kaplan summarise various theoretical strands that have been recently explored by applied linguists and other writing researchers and draw these strands together into a coherent overview of the nature of written text Finally they suggest methods for the teaching of writing consistent with the nature processes and social context of writing      Knowledge about language Leo van Lier,David Corson,1999-05-31 This book offers a comprehensive perspective on metalinguistic knowledge and processes and presents a coherent argument for building an element of language awareness into the language curriculum at all educational levels It offers a balanced perspective on first and second language acquisition

Promoting Equity in Schools Jess Harris,Suzanne Carrington,Mel Ainscow,2017-09-08 Around the world countries are searching for ways of making their schools more effective for all children and young people This book offers a new way of thinking about how to address this challenge It sees improvement as requiring a collective effort that involves contributions from all members of a school community Crucial to this is the idea of ethical leadership Promoting Equity in Schools is written by a team of academic researchers who had a most unusual opportunity to work with a network of schools over three years experimenting to find more effective ways of including hard to reach learners Bringing together practitioner knowledge and ideas from research carried out from a variety of perspectives the authors provide rich accounts of what happened when the schools attempted to become more inclusive and fairer In so doing they throw light on the challenges this presents for school leaders The accounts presented in the book are located in Queensland Australia where the school system faces significant difficulties in relation to equity that resonate with similar difficulties around the world These difficulties relate to policies that emphasize high stakes testing and school choice which tend to promote increased segregation to the particular disadvantage of young people from low income and minority backgrounds The arguments presented suggest that even where worrying policies are in place with leadership driven by a commitment to equity schools can still find space to develop more equitable ways of working
