Translation and the Classic Paul F. Bandia, James Hadley, Siobhán McElduff, 2024-02-08 Through a range of accessible and innovative chapters dealing with a spectrum of genres, authors and periods, this volume seeks to examine the complex relationship between translation and the classic and how translation makes and remakes and sometimes invents classic works for new audiences across space and time. Translation and the Classic is the first volume in a two-volume series examining how classic works fare in translation, how translation is different when it engages with classic texts and how classic texts can be shaped, understood in new ways or even created through the process of translation. Although other collections have covered some of this territory, they have done so in partial ways or with a focus on Greek, Roman and Arabic texts or translations. This collection alone takes the reader from 1000 BCE up to the digital age in a sequence of chapters that encompass areas including philosophy, children's literature and pseudotranslation. It asks us to consider translation not just as a mechanism of distribution but as one of the primary ways that the classic is created and understood by multiple audiences. This book is essential reading for those taking Translation Studies courses at the senior undergraduate and postgraduate level as well as courses outside Translation Studies such as Comparative Literature and Literary Studies

English Fairy Tales - Illustrated by John D. Batten Joseph Jacobs, John D.

Batten, 2020-12-01 Joseph's Jacobs' wonderful collection of original English fairy tales. These stories are some of the most famous and best-loved fairy tales from English folklore, including such stories as Tom Tit Tot, Jack and the Beanstalk and others. English Fairy Tales is sure to be enjoyed by children and lovers of folklore now just as they always have been, and it would make for a fantastic addition to family collections. The tales include Tom Tit Tot, The Three Sillies, The Rose Tree, The Old Woman and Her Pig, How Jack Went to Seek his Fortune, Mr Vinegar Nix, Nought Nothing, Jack Hannaford, Binnorie, Mouse and Mouser, Cap o' Rushes, Teeny Tiny, Jack and the Beanstalk and many more. Joseph Jacobs (1854-1916) was an Australian folklorist, literary critic, historian and writer of English literature who became a notable collector and publisher of English folklore. Heavily influenced by the Brothers Grimm and the romantic nationalism ubiquitous in his contemporary folklorists, Jacobs was responsible for introducing English fairy tales to English children who had previously chiefly enjoyed those derived from French and German folklore. John Dickson Batten (1860-1932) was a British figure painter as well as a book illustrator and printmaker. He illustrated almost all of Jacob's works, including English Fairy Tales (1890), Celtic Fairy Tales (1892), Indian Fairy Tales (1912) and European Folk and Fairy Tales (1916). In addition, Batten is also celebrated for his delicately rendered imaginings of Arabian Nights and Dante's Inferno. Presented alongside the text of More English Fairy Tales, his illustrations further refine and elucidate Joseph Jacob's enchanting narratives. Pook Press celebrates the great Golden Age of Illustration in children's classics and fairy tales, a period of unparalleled excellence in book illustration.
