Faith and History - A Comparison of Christian and Modern Views of History Reinhold Niebuhr, 2013-04-18 The theme of this volume was first presented as the Lyman Beecher Lectures On Preaching at the Yale Divinity School in 1945 Some of the same lectures were given by arrangement under the Warrack Lectureship On Preaching at the Universities of Glasgow and Aberdeen in Scotland in the winter of 1947 Some of the chapters were used as the basis of lectures given under the Olaf Petri Foundation of the University of Uppsala in Sweden I sought to develop various portions of a general theme in these various lectureships In this volume I have drawn these lectures into a more comprehensive study of the total problem of the relation of the Christian faith to modern conceptions of history While the total work therefore bares little resemblance to the lectures it does contain consideration of the specific problems which were dealt with in the lectures I shall not seek to identify this material by chapters as I subjected the whole to reorganization Two of these lectureships usually deal with the art of preaching though not a few of the actual lectures have been concerned with the preacher's message Since I had no special competence in the art of homiletics I thought it wise to devote the lectures to a definition of the apologetic task of the Christian pulpit in the unique spiritual climate of our day Since several of the Beecher lecturers in the past half century sought to accommodate the Christian message to the prevailing evolutionary optimism of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries I thought it might be particularly appropriate to consider the spiritual situation in a period in which this evolutionary optimism is in the process of decay This volume is written on the basis of the faith that the Gospel of Christ is true for men of every age and that Jesus Christ is the same yesterday today and forever It is nevertheless the task of the pulpit to relate the ageless Gospel to the special problems of each age In doing so however there is always a temptation to capitulate to the characteristic prejudices of an age

Faith Is Like Skydiving Rick Mattson, 2014-04-07 Images and analogies can provide concrete handles for making the Christian faith more plausible Evangelist and apologist Rick Mattson has collected dozens of easy to use images for explaining Christianity With practical tips on how to interact with your skeptical friends this book provides a handy toolkit of evangelistic resources

The Dilemma of Faith in Modern Japanese Literature Massimiliano Tomasi, 2018-04-19 The first book length study to explore the links between Christianity and modern Japanese literature this book analyses the process of conversion of nine canonical authors unveiling the influence that Christianity had on their self construction their oeuvre and ultimately the trajectory of modern Japanese literature Building significantly on previous research which has treated the intersections of Christianity with the Japanese literary world in only a cursory fashion this book emphasizes the need to make a clear distinction between the different roles played by Catholicism and Protestantism In particular it argues that most Meiji and Taisho intellectuals were exposed to an exclusively Protestant and mainly Calvinist derivation of Christianity and so it is against this worldview that the connections between the two ought to be assessed Examining the work of authors such as Kitamura Tokuo Akutagawa Ryunosuke and Nagayo Yoshir this book also contextualises the spread of Christianity in Japan and challenges the notion that Christian thought was in conflict with mainstream literary schools As such this book explains how the dualities experienced by many modern writers were in fact the manifestation of manifold developments which placed Christianity at the center rather than at the periphery of their process of self construction The Dilemma of Faith in Modern Japanese Literature will be of great interest to students and scholars of Japanese modern literature as well as those interested in Religious Studies and Japanese Studies more generally

Modern Pagan and Native Faith Movements in Central and Eastern Europe Kaarina Aitamurto, Scott Simpson, 2014-10-20 The resurgence of religiosity in post communist Europe has been widely noted but the full spectrum of religious practice in the diverse countries of Central and Eastern Europe has been effectively hidden behind the region's range of languages and cultures This volume presents an overview of one of the most notable developments in the region the rise of Pagan and Native Faith movements Modern Pagan and Native Faith Movements in Central and Eastern Europe brings together scholars from across the region to present both systematic country overviews of Armenia Bulgaria the Czech Republic Hungary Latvia Lithuania Poland Romania Russia Slovenia and Ukraine as well as essays exploring specific themes such as racism and the internet The volume will be of interest to scholars of new religious movements especially those looking for a more comprehensive picture of contemporary paganism beyond the English speaking world Faith in God and Modern
