Faith, Hope, and Murder Elise M. Stone, 2014-10-25 Emotionally wounded with prayers unanswered Faith Andersen turned her back on God years ago She s devoted herself to her work as a web designer and a series of meaningless relationships in place of the love she desires She s happier that way at least that s what she tells herself When her best friend asks her to help a stranger she has no idea the problem is murder The victim a smuggler who brought drugs and human beings over the Mexican border had plenty of enemies And even more dangerous friends Pastor John Menard has problems of his own With a recent divorce and an accusation of misconduct he must win back the trust of his congregation or risk losing his church Until he proves his innocence there s no space in his life for a relationship When the pretty skeptic appears in his office to discuss a new web site for the church John is intrigued but cautious When he discovers she s poking into a murder without understanding the danger he fears for her safety As Faith investigates the murder she finds herself with more questions than answers Who killed the coyote Is the stranger really who she seems And John wonders if Faith has gotten herself into more trouble than either of them can handle Faith, Identity and Homicide Shona

Robinson-Edwards, 2021-10-09 This book explores the role that religion plays in the lives of imprisoned homicide offenders Drawing on interviews in an English prison the author examines how they narrate their life stories and how religion intersects with other categories to rebuild their personal identities after committing a crime and being labelled as murderers or killers This book seeks to bridge the gap between macro and micro phenomena examining religion as both a social institution and a personal experience It also explores the mediating role of institutions with regards to the nature and extent of their influence upon individual choices and actions and provides insights into the nature of the therapeutic prison It seeks to create some clarity of understanding the complex nature of religiosity narrative identity desistance and rehabilitation whilst critically examining elements of social identity that may restrict or enhance this process It provides a series of recommendations for organisations working with convicted homicide offenders offenders and speaks to academics and practitioners in the fields of criminology sociology psychology and religious theological studies Mystery Women, Christian Faith Hope Love Minister MarcAlan (Marcus A. Toliver,2013-03-15 If you want to develop a relationship with God I recommend you read this book The purpose of this book is to help all people grow spiritually and mature in Christ Consider it a small victory in your life and spiritual battle when you identify and recognize the different ways Satan uses people to attack you This is a spiritual war When you are a Christian its never about you and people Its always about you and God No matter what you think or what your feelings are about a situation let go of your emotions and try to learn whatever lesson God is teaching you Try to see whatever God is showing you Try to become whatever God is molding you to be Trust whatever God is doing in you Embrace the change and your future Spiritual wisdom is greater and more valuable than human knowledge Live your life with a clear conscience and a sincere heart before God Live a Christian life by faith through the power of the Holy Spirit Because of Gods grace and mercy you can show the world what a saved and changed heart produces and what a life in Jesus Christ looks like Faith Hope Love Faith, Hope and Love Robert W.

Christensen,2012-02 This book by Dr Christensen is a Trilogy of his earlier books on those same three topics FAITH I suspect we all go through life wondering what is faith From the time we are just infants we have to believe for and have faith for all sorts of things Will mother remember to feed me Will I get picked up out of my crib today To all sorts of things from that moment on As we get instruction about God and our relationship with God we then get to be a bit like the original disciples who made the statement to Jesus about increasing our faith In Romans 10 8 we see the statement The word is nigh thee even in thy mouth and in thy heart that is the word of faith that we preach But what is faith In talking about it in the spiritual or religious realm we are talking about having faith in God If we say we have faith in God are we really saying we can lay our lives down for God To have complete faith in what he says he will do Total dependence on God just as when we were babies we had total dependence on our mothers or fathers So now if we have confessed Jesus as our Lord and Savior are we willing to be obedient to His every command Is that where faith begins HOPE Our hope is in fervently and completely trusting our Lord In the 3rd Psalm King David is fleeing from Absalom his son who is out to slay him Now that is one serious circumstance which I am sure all of us can agree would cause discouragement and despair David makes a number of statements in that Psalm which can give us hope when it seems there is no hope LOVE The Bible has a great deal to say about Love and if we were to review the message and ministry of Jesus Christ we would find the central theme has to do with love It basically has to do with loving God and then loving your neighbor as yourself Sounds easy doesn't But it will likely take your whole life in your attempt to fulfill that command of the Lord

Faith, Hope, and Love in the Kingdom of God Robert Hernan Cubillos, 2017-04-27 We live in a world full of challenges The three graces can almost be seen as motors for Christian life in today's world but the words faith hope and love have so many everyday uses that their technical theological meanings are for many difficult to appreciate Modern life also leaves many yearning for authenticity and meaning Many religions have answered that need by calling to mind the image of a path Always profound progressions religious paths tend to be motivated either by practices the act of walking the path or focal points Christianity has a focal point an object and it sees the three graces as distinctively content filled The heart of this book is about helping people find the Christian path and their intellectual emotional and spiritual balance an equilibrium that is sustained by a strong personal faith an enduring hope for the future and genuine love that will withstand the worst of times It contributes to the category of Christian literature that provides a pattern for Christian living without surrendering the intellect to the more popular side of this genre

Faith, Hope, Love, and Justice Anselm K. Min, 2018-03-28 Faith hope and love traditionally called theological virtues are central to Christianity This book renews faith hope and love in the context of the many contemporary challenges in many unique ways It is an ecumenical collection of papers equally divided between Catholic and Protestant positions that seek to radically renew the classical doctrine of faith hope and love and argues for their essential connection to the praxis of justice It contains eight different approaches each represented by a distinguished theologian and addressing different aspects of the issues and followed by insightful and critical responses It does not merely seek to renew the theological virtues but to also reconstruct them in the demanding context of justice and the contemporary world nor is it simply a treatise on justice but a theoretical and practical reflection on justice as vital expressions of faith in God hope in God and love of God A non dogmatic and non ideological approach it accommodates both conservative and liberal positions and avoids the separation of the theological virtues from the demands of the contemporary world as well as the separation of justice talk from the theological context of faith hope and love It seeks above all to renew not merely repeat the classical doctrine of faith hope and love in the contemporary context of the urgency of justice and to do so ecumenically comprehensively and from a variety of perspectives and aspects Faith, Hope, and Love Troy DuJardin, M. David Eckel, 2022-07-22 These essays consider the three traditional theological virtues faith hope and love alongside their opposites doubt despair and hate from a scholarly perspective The volume includes contributions not just from philosophers of religion but also from psychologists sociologists and film and literature scholars to paint a complex and nuanced picture of these virtues both of how we might understand them and how we can hope to embody them ourselves While these virtues make up a core part of the Christian tradition the chapters here go far and wide in search of different cultural conceptions of these universal human concerns Inquiries are made into these virtues within Hindu Buddhist Jewish and Islamic thought alongside philosophers including Aristotle Hegel Kierkegaard Nietzsche Levinas and Murdoch The resulting tapestry is often beautiful sometimes horrific but always thoroughly human This text appeals to students and researchers working in these fields Chapter 9 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link springer.com

Faith, Hope and Clarity: A look at Biblical and Situation Ethics Gordon Kainer, 2012-03-24 Truthfulness Morality Ethics Christians face fundamental questions regarding deep issues and everyday problems Are there situations in life where obedience to God's law is not the most practical solution Is lying always wrong Situation ethics attempts to answer questions like these by affirming that doing the loving thing is a higher priority than obedience to God's law The author endeavors to show how disregard for divine law though seemingly attractive reasonable and practical is untenable The book reveals how a situationalist follows a misguided ego rather than an objective standard Whether we manipulate others to suit our own purposes lie to avoid embarrassment or commit a minor indiscretion it's just a quick fix something that only lasts for a season Discover how the eye of faith adheres to God's directives unblinded by sin's attractive glow it contemplates a lifetime it considers eternity
