Faith We Confess:

The Faith We Confess Jan Milic Lochman, 2005-01-13 Jan Milic Lochman is internationally respected as a convincing and powerful interpreter of theology for both Christians and Marxists. With this work he offers a contemporary and ecumenical statement of what Christians believe based on the Apostles Creed. He treats the creed not as an archaic document but as a living witness vitally relevant to today's intellectual and ecumenical scene. This existentially committed exposition of the basics of Christian faith will inform and challenge both clergy and laity. Protestant, Catholic and Orthodox as few have done since the majestic Credo of Karl Barth.

The Faith We Confess Gerald Lewis Bray, 2009 Bray examines the 39 Articles of Religion, one of the three historic formularies of the Church of England. Along with the Book of Common Prayer and the Ordinal, they gave the church its distinctive identity at the time of the Reformation.

Faith We Affirm: Basic Beliefs, We Confess! Deborah Brunt, 2011-11 How could a church culture that lifted high the name of Jesus make covenant with the Confederacy? How did the Southern Baptist Convention lead the way? How do divided hearts and unholy covenants still hinder awakening in the conservative US church culture? What dramatic changes will a spirit of grace and supplication bring? We Confess: The Civil War the South and the Church uncovers the answers historically and biblically. God is revealing what we haven't wanted to see so we can become who we truly are. He promises to cleanse us from bloodguilt, not yet cleansed as we say what we haven't dared say. As we confess healing, life, oneness, witness and true worship flow. As we confess our Lord is honored and his kingdom furthered. So why don't we who most tend to gravitate to the word celebrate when talking of the Civil War? Instead, throw all caution to the wind and confess. Honest, compelling, courageous, redemptive, this remarkable look at the conservative church culture rooted in the Deep South explores such topics as King Cotton and mighty oaks. The fast God has chosen spiritual bulimia, spiritual schizophrenia, blood covenant, cleansing from bloodguilt, an undivided heart.

Principles of Faith - Faith for victorious living, Confessing the Faith Today Allan Janssen, 2016-11-30 With the understanding that confession is a witness to the gospel, Confessing the Faith Today investigates how a sixteenth-century Reformation confession, the Belgic Confession, can assist contemporary Christians testify to the truth of God's gracious turn toward creation and do so in the context of the twenty-first century's competing claims. A close examination of the internal coherence of the Belgic Confession along with an exploration of how that confession might engage contemporary life offers fresh insight into how Christians might articulate what is at stake in the gospel. Janssen encourages the church to enter a conversation with the forebears of the faith, acknowledging the historical nature of not only the confession but of God's involvement in all creation.

The Faith Dwain R. Leavy, 2023-08-23 A recent survey found that a large majority of people who describe themselves as Christians struggle with faith and often succumb to fear and unbelief. The enemy has used our lack of understanding along with fear and unbelief to rob us of our inherited blessings through Christ. For many, faith has become a social media hashtag or some positive force that everyone can access to facilitate a better life. However, faith is not a social media hashtag nor is it some positive force flowing throughout the universe that we tap into like a Star Wars Jedi The faith of the Bible also known as kingdom faith is the key to experiencing the manifestation of what God has freely given to every believer Everything that our Lord and Savior provided through His death burial and resurrection is available and accessible by faith Throughout the pages of this book we explore what I call the process of kingdom faith Webster defines a process as a series of actions or steps taken to achieve a particular end Just as there is a process to installing software on a computer or baking a cake there is also a process to receiving what God promised in His Word The process of kingdom faith incorporates various faith principles to move us from an expectation of the promises being fulfilled to experiencing the manifestation of those promises It is my prayer that this book will lead you to a more intimate relationship with the Lord and will allow you to take full advantage of the benefits that God has given you through faith

Confession of Faith Ratification Act 1560 The Government of United Kingdom,2020-12-08 The Confession of Faith Ratification Act 1560 serves as a pivotal document in the evolution of religious doctrine and state power in England during the Reformation Written in a formal legalistic style characteristic of 16th century parliamentary language this act ratified the Scots Confession articulating the theological underpinnings that shaped Protestant beliefs in the United Kingdom It reflects the broader conflict between Catholicism and burgeoning Protestant ideologies marking a crucial juncture in the establishment of the Church of England and the relationship between governance and faith The Government of the United Kingdom as the acting authority behind this document sought to navigate the tumultuous waters of religious dissent and political legitimacy The act is a response to the factionalism of post Reformation society deeply influenced by the works of reformers such as John Calvin and John Knox The need for coherence in belief led to the issuance of this act indicating a shift towards the embrace of a unified Protestant identity This book is essential for scholars and enthusiasts of religious history legal studies and British political evolution It offers profound insights into the ideological battles of the era serving as both a historical artifact and a narrative tool for understanding the complexities of faith and governance in early modern England Engage with this seminal work to explore the intricate interplay of theology and statecraft

Church Doctrine, Volume 3 Paul C. McGlasson,2015-10-02 The present volume is the third in a five volume study of church doctrine The multivolume set covers the major parts of church doctrine Canon God Creation Reconciliation and Redemption The first volume begins with an introduction to the entire project on why doctrine matters which stresses the ecumenical global and above all biblical horizons of church doctrine as a primary expression of Christian witness The second volume discusses the doctrine of God The purpose of this third volume is to reaffirm the traditional church doctrine of Creation and yet to do so in a way that submits that tradition to the overruling overpowering authority of Scripture God the Creator according to the Bible owns the entire universe it does not belong to humankind We live in service of his covenant of grace but we do so along with our fellow creatures in a common vulnerability and finitude The volume addresses the question of how the church doctrine of Creation speaks to the manifold ecological crisis of our time Church doctrine is not a luxury but a necessity for the living community of faith by which its witness in word and deed is tested against the one true measure of Christ the risen Lord It's A Matter Of Faith And Life Volume 3 David M. Albertin, 1997 This book one of a three part series is a narrative reflection on Dr Martin Luther's Small Catechism Its uses are many A companion guide for catechism classes A manual for new adult member classes A preaching resource Inspirational reading for those who want to know more about the faith life of a Christian The book began as a video series broadcast on the Michigan City Indiana cable system The series was also used in the catechetical instruction of Immanuel Lutheran Church Michigan City where Dr Albertin is a pastor David M Albertin has for over a quarter of a century been a Lutheran pastor in addition to being a psychiatric counselor and college professor He is a graduate of Concordia Theological Seminary M Div St Louis Missouri and the State University of New York at Buffalo Ph D Throughout his ministry he has been active in radio and television and has served the church at large in the area of communications He is a native of Sheboygan Falls Wisconsin and currently resides in Michigan City Indiana

Confessing Our Faith John Burgess, 2018-02-02 How can the Book of Confessions help elders and lay leaders when they face challenging situations within their congregations John P Burgess offers answers in Confessing Our Faith Using the confessions as a framework Burgess covers areas of ministry such as stewardship evangelism discipleship and conflict resolution offering in each case ways in which the lay leader can respond A unique and practical reference Confessing Our Faith is designed to aid church leaders in understanding how their work can be informed by the confessional documents

The Scots Confession of Faith John Knox, 2022-05-29 In The Scots Confession of Faith John Knox articulates a bold comprehensive vision of the Reformed Christian doctrine that significantly influenced Scotland's Protestant Reformation Written in 1560 this confessional document is characterized by its rigorous theological framework and poignant clarity reflecting a blend of scripture and reason Knox's work challenges the prevailing Catholic doctrines of the time addressing key tenets such as grace salvation and the nature of the church with both fervency and precision The Confession serves as a foundational text for Scottish Presbyterianism establishing an essential theological context for future debates within Christendom John Knox a pivotal figure in the Protestant Reformation exemplifies the spirit of reform through his passionate advocacy for a return to scriptural authority and the establishment of a purer form of worship Knox's tumultuous life punctuated by exile and opposition imbues his writings with a sense of urgency and sincerity His personal encounters with persecution and his fervent belief in the supremacy of God's word galvanized his mission to reform the church in Scotland shaping not only his theological positions but also the broader Protestant landscape This book is highly recommended for those interested in early modern European history Reformed theology and the socio political dynamics of 16th century Scotland Knox's articulate expression of faith in The Scots Confession of Faith offers readers both profound insights and a compelling narrative of a community's struggle for spiritual autonomy making it an essential addition to any theological library     The Westminster Confession of Faith Examined on the Basis of the Other Protestant Confessions Joseph Taylor Goodsir, 1868     The Nicene Creed Phillip Cary, 2023-03-29 Understand and celebrate what we believe For centuries the Nicene Creed has been central to the church's confession The Nicene Creed An Introduction by Phillip Cary explores the Creed's riches with simplicity and clarity Cary explains the history of the Creed and walks through its meaning line by line Far from being abstract or irrelevant the words of the Creed carefully express what God has done in Christ and through the Spirit The Nicene Creed gives us the gospel It gives biblical Christians the words for what we already believe And when we profess the Creed we join the global church throughout history in declaring the name and work of the one God Father Son and Spirit Gain a fresh appreciation for the ancient confession with Phillip Cary's help     Keeping Faith D. Stephen Long, 2012-03-01 Keeping Faith offers resources to help Christians reclaim the importance of doctrine and thereby know and love well God and God's creation Although it gives particular attention to the Wesleyan and Methodist tradition it is of necessity an ecumenical effort Neither the Wesleyans nor the Methodists invented Christian doctrine In fact the Wesleyan tradition contributes little that is distinctive or unique This is a good thing for unlike other disciplines where originality and uniqueness matter greatly Christian doctrine depends on others and not the genius of some individual Chesterton once said that Christianity is the democracy of the dead In other words doctrine depends on the communion of the saints They help us speak of God as we should We need to hear their voice For this reason this work is an ecumenical commentary on the Confession of Faith and Articles of Religion found in the Wesleyan tradition that also draws on ancient and modern witnesses to God's glory It is ecumenical because it brings these doctrines into conversation with the broader Christian tradition Doctrine unites us in a communion which is greater than any single denomination and makes us what we otherwise cannot be one holy catholic and apostolic     Restoring Your Shield of Faith Chuck D. Pierce, Robert Heidler, 2003-12-08 This message from Chuck Pierce and Robert Heidler likens our spiritual defense to that of the children of Israel while in battle Within the ranks there were those who carried huge shields to protect the bulk of the army And just as we fight spiritual battles today there is a mighty shield we can carry to protect us This shield of faith is one of the main ways we can resist our enemy's attacks We are fully capable of resisting the enemy's attacks but we must first be able to recognize how Satan fights His main weapons are to create fear and doubt in us and to tempt us to become complainers and murmurers If we succumb our faith is weakened The keys to increasing our faith are found in knowing the Word of God which engenders praise thankfulness trust and obedience     Presbyterian Faith That Lives Today Donald K. McKim, 2014-05-27 In this insightful book Donald K. McKim explores the basic tenets of Presbyterian theology and doctrine from their beginnings to their meaning for the church today Throughout McKim emphasizes the how Presbyterian history can inform current and future challenges Without prescribing solutions to contemporary challenges McKim's six brief chapters provide the foundation for broadening and strengthening a Presbyterian faith that lives today Each chapter ends with suggestions for further study     Justification by Faith in Catholic-Protestant Dialogue Anthony N. S. Lane, 2006-08-15 In this assessment of the recent Catholic Protestant dialogue concerning the doctrine of justification Anthony Lane begins by discussing traditional Protestant doctrine with close reference to Calvin and traditional Catholic doctrine with close reference to the Council of Trent He goes on to examine eight key documents from Hans Kung's Justification 1957 to the Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification 1999 Fifteen key theological issues are then explored These include the status of theological language used by Catholics and Evangelicals the definition of justification the grounds on which a person is accounted righteous the question of sin remaining in the Christian whether faith alone can save the relationship between law and gospel the question of merit and reward the assurance of salvation and finally a discussion on the Roman Magisterium and current Evangelical responses to recent changes in Catholic theology In conclusion Anthony Lane discusses the extent to which any agreement or convergence of thinking has been achieved and its future significance

The Belgic Confession Albert J. Coetsee, Sarel P. van der Walt, D Francois Muller, 2023-10-31 This book investigates the contemporary relevance of the Belgic Confession The book groups the 37 articles of the Belgic Confession together to cover the confession in 12 chapters alongside an introductory chapter The emphasis of the publication falls on two aspects 1 providing a scope of contemporary theological ethical and general issues and possible controversies regarding the content of the Belgic Confession and 2 formulating ethical perspectives and guidelines from the Belgic Confession that may assist in the building of societies Where applicable chapters also discuss the history of the text of the Belgic Confession the organic unity between the articles of the Belgic Confession a dogmatic historical perspective on the development of the doctrine content of the Belgic Confession and the relationship between the Belgic Confession and other confessions
