The Shape of the Gospel Robert C. Tannehill, 2007-02-20 Most of the following essays reveal my interest in the significance of literary forms both the short literary forms in the Gospels such as pronouncement stories and an entire Gospel as a formed narrative I am interested in the significance of these forms not just in literary classification systems I am interested in literary form as a clue to how the text may engage hearers and readers impact their thought and life if they are sensitive respondents The Gospel stories have been shaped in ways that give them particular potentials for significant engagement Study of literary form can help us recognize these potentials from the Introduction Contents Part I Gospel Sayings and Stories 1 Tension in Synoptic Sayings and Stories 2 The Pronouncement Story and Its Types 3 Varieties of Synoptic Pronouncement Stories 4 Types and Functions of Apophthegms in the Synoptic Gospels 5 The Gospels and Narrative Literature 6 You Shall Be Complete If Your Love Includes All Matthew 5 48 Part II The Gospel of Mark 7 The Disciples in Mark The Function of a Narrative Role 8 The Gospel of Mark as Narrative Christology 9 Reading It Whole The Function of Mark 8 34 35 in Mark s Story Part III Paul s Gospel 10 Paul as Liberator and Oppressor Evaluating Diverse Views of 1 Corinthians 11 Participation in Christ A Central Theme in Pauline Soteriology Romans Michael J. Gorman, 2022-03-03 Above all Romans is a letter about Spirit enabled participation and transformation in Christ and his story and thus in the mission of God in the world This commentary engages the letter to the Romans as Christian scripture and highlights the Pauline themes for which Michael Gorman is best known participation and transformation cruciformity and new life peace and justice community and mission With extensive introductions both to the apostle Paul and to the letter itself Gorman offers background information on Paul s first century context before proceeding into the rich theological landscape of the biblical text In line with Paul s focus on Christian living Gorman interprets Romans at a consistently practical level highlighting the letter s significance for Christian theology daily life and pastoral ministry Questions for reflection and sidebars on important concepts make this especially useful for those preparing to preach or teach from Romans the epistle of life as Gorman calls it for its extraordinary promise that through faith we might walk in newness of life with Christ

God with Us—Fifty True Stories of God's Faithfulness JoAnne DeSerio Jones, 2013-01-23 Real people Real stories Real God A car without brakes racing toward a speeding train an injured man alone in the woods a stroke victim rushed to the hospital a man held at gunpoint These are among the fifty true stories in this book all from one church that show God helping those in need God is with each one of us we have only to open our spiritual eyes I highly recommend this book It will increase your faith as it did mine Dr Jo Anne Lyon General Superintendent The Wesleyan Church Founder World Hope International We do walk by faith and not by sight But every once in a while God gives us a uniquely grace filled experience that gives us a sacred glimpse of His hand and presence in our lives As you read these stories of God sightings your faith in our invisible God will be deepened and enriched Dr Jack Connell Executive Vice President Roberts Wesleyan College and

Northeastern Seminary If you want a real life glimpse of some ways God actually shows up in human affairs JoAnne Jones's Fifty True Stories is the book to read Then prepare to build a bigger box for your faith I predict you will likely need it David L Thompson Ph D F M and Ada Thompson Professor of Biblical Studies Asbury Theological Seminary O Woman, Great is Your Faith! Douglas Sean O'Donnell, 2021-08-26 The concept of faith holds a central position in New Testament and early Christian thought yet this concept has not received the careful attention it deserves in the Synoptic Gospels The present study offers a comprehensive analysis of faith as a key motif in the Gospel of Matthew where it plays a major role in communicating this Gospel's vision for how readers should respond to the person and message of Jesus The argument propounded is that Matthew's unique narrative portrayal of the Canaanite woman's faith 15:21-28 is used for pedagogical purposes namely that by comparing and contrasting her great faith with those characters expressing no faith and little faith Matthew uses Jesus's quantitative terms to teach on the nature of true faith She embodies Matthew's theological vision of faith Even though she is a gentile outsider enemy she comprehends the universal scope and abundant blessings of Jesus's mission Moreover she acknowledges Jesus's messianic identity correctly perceiving him to be both David's royal heir and David's Lord Finally based on who she perceives Jesus to be and the purpose of his mission she demonstrates faith as trust manifested in action Roman Faith and Christian Faith Teresa Jean Morgan, 2015 This study investigates why faith pistis fides was so important to early Christians that the concept and praxis dominated the writings of the New Testament It argues that such a study must be interdisciplinary locating emerging Christianities in the social practices and mentalities of contemporary Judaism and the early Roman empire This can therefore equally be read as a study of the operation of pistis fides in the world of the early Roman principate taking one small but relatively well attested cult as a case study in how micro societies within that world could treat it distinctively Drawing on recent work in sociology and economics the book traces the varying shapes taken by pistis fides in Greek and Roman human and divine human relationships whom or what is represented as easy or difficult to trust or believe in where pistis fides is deferred and reified in practices such as oaths and proofs how pistis fides is related to fear doubt and scepticism and which foundations of pistis fides are treated as more or less secure The book then traces the evolution of representations of human and divine human pistis in the Septuagint before turning to pistis pisteuein in New Testament writings and their role in the development of early Christologies incorporating a new interpretation of pistis Christou and ecclesiologies It argues for the integration of the study of pistis pisteuein with that of New Testament ethics It explores the interiority of Graeco Roman and early Christian pistis fides Finally it discusses eschatological pistis and the shape of the divine human community in the eschatological kingdom Shades of Grace Marc D. Simon Th.D., 2021-06-07 Romans is largely regarded as the theological standard among New Testament writings as well as the clearest and most systematic presentation of Christian doctrine in all the Bible Its influence on figures such as Augustine Luther and Calvin have been well documented with Calvin referring to it as the singular key to understanding all of Scripture

In Shades of Grace the first in his New Kingdom series pastor and author Marc Simon offers both an original translation of Paul's letter to the Romans as well as a fresh commentary on the letter itself. His spirited approach to the Pauline corpus conveys both the depth and simplicity of Paul's writing and combines the author's careful scholarship and spiritual insight with lucid commentary, background information and explanatory notes on key terms used by Paul in his letters. The introduction to the commentary highlights the authorship, occasion, purpose and contents of Romans as well as Paul's unique understanding of Israel's God as the Father, Lord and Spirit of creation. The author follows the introduction with a verse by verse exposition of the text which is at once accessible to scholars, pastors and students alike. Unshaken Crawford W. Loritts, 2015-08-17 Faith stands at the heart of Christianity forming the bedrock of confidence that sustains God's people through the twists and turns of life. Calling readers to a faith that does not waver in a God who does not lie, this book by popular radio host and pastor Crawford Loritts reminds Christians of the sure hope they have in Christ and encourages them to live each day in light of that hope. Looking at God's faithfulness in the past, plan for the future and presence for the here and now, this book helps readers cultivate a confidence in God that is strong enough to help them endure whatever the world throws their way. Here is a powerful exhortation to true faith that honors God and leads to unending joy before a watching world. Karmic Christianity E. D. Burns, 2023-07-25 Resting in the Refuge of God's Love All people struggle with fear. Perhaps a child has a life-threatening illness. Your spouse loses a job and you don't know how bills will get paid. We wonder whether tough times indicate that God is not pleased with us. To regain assurance and peace we try harder to please God and attain blessings. We can too easily fall into a karmic-like cycle of good works relying on our own power to break the cycle of fear. In Karmic Christianity E. D. Burns explains why the antidote to fear is not power but rather peace. God's peace. The peace of Christ sets us free from anxiety arising from hardships and our inability to control our situations. Lasting peace is not grounded in subjective experience. Instead, Christ secures it for us by his death and resurrection. If we're honest we know that our best is never good enough. We are frequently powerless to change our circumstances. Burns shows why the solution is not working harder, being better or just giving up. Readers learn why we don't need to be exhausted. Instead we can rest in God's refuge, trusting that his love for us is perfect in Christ. Abraham's Faith in Romans 4 Benjamin Schliesser, 2007 The concept of faith is at the core of Paul's theology and the classic passage for his understanding of pistis is Genesis 15:6. After discussing the history of scholarship on the Pauline concept of faith, Benjamin Schliesser explores the literary tradition, historical and structural questions of Genesis 15 and offers a detailed exegesis of verse 6 with its fundamental terms: count, righteousness and believe. He then points to the theological significance of this testimony on Abraham for the Jewish identity. It comes into sight in a multifaceted and nuanced process of reception from later Old Testament texts: Psalm 106, Nehemiah 9 to a broad array of literature from Second Temple Judaism: Septuagint, Sirach 44, Jubilees 14, 4QPseudo-Jubilees, 4QMMT, 1 Maccabees, Philo. In the final and most substantial step he asks about Paul's hermeneutics of faith. How does Paul in his exegesis of the Genesis quote in Romans 4 come to view Abraham as the father of all believers What is the concept of faith that he develops on the basis of Genesis 15 6 Taking into account the manifold textual and thematic links between Romans 4 Romans 3 21 31 and Romans 1 16 17 a unique twofold structure of faith discloses itself Pistis designates first a divinely established sphere of power i e a new christologically determined salvation historical reality and second human participation in this reality i e individual believing in the community of believers Particularly the first aspect is generally overlooked in modern scholarship

Understanding the Atonement for the Mission of the Church John Driver, 2005-07-06 At the very center of the Christian faith is Jesus a crucified Messiah All the wisdom and the power of God have been revealed in him Apart from such wisdom and power no genuine Christian experience is possible Unfortunately Western Christianity has been so conditioned by Constantinian presuppositions that it has failed to take into account the centrality of the crucified Messiah It has been far more preoccupied with worldly wisdom and worldly power than with faithfulness to the gospel of the kingdom It has concentrated on the salvation of the individual soul but has frequently disregarded God's purpose to create a new humanity marked by sacrificial love and justice for the poor In the classical theories on the atonement the work of Christ was unrelated to God's intention to create a new humanity Driver here demonstrates that the covenanted community of God's people is the essential context for understanding the atonement The reconciling work of Christ creates a reconciling community where all the barriers that divide humankind break down Driver's book is an invitation to look at the cross not merely as the source of individual salvation but as the place wherein begins the renewal of the creation the new heavens and the new earth that God has promised and that the messianic community anticipates May many readers heed its message C Rene Padilla Buenos Aires

Paul and the Language of Faith Nijay K. Gupta, 2020-02-04 A dynamic reading of Paul's faith language outlining its subtle nuances as belief trust and faithfulness Faith language permeates the letters of Paul Yet its exact meaning is not always clear Many today reflecting centuries of interpretation consider belief in Jesus to be a passive act In this important book Nijay Gupta challenges common assumptions in the interpretation of Paul and calls for a reexamination of Paul's faith language Gupta argues that Paul's faith language resonates with a Jewish understanding of covenant involving goodwill trust and expectation Paul's understanding of faith involves the transformation of one's perception of God and the world through Christ relational dependence on Christ as well as active loyalty to Christ Pastors and scholars alike will benefit from this close examination of Paul's understanding and use of faith language For Gupta Paul's understanding involves a divine human relationship centered on Christ that believes trusts and obeys

The Faithfulness of Jesus the Messiah Walter D. Zorn, 2020-10-26 Strange how one little word the Greek word pistis can make a profound difference in understanding the Bible Pistis is usually translated faith but in different contexts of the New Testament the word can have several other meanings such as faithfulness trustworthiness solemn promise or oath proof or pledge conviction and doctrine of the Christian faith This book will challenge the reader's understanding of Paul's expression pistis

Christou faith faithfulness of Christ and the use of the pistis word group verb noun and adjective throughout the New Testament Given the Old Testament background to this word one will learn how the apostle Paul utilized an obscure phrase from the prophet Habakkuk to refer to a coming Messiah who in turn lived in faithfulness to the Father's will to die on a cross for the sins of the world This book will reveal how the gospel is emphasized throughout the New Testament in terms of the faithfulness of Jesus the Messiah New and fresh interpretations of various texts will challenge the traditional understandings of such texts When a person comprehends pistis as God's faithfulness and the Messiah's faithfulness the only human response is pistis itself meaning faithfulness as described in Hebrews 11 God is faithful and Jesus is faithful Will he find us faithful     'All of You are One' Bruce Hansen, 2010-01-19 Hansen argues that unity formula employed in Gal 3 28 1 Cor 12 13 and Col 3 11 offers equality between competing social groups     Living the Heart of Christianity Marcus J. Borg, Tim Scorer, 2006-10-31 Marcus Borg's The Heart of Christianity struck a chord for countless Christians across this country Church groups and small groups have been reading this influential book hoping to put into practice Borg's helpful suggestions for how we can be passionate believers today For the millions of people who have turned away from many traditional beliefs about God Jesus and the Bible but still long for a relevant nourishing faith The Heart of Christianity presents a new outlook on Christianity that is both refreshing and compelling This companion to The Heart of Christianity is an invaluable resource that provides the tools to talk about Borg's new vision for a life of Christian faith and how it can change our spiritual lives and Christian communities today For groups as well as individuals hoping to go deeper in The Heart of Christianity this guide includes personal reflection questions discussion topics exercises and selections from the bestselling book Organized into twelve chapters or sessions Living the Heart of Christianity includes both an individual or participant's guide as well as a guide for group leaders allowing the reader to engage with the issues that lie at the heart of Christianity today
