Age and Reincarnation Jaime T. Licauco, 2017-12-02 Reading this book requires an open and questioning mind not a mind that has already accepted just one answer I for one have benefited greatly by reading his words and listening to his lectures From the foreword by Sir Jason Winters KGSJ Licauco in this book boldly discourses topics that might be unconventional for most people but very thought provoking Such topics might be disturbing but they will satiate the intellectually curious and those who don't settle only in a single point of view Looking for a Miracle Joe Nickell, 2009-12-02 The willingness of people to believe in magical icons mystical relics and miraculous pictures like the Image of Guadalupe is almost as curious as these phenomena themselves Though they cry out for scientific investigation millions of people blindly accept them as fact Historical and paranormal investigator Joe Nickell confronts such strange events powers and objects as the Shroud of Turin bleeding or weeping statues burning handprints liquefying blood ecstatic visions miraculous cures and people speaking in tongues in Looking for a Miracle Departing from standard critiques of religion Nickell carefully investigates the evidence relating to specific claims Religious believers and rationalists alike have much to learn from this revealing examination of the evidence for the miraculous Official Gazette Philippines, 1985 Enter the Holy Spirit, Exit Me Virginia S. Saunders, 2012-06 Enter the Holy Spirit Exit Me was the result of quickened words from the Holy Spirit on January 5 2012 when Ms Saunders was reading Psalm 96 3 which told her to Tell His glory among the nations Among all peoples His wondrous deeds As a successful and established writer in Asia she has not written anything of value for twelve years ever since her husband died in June 2000 His passing created in her a writer's block that was excruciatingly painful and fearful But when she heeded the prompting the Holy Spirit immediately lifted her writer's block inspiring her to write about the supernatural actions and gifts she has been experiencing since 1993 after attending a charismatic seminar and receiving the baptism of the Holy Spirit These gifts included praying tongues healing hands prophecies and visions Be inspired The supernatural gifts are for everyone Ms Saunders tells you how to receive it Beyond Casablanca Mohamed Abderrahman Tazi, Kevin Dwyer, 2004-11-25 In Beyond Casablanca Kevin Dwyer explores the problems of creativity in the Arab and African world focusing on Moroccan cinema and one of its key figures filmmaker M A Tazi Dwyer develops three themes simultaneously the filmmaker's career and films filmmaking in postcolonial Morocco and the relationship between Moroccan cinema Third World and Arab cinema and the global film industry This compelling discussion of Moroccan cinema is founded upon decades of anthropological research in Morocco most recently on the Moroccan film sector and the global film industry and exhibits a sensitivity to the cultural political social and economic context of creative activity The book centers on a series of interviews conducted with Tazi whose career provides a rich commentary on the world of Moroccan cinema and on Moroccan cinema in the world The interviews are framed variously by presentations of Moroccan history society and culture the role of foreign filmmakers in Morocco thematic discussions of cinematic issues such as narrative techniques the use of symbols film as an expression of identity and problems of censorship and the global context of Third World filmmaking

When the Impossible Happens Jaime T. Licauco, 2017-11-22 As an old and dear friend of Jaime Licauco a fellow writer and a fan I can only say that the title When the Impossible Happens From Skepticism to Complete Belief serves a dual purpose The unfolding of the fantastic events of his life is the first part though they often seem impossible clearly they are not The fact that he has finally agreed to tackle the challenge of opening himself to the world is yet another courageous and impossible task that is now coming to fruition From the Foreword by Andrea Cagan Things Fall Away

Neferti X. M. Tadiar, 2009-05-15 In Things Fall Away Neferti X M Tadiar offers a new paradigm for understanding politics and globalization Her analysis illuminates both the power of Filipino subaltern experience to shape social and economic realities and the critical role of the nation's writers and poets in that process Through close readings of poems short stories and novels brought into conversation with scholarship in anthropology sociology politics and economics Tadiar demonstrates how the devalued experiences of the Philippines vast subaltern populations experiences that fall away from the attention of mainstream and progressive accounts of the global capitalist present help to create the material conditions of social life that feminists urban activists and revolutionaries seek to transform Reading these fallout experiences as vital yet overlooked forms of political agency Tadiar offers a new and provocative analysis of the unrecognized productive forces at work in global trends such as the growth of migrant domestic labor the emergence of postcolonial civil society and the democratization of formerly authoritarian nations Tadiar treats the historical experiences articulated in feminist urban protest and revolutionary literatures of the 1960s 90s as cultural software for the transformation of dominant social relations She considers feminist literature in relation to the feminization of labor in the 1970s when between 300 000 and 500 000 prostitutes were working in the areas around U S military bases and in the 1980s and 1990s when more than five million Filipinas left the country to toil as maids nannies nurses and sex workers She reads urban protest literature in relation to authoritarian modernization and crony capitalism and she reevaluates revolutionary literature's constructions of the heroic revolutionary subject and the messianic masses probing these social movements unexhausted cultural resources for radical change Philippines Lily Rose R.
