The background of the entire image is a warm, golden-brown sunset or sunrise scene. On the left, there are several palm trees with dark fronds. In the lower right corner, a small sailboat is visible on the water. The sky is filled with soft, glowing clouds, and the sun is a bright yellow orb near the horizon, casting a reflection on the water.

Faithfulness Road To Divine Promise:

Theology of Hope Jürgen Moltmann, 2021-10-08 Causing a considerable stir when it was first published in Germany in 1965 Theology of Hope represents a comprehensive statement of the importance for theology of eschatology and of an eschatological theology which emphasizes the revolutionary effect of Christian hope upon the thought institutions and conditions of life in the here and now Jürgen Moltmann understands Christian faith essentially as hope for the future of humankind and creation as this has been promised by the God of the exodus and the resurrection of the crucified Jesus God's promise is the compulsory force of history awakening hope which keeps human beings unreconciled to present experience sets them in contradistinction to prevailing natural and social powers and makes the church the source of continual new impulses towards in Moltmann's own words the realization of righteousness freedom and humanity in the light of the promised future that is to come This new expanded edition of a theological classic includes his 2020 Charles Gore lecture A Theology of Hope for the 21st Century in which he offers a powerful reflection on the nature of hope in our current times
