The Globalisation of Charismatic Christianity Simon Coleman, 2000-10-02 This 2000 book analyses the revival of charismatic Protestant Christianity as an example of globalization Simon Coleman shows that along with many social movements these religious conservatives are negotiating their own interpretations of global and postmodern processes They are constructing an evangelical arena of action and meaning within the liminal chaotic space of the global The book examines globalization not only as a social process but also as an embodied practice involving forms of language and ritualized movement Charismatic Christianity is presented through its material culture art architecture and consumer products as well as its rhetoric and theology The book provides an account of the incorporation of electronic media such as television videos and the Internet into Christian worship Issues relating to the conduct of fieldwork in contexts of globalization are raised in an account which is also a major ethnography of a Faith ministry

Serving God with Style Ronald C. Williams, 2002-05-01 Every church is driven by its faith in God and seeks to grow that faith by guiding its members toward fruitful ministry But in the face of accelerating change congregations often find themselves spinning their wheels exerting great amounts of energy to little effect the faith is willing but faced with uncertainties the results are weak How can faith be transformed into productive ministry Ron Williams a recognized expert in ministry organization and development has observed that as individuals better understand their own behavioral tendencies when dealing with uncertainties and exercising their faith styles the more intentional and thus more productive they will be To that end Williams has created the Servant Resource Faith Style Inventory that congregations can use as a tool in training ministry volunteers developing ministry teams educating ministry leaders developing Christ centered work ethic training empowering Christians in the secular workplace and other ministry development interventions Deeply informed by evangelical faith yet useful in a broad variety of ministry settings and traditions the Inventory provides a useful instrument for congregations which have found that other self evaluation tools borrowed from secular sources do not meet the particular needs of Christian churches Dynamic and personal in tone and faith based in the deepest sense Serving God with Style will help every congregation enhance ministry effectiveness for the glory of God The New Measures Ted A. Smith, 2007-04-30 This 2007 book debates about religion and democracy through a cultural history of nineteenth century revival practice

Fireweed Evangelism: Christian Hospitality in a Multi-Faith World Elizabeth Geitz, 2004-11-01 Fireweed always the first flower to spring up and bloom in ruins and burned over places is Elizabeth Geitz's metaphor for evangelism that comes from the heart It is the motivation that makes some Christians eager to welcome the stranger and invite people into their churches while others hang back In this prequel to Entertaining Angels Hospitality Programs for the Caring Church Geitz explores this missing ingredient in Christian hospitality reminding us that in a multi faith world where Christians wish to honor the validity of other religious paths we may hesitate to talk about the uniqueness of Jesus Christ Her book helps both individuals and communities to understand what holds them back from evangelism and discover the path that is right for them This book unfolds in three sections In the first we look at the factors that inhibit our evangelism including the awareness that we live in a pluralistic world and do not wish to offend those with other faith commitments Geitz offers both reflection and exercises to help us discover our own motivation for evangelism Part 2 addresses the question of context Where does evangelism take place and for whose benefit To what sort of communities do we invite those to whom we reach out Section 3 focuses on the uniqueness of Christian hospitality and describes the nuts and bolts of newcomer ministry and the programs needed to sustain Christian hospitality in a pluralistic society It includes workshop and group process material

Journal of Asian and Asian American Theology, 1997 Sociological Analysis, 1977 Music in Catholic Worship Catholic Church. National Conference of Catholic Bishops. Bishops' Committee on the Liturgy, 1983 Mighty England Do Good Steven S. Maughan, 2014-08 In late Victorian and Edwardian England says Steven Maughan foreign missions had a broad resonance and significance not adequately explored by historians of English culture Mighty England Do Good fills that lacuna by examining the rapid growth of foreign missions in the Church of England between 1850 and 1915 culminating at the height of the missionary enterprise in Britain Maughan's book bridges the gaps between religious cultural and imperial history to give a full picture of the movement's importance Maughan explores Anglicanism as a microcosm of the larger religious culture of Britain particularly in light of the expanding British empire This book provides a multidimensional reassessment of the power that foreign missions had to shape belief institutions culture and practice not only within the Church of England but also in the broader culture of the time
