Auditions for Love.Com Oliver Cross,2014-07-16 In ten years I served as a diver in the Australian Army travelled for three years around the world and returned home to complete a degree at the University of Queensland This however is not the most adventurous detail of my journey Throughout this period I was using the internet as a medium to facilitate friendship fantasy and relationships I inadvertently stumbled upon online dating on my housemate s desktop computer It was a blessing because as a young man I did not drink or go out clubbing like others my own age therefore limiting my exposure with women I knew what I was doing in the year 2001 was unorthodox but despite the negative stigma I was fascinated with the process of finding love online and of a world beyond that which I knew before A world I discovered which is limited only by your imagination With a dose of honesty humility and humour the story follows my online experience from humble beginnings in the Australian Defence Force to spiraling out of control in pursuit of more lurid satisfactions abroad The book is as much a celebration of youth and adventure as it is a guide to navigating the often misunderstood world of internet dating The final chapter is an accumulation of the ten most relevant lessons I learned through ten years of trial and error Observing these rules will not only shed clarity on the process of online dating but most importantly offer readers tangible steps to speed up the process of fulfilling their online desires whatever they might be Audition Speeches for Men

My Friend Leonard James Frey,2005-06-16 Perhaps the most unconventional and literally breathtaking father son story you'll ever read My Friend Leonard pulls you immediately and deeply into a relationship as unusual as it is inspiring. The father figure is Leonard, the high living, recovering coke addict, West Coast Director of a large Italian American finance firm, read mobster who helped to keep James Frey clean in A Million Little Pieces. The son is, of course, James, damaged perhaps beyond repair by years of crack and alcohol addiction and by more than a few cruel tricks of fate. James embarks on his post-rehab existence in Chicago, emotionally devastated, broke and afraid to get close to other people. But then Leonard comes back into his life and everything changes. Leonard offers his son lucrative if illegal and slightly dangerous employment. He teaches James to enjoy life sober for the first time. He instructs him in the art of living, boldly pushes him to pursue his passion for writing and provides a watchful and supportive veil of protection under which James can get his life together. Both Leonard's and James's careers flourish, but then Leonard vanishes. When the reasons behind his mysterious absence are revealed, the book opens up in unexpected emotional ways. My Friend Leonard showcases a brilliant and energetic young writer rising to important new challenges, displaying surprising warmth, humor and maturity without losing his intensity. This book proves that one of the most provocative literary voices of his generation is also one of the most emphatically human.

Part Two collects and categorizes posts from DiLeo's classic film blog, screensaversmovies.com, containing his musings on classics, revisited sleepers and stinkers, films old and new, plus his memorial tributes to Hollywood notables. Part Three might be called a delayed bonus round to DiLeo's 1999 quiz book with all new matching quizzes. Can you identify the films in which a character writes a book titled Hummingbird Hill? Fred Astaire dances with Betty Hutton; a character named Sean Regan is important but never seen. Ebony, 2008-11 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing. Founded in 1945 by John H. Johnson, it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine. My Conscience U Kyaw Win, 2016-07-08 Since gaining its independence from British colonial rule in 1948, Burma's history has been cursed. The military raped the resource-rich country for fifty years and drove its people to penury. Activists who advocated for democracy were imprisoned, tortured and exiled. Civil society institutions were ground into oblivion. My Conscience: An Exile's Memoir of Burma is U Kyaw Win's compelling account of the bleeding of his homeland by the military. Born during the waning days of colonial rule, he experienced the brutality of Japanese occupation and the heady early days of independence He studied abroad and acquired the skills that his country would need but when the military seized power in 1962 he was made stateless and not allowed to return home for forty years This memoir tells the story of his lifelong efforts to attract international attention to Burma's destruction and to restore freedom to his homeland Win's memoir chronicles the struggles that he and those who fought for their country's freedom faced He recounts the giants in Burma's struggle he met in his pursuit At this historical moment in 2016 it is uncertain whether the elected civilian majority in parliament will take office and if the military will permit a government of the people's choice to rule
