Head Full Of Blue:

A Head Full of Blue Nick Johnstone, 2011-11-03 When I was fourteen I got drunk for the first time Champagne drunk My mouth was stretched in a smile so wide that my jaw hurt The sky had the colours of a bruise When Nick Johnstone got drunk for the first time at the age of fourteen he discovered a cure for the depression and anxiety that had been humming in his head since childhood Over the next ten years he drank to overcome shyness to make the world bearable to get through the days and to get through the nights He also began to cut himself and he began to lie Intelligent sensitive from a loving family neither he nor his countless doctors psychiatrists counsellors and therapists could understand where his disorders came from Then when he was twenty four he was admitted into hospital Stripped of his cure Nick Johnstone painfully began the process of recovery Although love proves to be the strongest cure of all this is a story with no tidy or happy endings Honest and gripping by turns stark and lyrical A HEAD FULL OF BLUE powerfully evokes the often unfathomable psychology and behaviour that drives addiction examining self harm as a coping mechanism rather than a taboo It is an unusual moving and thought provoking memoir

Fade to Blue Michael Sadler, 2018-03-24 Michael Sadler has been tracing the curvatures of his existence through songwriting poetry and photography for more than half his life In his debut collection of verse Fade to Blue Sadler shines a spotlight on the many facets of our lived experiences the inevitable connections that weave through adolescence young adulthood and middle age He captures the contagious energy and extreme despairs of youth the tumultuous realities of adulthood and the agonizing nostalgia of the timelessness of unrequited love While wrestling with the questions of life and how to live it living with purpose and finding meaning in the journey these poems offer an honest exploration of the value of solitude and our pursuit for connection As Sadler writes stirring about identity road trips memories of his father love never reciprocated spirituality and death he illustrates the need for moments of both agony and affection the night and the stars to fully appreciate all that life has to offer

Into The Blue Jack Carnegie, 2022-04-15 The sleepy little town of Sweet Water Alabama provides the backdrop to this tale of adventure Lincoln Beck's avid enthusiasm for his childhood comics of space exploration fuels and guides his dream of becoming an astronaut Supported by his best friend Rose he embarks upon a path to try and fulfil his vision From the idyllic summers of their youth together they commence a journey that will lead them into lifelong bonds with a dopey looking wandering Bassett hound encountered one summer and a squad of young hopefuls from the United States Air Force basic military training class of 58 The journey is not without some rocky roads but true friendship and love light their path as Lincoln strives to accomplish the requirements needed to be considered for the Apollo space programme

The Blue Kingfisher Erica Wright, 2018-10-23 What happens when a master of disguise tries to be herself for once If you're private investigator Kat Stone trouble seems to find you with or without your favorite wig Kat knows she's living on borrowed time waiting for her violent past to catch up with her Still she doesn't expect men to start falling from the sky On a desolate morning in Fort Washington Park Kat discovers the body of her building's French expat maintenance man atop the Jeffrey's Hook Lighthouse. The NYPD is quick to dismiss his death as suicide, another lost soul leaping from the bridge overhead. Kat is less than convinced, especially when she learns about his dangerous side hustle: finding jobs for immigrant members of their community. Her investigation turns up unexpected connections to Manhattan's tony art world, not to mention a host of dark superstitions. When she goes undercover with a deep-sea fishing company, she gets a little too cozy with a colorful cast of characters and a couple of jellyfish. Will she find his killer before her past drags her under? From one of the most acclaimed new mystery writers working today comes a riveting novel of suspense that will have you guessing until the last page is turned.

Blue Plate Special Kate Christensen, 2014-05-06 A delectable memoir about the transformative power of food. Blue Plate Special is a deeply personal narrative in which food becomes the vehicle for exploring a life. Here, novelist Kate Christensen tells her own story from her unorthodox childhood in 1960s Berkeley as the daughter of a legal activist who ruled the house with his fists to her extraordinary success as a PEN Faulkner Award-winning author. Hungry not just for food but for love and a sense of belonging, Christensen writes honestly about her struggle to find the contentment she has always yearned for. A beautifully written account of a knockabout life full of sorrows, pleasures, and of course food, Blue Plate Special is a delicious reading experience.

Beyond the Blue Event Horizon Frederik Pohl, 2013-11-12 Frederik Pohl was on a streak when this Hugo Award finalist novel was published in 1980. Now back in print after an absence of nearly a decade, this unique science fiction novel is as fresh and entertaining as ever. The story begins when the hero of Gateway finances an expedition to a distant alien spaceship that may end famine forever. On the ship, the explorers find a human boy and evidence that reveals a powerful alien civilization is thriving on a transport ship headed right for Earth. At the Publisher's request, this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software (DRM) applied.

30 Shades Of Blue... Celisse "LadiBlue" Sims, 2014-11-17 In every hood, there are always ghetto superstars. Meet Candis, Nia, and Eva, three divas from the hood of Miami, Florida. Candis, the hood chocolate Barbie, ex-stripper, video model, every man's and woman's fantasy. Candy's rule is Money over Everything, and she doesn't care where or who it comes from. Nia, every man's perfect wife, smart, sexy, and always a lady. CEO of one of Miami's newest modeling agencies. Nia, the friend every female should have, loyal and voice of reason. Eva, youngest member of the crew, pretty young and naive, who's trying to find herself and the one thing she never had: a family. On the outside, they have it all: money, bodies, and men, which will give them the world. But even divas have secrets, and between the three, the secrets they hold can get them killed. But by sticking together, having each other's back, they're some bad bitches. But it comes a point when every hood diva outgrows the hood and wants the happily ever after. When one of the divas is taken by surprise when she falls in love again, only to have her heart broken again as she turns back to her hood ways, causing her to go after who causes her pain. Which causes a lot of old and new secrets to come out. With life quickly unraveling, the divas have to choose between secrets, friends, or freedom.

young stock handler named Fenton Pardee has just survived the train wreck that almost destroyed William F Cody's Wild West show. Surveying the train's smoldering ruins and what is left of Cody's company of stunt riders, trick shooters, and stage actors, Fenton realizes that turning the West into a circus to thrill the world is no longer thrilling for him. Salvaging a saddle horse and three pack mules, he heads back into the West seeking the reality of the Montana Rockies. Blue Heaven marks the return of Fenton Pardee, veteran guide and packer who figured so memorably in High Country. Willard Wyman's highly acclaimed first novel. Now Wyman moves back in time, filling in the story of the legendary packer. As he begins his westward journey, Fenton is not nearly as sure of where he is going as of what he wants to leave. Crossing the National Divide, he follows Indian trails and game trails, learning the lay of the land as he moves into a wilderness that comforts him as it draws him ever deeper into it. Stumbling into the camp of Tommy Yellowtail, a Flathead Indian, as determined to remain in these mountains as Fenton is to embrace them, he finally finds his way. Together, the two men discover that showing people what they want to preserve has its own way of keeping it alive. The tale of Fenton and Tommy and of the women they love, one of whom is tragically taken from them, cuts through the romance of the West to offer an earthier reality even as twentieth-century expansion and a looming world war threaten to take it all away.

Behind His Blue Eyes Kaki Warner, 2013-08-06 Award-winning author Kaki Warner gives fans a reason to celebrate with the first in a brand new Western trilogy set in Heartbreak, Colorado, starring an advance man for the railroad and the woman whose trust and heart he longs to win. For fans of Linda Lael Miller and Jodi Thomas. Hoping to escape his past, Ethan Hardesty left a career as an architect and went to work for the railroad. Only two things impede his desire to transform Heartbreak Creek into a thriving town: once again, a vandal bent on stopping the railroad, and the beautiful but hardheaded woman who won't sign over the final right-of-way through the canyon. Audra Pearsall has good reason for not allowing a train to pass within yards of her home, no matter how persuasive the handsome Mr. Hardesty can be. But when vandalism escalates to murder and fear stalks the canyon, Audra doesn't know who to turn to until the man she thought was her friend proves to be an enemy and the man she wouldn't allow herself to trust becomes her reluctant hero.

House of the Blue Lilacs Kelly Kathryn Griffin, 2002 A family feud divides the Vanneste and Calloway families of Traverse City, Michigan. Kevin Thorpe hears the rumors of broken engagements, untimely deaths, and a mysterious explosion. Family circumstances force young Kevin to stay at Raven Hill, the estate of Cleary Calloway. Curiosity leads Kevin to the mystery behind the feud that is found in a locked box.

Once in a Blue Moon Simon R. Green, 2015-12-16 One more. Once upon a time, no one knows the hero business like Hawk and Fisher. That's why they started the Hawk and Fisher Memorial Academy to share their skills with the next generation of heroes. Decades later, their Hero Academy is the Dutchy of Lancre's most profitable tourist attraction, its greatest pride, and now its biggest problem. During auditions for the next class of students, an assassin ambushes Hawk and Fisher, setting off a powerful chain of events that could destroy the Forest Kingdom. For the Blue Moon rises once more, and with it a familiar and formidable foe that Hawk and Fisher thought they d never see again the Demon Prince Now Hawk and Fisher must embark on one final quest Joining forces with their children they ll reunite with old friends visit legendary lands and battle infamous villains to stop the Demon Prince once and for all Hanging in the balance is the future of their bloodline the kingdom and the world Once in a Blue Moon is the compelling conclusion to New York Times bestselling author Simon R Green s beloved The Forest Kingdom series Spies in the Blue Smoke G.
