that are now world famous This engrossing and well documented book explores the architecture topography and preservation of New Harmony during both periods and addresses troubling questions about the origin production and meaning of the town s modern structures landscapes and gardens It analyzes how these were preserved recognizing the funding that has made New Harmony so vital and details the elaborate ways in which the town remains an ongoing experiment in defining the role of patronage in historic preservation An important reappraisal of postwar American architecture from a rural perspective Avant Garde in the Cornfields presents provocative ideas about how history is interpreted through design and historic preservation and about how the extraordinary past and present of New Harmony continue to thrive today Contributors William R Crout Harvard U Stephen Fox Rice U Christine Gorby Pennsylvania State U Cammie McAtee Harvard U Nancy Mangum McCaslin Kenneth A Schuette Jr Purdue U Ralph Schwarz Paul Tillich

Photofascism Vanessa Rocco, 2020-11-26 Photography and fascism in interwar Europe developed into a highly toxic and combustible formula Particularly in concert with aggressive display techniques the European fascists were utterly convinced of their ability to use the medium of photography to manufacture consent among their publics Unfortunately as we know in hindsight they succeeded Other dictatorial regimes in the 1930s harnessed this powerful combination of photography and exhibitions for their own odious purposes But this book for the first time focuses on the particularly consequential dialectic between Germany and Italy in the early to mid 1930s and within each of those countries vis vis display culture The 1930s provides a potent case study for every generation and it is as urgent as ever in our global political environment to deeply understand the central role of visual imagery in what transpired Photofascism demonstrates precisely how dictatorial regimes use photographic mass media methodically and in combination with display to persuade the public with often times highly destructive even catastrophic results

Exhibiting the Foreign on U.S. Soil Kathleen Berrin, 2021-07-21 The uneasy relationship between the arts US art museums and the federal government has not been thoroughly explored by scholars This book focuses on the development of national diplomacy exhibitions during World War II and the early Cold War and explains how the War provided the government with an impetus to create a national arts policy It discusses how national diplomacy exhibitions on US soil were deployed as persuasive tools to influence public opinion to reconcile discrepancies between high art and democracy and to resolve America's lagging art status and difficulties with the foreign The type of soft diplomacy that art museums provide by initiating national diplomacy exhibitions has not received emphasis in the scholarly community and art museums have essentially been ignored in cultural studies of the early Cold War Scholarly analysis of museum exhibitions in the last quarter of the 20th century is now a popular topic but investigations of exhibitions between 1939-1960 have been thin By scrutinizing major exhibitions during those formative years this book takes a new perspective and examines the foundational development of the so-called blockbuster exhibition stimulated by World War II The book will interest readers in visual studies history museums cultural affairs government and international diplomacy

Subversion and Surrealism in the Art of Honoré Sharrer M. Melissa Wolfe, Sarah Burns, Robert Cozzolino, Michael Lobel, Adam Desmond Zagorin, 2017-01-01 This book offers the first critical reassessment of an artist whose mature oeuvre constitutes a rich and often disquieting critique that is equal parts wit seduction and bite Honoré Sharrer 1920-2009 was a major figure in the years surrounding World War II though her commitment to leftist ideals and an alternate trajectory of surrealism put her at increasing odds with the political and artistic climate of the time Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag, 2013-10-28 First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books: A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3,395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition

Engineered to Sell Jan L. Logemann, 2019-11-20 The mid-twentieth century marketing world influenced nearly every aspect of American culture music literature politics economics consumerism race relations gender and more In Engineered to Sell Jan L. Logemann traces the transnational careers of consumer engineers in advertising market research and commercial design who transformed capitalism from the 1930s through the 1960s He argues that the history of marketing consumer goods is not a story of American exceptionalism Instead the careers of immigrants point to the limits of the Americanization paradigm Logemann explains the rise of a dynamic world of goods and examines how and why consumer engineering was shaped by transatlantic exchanges From Austrian psychologists and little-known social scientists to the illustrious Bauhaus artists the emigrants at the center of this story illustrate the vibrant cultural and commercial connections between metropolitan centers Vienna and New York Paris and Chicago Berlin and San Francisco

By focusing on the transnational lives of emigr consumer researchers marketers and designers Engineered to Sell details the processes of cultural translation and adaptation that mark both the midcentury transformation of American marketing and the subsequent European shift to American consumer capitalism
