John Brannigan

Literature Culture And Society:

Literature, Culture and Society Andrew Milner, 2005 As cultural studies has grown from its origins on the margins of literary studies it has tended to discard both literature and sociology in favour of the semiotics of popular culture Literature Culture and Society makes a determined attempt to re establish the connections between literary studies cultural studies and sociology Arguing against both literary humanism and sociological relativism it provides a critical overview of theoretical approaches to textual analysis from hermeneutics to postmodernism and presents a substantive account of the capitalist literary mode of production This second edition has been fully revised and rewritten with new sections including the impact of psychoanalysis and post structuralism and the recent work of academics such as Franco Moretti New case studies have been added in order to examine the intertextual connections between Genesis Milton's Paradise Lost Frankenstein in Mary Shelley's original and also in several film versions Karel Capek's R U R Fritz Lang's Metropolis Ridley Scott's Blade Runner The X Files and Buffy the Vampire Slaver Literature, Culture and Society Andrew Milner, 2017-09-19 As cultural studies has grown from its origins on the margins of literary studies it has tended to discard both literature and sociology in favour of the semiotics of popular culture Literature Culture and Society makes a determined attempt to re establish the connections between literary studies cultural studies and sociology Arguing against both literary humanism and sociological relativism it provides a critical overview of theoretical approaches to textual analysis from hermeneutics to postmodernism and presents a substantive account of the capitalist literary mode of production This second edition has been fully revised and rewritten with new sections including the impact of psychoanalysis and post structuralism and the recent work of academics such as Franco Moretti New case studies have been added in order to examine the intertextual connections between Genesis Milton's Paradise Lost Frankenstein in Mary Shelley's original and also in several film versions Karel Capek s R U R Fritz Lang s Metropolis Ridley Scott s Blade Runner The X Files and Buffy the Vampire Slayer Literature. Culture, and Society Andrew Milner, 1996-07 Amidst continuing debates about the literary canon Literature Culture and Society poses a revealing question if academics find it valuable and stimulating to discuss texts ranging from Genesis to Bladerunner in their leisure time why do they act as if this is sacrosanct in their formal work In this well argued and refreshing discussion of the history and importance of literary criticism Milner embraces a reality that many in the academy still fear that cultural studies is alive and it s here to stay Andrew Milner begins with an introduction to the field of cultural studies and its parent disciplines of English literature and sociology He reviews the defining terms and the theoretical traditions in a manner that is sophisticated but accessible He discusses just how and why cultural studies evolved and what it has to offer our appraisal of all texts be they old or new print or film Milner eschews both cultural populism and literary elitism in favor of a criticism that is more concerned with value than with exclusion The author concludes this significant and insightful book with a demonstration of his theories tying together a group of narratives ranging from Paradise Lost to the latest Frankenstein films Literature Culture and Society cogently examines the question of scholarship and forcefully demonstrates that rigorous academic inquiry need not be reserved for dust covered texts alone The Essays of Chitta Ranjan Das on Literature, Culture, and Society Ananta Kumar Giri, Ivan Marguez, 2020-03-02 This volume brings together the essays of Chitta Ranjan Das 1923 2011 a creative experimenter and writer on literature culture life and the human condition It presents a different vision and version of the post colonial imagination and social and literary criticism which is rooted in soil soul and cosmos While a majority of post colonial discourse is still predominantly metropolitan giving us very little discussion on creative endeavours in different language spaces of India and the world this book presents radical new pathways and creative collaborations which break conventional boundaries between the periphery and the centre literature and life mother languages and metropolitan languages and East and West It offers a new archaeology of knowledge as a regenerative archaeology of life where knowledge action and devotion come together for new explorations and transformations It broadens and deepens our universe of discourse on literature philosophy and world transformations and is a monumental contribution to alternative imagination and cosmopolitan experimentation Food and Women in Italian Literature, Culture and Society Claudia Bernardi, Francesca Calamita, Daniele De Feo, 2020-11-12 This book explores how women s relationship with food has been represented in Italian literature cinema scientific writings and other forms of cultural expression from the 19th century to the present Italian women have often been portrayed cooking and serving meals to others while denying themselves the pleasure of the table The collection presents a comprehensive understanding of the symbolic meanings associated with food and of the way these intersect with Italian women's socio cultural history and the feminist movement From case studies on Sophia Loren and Elena Ferrante to analyses of cookbooks by Italian chefs each chapter examines the unique contribution Italian culture has made to perceiving and portraying women in a specific relation to food addressing issues of gender identity and politics of the body Voglio morire! Suicide in Italian Literature, Culture, and Society 1789-1919 Paolo L. Bernardini, Anita Virga, 2014-09-01 The theme of suicide was of paramount importance in Italy in the long nineteenth century from the French revolution to the outbreak of World War I A number of writers intellectuals politicians and artists wrote about suicide and a very high number of people killed themselves for several reasons There were suicides for love and for homeland suicides for despair and suicides for ennui In Italy once a very traditional Catholic country where suicide was very uncommon and rarely treated as a subject of moral theology or literature it suddenly became extremely widespread This book provides the first interdisciplinary account of this phenomenon taken from several angles including literature the arts politics society and philosophy as well as sociology Its authors rank among the best international specialists on suicide and the figures dealt with include major intellectuals and writers such as Ugo Foscolo Emilio Salgari Giuseppe Pellizza da Volpedo Giacomo Leopardi and Carlo Michelstaedter Courtly Literature International Courtly Literature Society, Congress, 1990-01-01 The International Courtly Literature Society aims to promote the study of courtly literature primarily but not exclusively of medieval Europe The 45 articles selected here from the papers presented at the 5th Congress center around three themes rhetoric and courtly literature the audience of courtly literature and courtly literature in a comparative perspective There are contributions by specialists in Old French Literature on such diverse topics as Adenet le Roi Rene d Anjou Le Bel Inconnu and 15th century prose chronicles by Provencalists on the eternal topic of courtly love by Anglicists on Chaucer Henryson Malory and others by Germanists on Heinrich von Morungen der Schwanritter and Walther von der Vogelweide by Hispanists on La Celestina and the Historia Troiana there are also articles on Italian Dutch and Scandinavian literature and two relating to Persian and Arabic courtly texts Literature, Culture and Society in Postwar England John Brannigan, 2002 Literature, Culture, and Society in the Modern Age, 1991

Writing in Society Raymond Williams, 1983 Raymond Williams s work was always concerned with the relation between culture and society This book focuses on specific texts and authors exploring the historical and cultural sources of their particular forms of writing In it Williams examines dramatic form and language in Racine and Shakespeare the politics of fiction in the English Jacobin novel David Hume and Charles Dickens and the changing characteristics of English prose Robert Tressell The Ragged Trousered Philanthropists and the role of region and class in the English novel Also included are Williams s reflections on the rise of English studies on their crisis as the literary traditions of Cambridge University were beset by the structuralist controversy and on the wider implications of this redefinition of the critical field

Contemporary Cultural Studies Richard Hoggart, 1969 Refiguring Spain Marsha Kinder, 1997 In Refiguring Spain Marsha Kinder has gathered a collection of new essays that explore the central role played by film television newspapers and art museums in redefining Spain's national cultural identity and its position in the world economy during the post Franco era By emphasizing issues of historical recuperation gender and sexuality and the marketing of Spain's peaceful political transformation the contributors demonstrate that Spanish cinema and other forms of Spanish media culture created new national stereotypes and strengthened the nation s place in the global market and on the global stage These essays consider a diverse array of texts ranging from recent films by Almod var Saura Erice Mir Bigas Luna Guti rrez Arag n and Eloy de la Iglesia to media coverage of the 1993 elections Francoist cinema and other popular media are examined in light of strategies used to redefine Spain s cultural identity The importance of the documentary the appropriation of Hollywood film and the significance of gender and sexuality in Spanish cinema are also discussed as is the discourse of the Spanish media star whether involving film celebrities like Rita Hayworth and Antonio Banderas or historical figures such as Cervantes The volume concludes with an investigation of larger issues of government policy in relation to film and media including a discussion of the financing of Spanish cinema and an exploration of the political dynamics of regional television and art museums Drawing on a wide range of critical discourses including feminist postcolonial and queer theory political economy cultural history and museum studies Refiguring Spain is the first comprehensive anthology on Spanish cinema in the English

Mind and Society J.P.S. Uberoi,2019-06-28 One of the country s most eminent sociologists J P S Uberoi inaugurated a unique approach in the study of Indian sociology and social anthropology He makes a case for a form of independent Indian sociology in relation to the principal philosophies and sociological theories of the Western world by adopting Gandhi s plea for swaraj in thought This volume brings together eighteen papers by Uberoi which highlight his pioneering thought Originally written between 1968 and 2013 these papers are divided thematically into three groups The first examines the eternal political war of imperialism versus nationalism as it related to the academic pursuit of knowledge in the university

The second group begins with questions of social science and philosophy and concludes by discussing the working lives of the industrial worker in the West and the household farmer in the East The third group explores the project of finding grounds for a concept of a plural vernacular Indian modernity The volume represents an emphatic statement by the author that the time has come for India to bid for its place in the universal free world of the intellect Body of Vision Michael Sinding,2014-02-05 In Body of Vision Michael Sinding connects Northrop Frye s groundbreaking contributions to our understanding of the human imagination with cognitive poetics the cutting edge school of literary criticism that applies the principles of cognitive science to the interpretation of literary texts and contexts Sinding undertakes this task through analyses of the interplay of metaphoric and narrative schemas in several forms of cultural mythology Sinding identifies the profound connections between cognitive views of language literature and culture and Frye s views by exploring three related aspects of Frye s work meaning and thought culture and society and literary history He investigates these connections through detailed studies of major cultural texts including Dante s Divine Comedy Hobbes Leviathan Rousseau s Social Contract and Milton s Lycidas By linking Frye s classic studies to exciting recent approaches in the humanities and the cognitive revolution of the past few decades Body of Vision casts Frye s achievements in a fascinating new light
