Literatuur Als Systeem Literatuur Als Verhaal:

The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism: Volume 9, Twentieth-Century Historical, Philosophical and Psychological Perspectives George Alexander Kennedy, Christa Knellwolf, 1989 This ninth volume in The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism presents a wide ranging survey of developments in literary criticism and theory during the last century Drawing on the combined expertise of a large team of specialist scholars it offers an authoritative account of the various movements of thought that have made the late twentieth century such a richly productive period in the history of criticism The aim has been to cover developments which have had greatest impact on the academic study of literature along with background chapters that place those movements in a broader intellectual national and socio cultural perspective In comparison with Volumes Seven and Eight also devoted to twentieth century developments there is marked emphasis on the rethinking of historical and philosophical approaches which have emerged especially during the past two decades as among the most challenging areas of debate Literary Translation in Periodicals Laura Fólca, Diana Roig-Sanz, Stefania Caristia, 2020-12-10 While translation history literary translation and periodical publications have been extensively analyzed within the fields of Translation Studies Comparative Literature and Communication Sciences the relationship between these three topics remains underexplored Literary Translation in Periodicals argues that there is a pressing need for an analytical focus on translation in periodicals a collaborative network of researchers and a transnational and interdisciplinary approach The book pursues two goals 1 to highlight the innovative theoretical and methodological issues intrinsic to analyzing literary translation in periodical publications on a small and large scale and 2 to contribute to a developing field by providing several case studies on translation in periodicals over a wide range of areas and periods Europe Latin America and Asia in the 19th and 20th centuries that go beyond the more traditional focus on national and European periodicals and translations Combining qualitative and quantitative methods of analysis as well as hermeneutical and sociological approaches this book reviews conceptual and methodological tools and proposes innovative techniques such as social network analysis big data and large scale analysis for tracing the history and evolution of literary translation in periodical publications Dynamics of Neo-Latin and the Vernacular , 2014-09-18 Dynamics of Neo Latin and the Vernacular offers a collection of studies that deal with the cultural exchange between Neo Latin and the vernacular and with the very cultural mobility that allowed for the successful development of Renaissance bilingual culture Studying a variety of multilingual issues of language and poetics of translation and transfer its authors interpret Renaissance cross cultural contact as a radically dynamic ever shifting process of making cultural meaning With renewed attention for suitable theoretical and methodological frames of reference Dynamics of Neo Latin and the Vernacular firmly resists literary history's temptation to pin down the Early Modern relationship between languages literatures and cultures in favour of stressing the sheer variety and variability of that relationship itself Contributors are Jan Bloemendal Ingrid De Smet Annet den Haan Tom Deneire Beate Hintzen David

Kromhout Bettina Noak Ingrid Rowland Johanna Svensson Harm Jan van Dam Guillaume van Gemert Eva van Hooijdonk and mm Y ksel Translation in Systems Theo Hermans, 2014-04-08 The notion of systems has helped revolutionize translation studies since the 1970s As a key part of many descriptive approaches it has broken with the prescriptive focus on what translation should be encouraging researchers to ask what translation does in specific cultural settings From his privileged position as a direct participant in these developments Theo Hermans explains how contemporary descriptive approaches came about what the basic ideas were and how those ideas have evolved over time His discussion addresses the fundamental problems of translation norms equivalence polysystems and social systems covering not only the work of Lev Holmes Even Zohar Toury Lefevere Lambert Van Leuven Zwart Dhulst and others but also giving special attention to recent contributions derived from Pierre Bourdieu and Niklas Luhmann An added focus on practical questions of how to investigate translation problems of definition description assessment of readerships etc makes this book essential reading for graduate students and indeed any researchers in the field Hermans account of descriptive translation studies is both informed and critical At the same time he demonstrates the strength of the basic concepts which have shown considerable vitality in their evolution and adaptation to the debates of the present day History in Dutch Studies Robert B. The Jewish American Novel Philippe Codde, 2007 Philippe Codde provides a comparative cultural analysis of the unprecedented success of the Jewish novel in the postwar United States by situating the process and event in the context of three closely related American cultural movements the popularity in the US of French philosophical and literary existentialism the increasing visibility of the Holocaust in US American life and the advent of radical theology Codde argues that the literary repertoire of the postwar Jewish novel consists of an amalgam of these cultural elements that were making their mark in the political religious and philosophical systems of the United States at the time and that this explains in part the Jewish novel's sweeping success in the American literary system

Cultural Repertoires G. J. Dorleijn, Herman L. J.
