Little Karoo:

Garden Route and Little Karoo Leon Nell, 2013-10-03 A book that is a joy to pick up and page through one that will always take me back to where I've been. Such is the intention behind this book: a description of the lush rainforest area of the Garden Route and the paradox of its proximity with the semi-desert of the Little Karoo. The author explores key areas of the coastal stretch between Mossel Bay and Storms River and of the broad valley the Little Karoo on the other side of the Outeniqua and Tsitsikama mountains. Both regions are home to a great variety of plants and animals and are opened up and linked by roads built with great skill and massive effort through mountain passes and across rivers. Thousands visit these spectacular areas heading for the sea or in the opposite direction the Klein Karoo, Nasionale Kunstefees and the Cango Caves. This book will give them a glimpse of the wild and wonderful life along the way in a land steeped in history and natural diversity. Taste the Little Karoo Beate Joubert, 2015-11-21 The Little Karoo is known for its beautiful landscapes, food traditions and warm hospitable people. In Taste the Little Karoo Beate Joubert captures the essence of this region and its people through her cooking which puts a quirky twist on classic or traditional dishes. The recipes cover snacks, side dishes, breads, soups, salads, hearty meat dishes and braai recipes as well as delicious desserts and sweet treats. There are also recipes for the pantry featuring chutneys, pesto and tapenade. The recipes and beautiful photographs will inspire readers to be creative in the kitchen whether they are cooking for family or entertaining guests. The Little Karoo Jose Burman, 1981 A History of South African Literature Christopher Heywood, 2004-11-18 This book is a critical study of South African literature from colonial and pre-colonial times onwards. Christopher Heywood discusses selected poems, plays and prose works in five literary traditions: Khoisan, Nguni, Sotho, Afrikaans, English and Indian. The discussion includes over 100 authors and selected works including poets from Mqhayi, Marais and Campbell to Butler, Serote and Krog; theatre writers from Boniface and Black to Fugard and Mda; and fiction writers from Schreiner and Plaatje to Bessie Head and the Nobel prizewinners Gordimer and Coetzee. The literature is explored in the setting of crises leading to the formation of modern South Africa, notably the rise and fall of the Emperor Shaka's Zulu kingdom, the Colenso crisis, industrialisation, the colonial and post-colonial wars of 1899, 1914 and 1939, and the dissolution of apartheid society. In Heywood's study South African literature emerges as among the great literatures of the modern world. Shadows Harold Scheub, 2009 selected not only African oral and written stories but also tales from around the world.
