Love's Melody Natasha Wilde, 2011-06-01 Description The mental health issue related to this book is bipolar disorder This illness includes both ends of the spectrum which is mania at the one end and clinical depression at the other At its worst it is debilitating involving long stays in a psychiatric hospital in order for doctors to discover the appropriate medication thus balancing out the brain chemistry so that the patient can function in a reasonable manner in the outside world I sincerely think bipolar disorder must be the most serious of the mental illnesses because it is so violently distressing for the patient LOVE s MELODY is a collection of poetry and pieces of prose taking us through the 1990 s on a roller coaster of extreme mental highs and lows This writing depicts the power of the human spirit to conquer the most impossible of situations in life and I trust give other sufferers of this dreadful disease some kind of hope About the Author Natasha Wilde was born in Chester in 1949 After moving down south she attended St Albans Girls Grammar School where she obtained eight O levels and two A levels She won a scholarship to St Martin s School of Art in London studying Graphic Design specialising in Film Animation When she was just half way through her Diploma course she was offered a job with Halas and Bachelor animation company the largest in the country But alas that never happened She contracted bipolar disorder at the age of twenty always maintaining there was a strong possibility she had been spiked with the hallucinatory drug L S D She remembers experiencing a hellish and terrifying time walking the streets of London totally lost hearing voices hallucinating all of her senses heightened This episode landed her in a scary hospital in Friern Barnet which had been an asylum in Victorian times Natasha was disposed of in a newer building for less serious cases The hospital has since been closed down under Margaret Thatcher s orders the poor occupants let loose spilling out into the community to somehow make their way Throughout her twenties Natasha was in and out of the local hospital where doctors experimented with various drugs and twice she received E C T ie Electro Convulsive Therapy She was fortunate in that this worked well bringing her down from her impossible fantasy world bang smack into reality which was a trifle depressing In between bouts of illness the psychotic highs and the clinical lows she took on menial work and then decided to move up to Leeds with her current Yorkshire boyfriend Here she joined an agency and became self employed as an Exotic Dancer which she loved No stigma was attached regarding her illness no forms to fill in no questions asked She had a good figure and could move She danced in clubs pubs working mens clubs and sometimes rather dicey illegal drinking dens known as shabims While living in Leeds she met her husband to be who was originally from Scotand and although her demoms were determined to drive her crazy again looking back she guesses her husband rather saved her from a fate worse than death She moved back to Hertfordshire two years later in the mid seventies and after another spell in hospital joined several agencies and began dancing again She married in 1980 and gave birth to a daughter in 1981 Her pregnancy was hell mentally and a major depression set in Immediately after giving birth she became psychotic and this was treated She was married for ten years then divorced her husband on the grounds of unreasonable behaviour During her marriage she had kept fairly well but the stress from the divorce encouraged her illness to return in its psychotic form landing her bang smack on Warren Ward for the umpteenth time Her book Love s Melody takes off from here Much of it was written in Creative Writing Therapy at her local hospital Natasha now has an adorable granddaughter and after many years th they'll have to spend more time together to make their relationship look real. With each fake date though, Emily realizes that Mark's not quite what she assumed and maybe that argyle sweater isn't so ugly after all.

Love Lies Deep Yuwanda Black,

PREFACE Sometimes baby love lies deep a man gets buried in your soul and there ain't no getting him out. Her mother had said that to her once. The words haunted her as she thought about Satchel. He'd been the one to end their relationship over seven years ago so what did he want now? And what did he mean he wouldn't stay away from her that he'd never wanted to? She had fought hard to get over Satchel and one thing she knew for sure there was no way she was letting him back in not after the way he'd crushed her all those years ago. She couldn't live through that kind of pain again. No human could endure that twice in a lifetime. And she knew just how to keep him away. Only could she go through with it. Or would the love that had lain so deeply within her for him resurface leading to heartbreak all over again?

Three years earlier. Sometimes baby love lies deep a man gets buried in your soul and there ain't no getting him out. Celia said to her daughter. Have you ever felt that way about a man, mama? Yes, once. Who, Daddy? Nylah asked. No, honey. I loved your father but a bit before I met him there was someone else. You mean you loved another man more than you loved daddy? Nylah queried incredulously. She'd never even imagined her mother with another man. Nylah. I had a life before your father, her mother said simply. I was quite the looker, you know. I had a few suitors before your father settled me down. But a woman doesn't have to tell all her secrets. In fact, there are some things she never tells another soul. That's just the way of a woman. Well, why haven't you ever told me any of this before? Did daddy know? You mean did he know if I dated other men before he came along? Of course he did. Celia answered before Nylah could confirm or deny her question. Why do you think he was so quick to propose? He did so after three weeks of courting me, you know. Nylah smiled and shook her head. She'd heard the story many times. It was ironic she thought. She'd dated a man for three almost four years and instead of proposing he'd given her her walking papers. Her mother on the other hand had gotten a marriage proposal in three weeks. Nylah often wondered about women like her mother. What did they possess that a man couldn't resist? What secret did they have? And how did it draw a man into a lifetime commitment so quickly? Whatever special power or secret or trait it was she hadn't inherited it. In fact it was just the opposite. She seemed to be able to repel suitors with very little effort. So who was he, this other man? Why didn't you marry him? What happened between you all? Nylah asked still flabbergasted that her mother had never even breathed a single word about someone who had obviously meant a great deal to her. That's a story for another day and another time. But I do know of a couple who had that kind of love you're carrying around in you for Satchel. Your grandparents, your father's mama and daddy. I've never seen two people more in love. I think that's why your father was able to love me so and why I was so devoted to him. He had the best example of what love was supposed to look and feel like and I did my best to be the kind of wife his mother was because lord knows my parents were a disaster. If there were two people who didn't belong together it was my mother and father. Nylah hadn't known her mother's parents. But she smiled thinking back on the grandparents she did know, her father's.

parents She d witnessed the love flow between them as effortlessly as waves crashing against an ocean shore It was a rare site to see Even as a child Nylah knew that there was something special about their union They fit like a pair of ultra soft leather gloves molded to your hands that s how closely and beautifully they melded into each other I want that mama I want that so bad Nylah said her throat convulsing as she swallowed the pain threatening to engulf her There s someone out there for you honey You just have to trust that I don t want someone mama I want the one I want what grandma and grandpa had What if I ve found the one What if it was Satchel What if I never feel for another man the way I feel for him It s been over a year and I haven t even mustered up enough interest to go on one date Give it time honey It ll be alright The right man will come along You will love again Celia placed her hand on her daughter s back and rubbed it as they sat on the front porch of the little craftsman style bungalow the Simmons had called home for four decades It was the home Nylah had grown up in Her mother had nursed her through all of her teenaged heartbreaks here They d had many talks right on the same concrete steps they sat on now She wasn t sure if it was fitting or pitiful that some twenty years later her mother was still nursing her through heartbreaks Nylah buried her face in her hands and exhaled heavily But will I love again like that mama she said tears silently coursing down her cheeks Will I love like that she repeated
