giving a unique insight into the origins and development of Browning's art. Annotations and headnotes in keeping with the traditions of Longman Annotated English Poets are full and informative and provide details of composition, publication sources and contemporary reception. Volumes one 1826-1840 and two 1841-1846 presented the poems from his Browning's early years while volume three 1847-61 covered the period of his marriage to Elizabeth Barrett and residence in Italy. Volume four 1862-71 deals with the decade following Elizabeth's death and Browning's return to England. These years saw the appearance of some of his most significant work and a steady rise in his critical reputation. In Dramatis Personae 1864 Browning uses his characteristic dramatic mode to expose predicaments of thought and feeling in characters ranging from Shakespeare's Caliban to the cheating medium Mr Sludge. Other poems dramatize Browning's complicated feelings about the deceptions and self-deceptions of romantic love. Balaustion's Adventure 1871 is an engaging reworking of Euripides' Alcestris whose theme the resurrection of a beloved lost wife has poignant personal resonance for Browning while Prince Hohenstiel-Schwangau published in the same year offers a thinly veiled account of the life and actions of Napoleon III the recently deposed Emperor of France over whom Browning and Elizabeth had quarrelled. In these two long poems Browning can be seen engaged in the dialogue with Elizabeth that was to shape much of his work during the remainder of his writing life.

Tsiang, 2020-03-17. Traditionally the Chinese body was approached as a totality and explained by sweeping comparisons of the differences that distinguished Chinese examples from their Western counterparts Recently scholars have argued that we must look at particular examples of Chinese images of the body and explore their intrinsic conceptual complexity and historical specificity The twelve contributors to this volume adopt a middle position They agree that Chinese images are conditioned by indigenous traditions and dynamics of social interaction but they seek to explain a general Chinese body and face by charting multiple specific bodies and faces All of the chapters are historical case studies and investigate particular images such as Han dynasty tomb figurines Buddhist texts and illustrations pictures of deprivation illness deformity and ghosts clothing formal portraiture and modern photographs and films From the diversity of art forms and historical periods studied there emerges a more complex picture of ways that the visual culture of the body and face in China has served to depict the living memorialize the dead and present the unrepresentable in art
