Murunga,Duncan Okello,Anders Sjogren,2014-12-11 The aftermath of recent Kenyan elections has been marred by violence and an apparent crisis in democratic governance with the negotiated settlement resulting from the 2007 election bringing into sharp focus longstanding problems of state and society The broader reform process has involved electoral judicial and security sector reforms among others which in turn revolve around constitutional reforms Written by a gathering of eminent specialists this highly original volume interrogates the roots and impact of the 2010 constitution It explains why reforms were blocked in the past but were successful this time around and explores the scope for their implementation in the face of continued resistance by powerful groups In doing so the book demonstrates that the Kenyan experience carries significance well past its borders speaking to debates surrounding social justice and national cohesion across the African continent and beyond Modernism and Empire Howard J. Booth, Nigel Rigby, 2000-06-10 This is the first book to explore the fascinating relationship between literary Modernism and Empire The book seeks to begin the task of exploring in a sustained way the relations between the artistic movement and colonialism The essays range over subjects and figures such as Ireland Africa Joyce Pound Townsend Warner Lawrence and Forster Kipling Woolf and Jean Rhys Kenya Dalvan M. Coger, 1996 At the beginning of the century Kenya was regarded as little more than a corridor to Uganda since that time however it has made a spectacular success of its social and economic development Indeed since gaining its independence in 1963 this ethnically divided nation has remained an island of relative political stability amidst its East African neighbours This fully revised volume contains substantial literature on the indigenous population as well as material about the residents and citizens of European and Asian origins

Children and AIDS Margaret Lombe, Alex Ochumbo, 2017-05-08 The disproportional loss of individuals to HIV AIDS in their most productive years raises concerns over the welfare of surviving members of affected families and communities One consequence of the rapid increase in adult mortality is the rise in the proportion of children who are orphaned Sub Saharan Africa accounts for about 90 percent of these Mainly due to the staggering toll of HIV AIDS research effort has focused on treatment and prevention Children have received attention primarily in relation to mother to child transmission and paediatric AIDS These issues are important and compelling but fail to capture the whole story the unprecedented surge in the number of children made vulnerable by HIV AIDS In this book we reflect on the plight of children classified as vulnerable review interventions implemented to improve their welfare and grapple with the concept of vulnerability as it relates to human rights and the African child Trade Union Studies in the UK and Kenya Nigel Flanagan, 2024-07-02 Nigel Flanagan brings a distinct perspective to the problems of trade union organising In this account he draws on his own experiences as an activist shop steward strike organiser and working for the global union UNI The book has been very well received and after six impressions this revised and enlarged edition is also being published in a Kenyan version with our partners Vita Books Nick Wright Nigel Flanagan's Our Trade Unions What Comes Next was first published in Britain in early 2023 at the height of the country's inflationary crisis when basic food costs were increasing by up to 20 per cent and energy by far more Workers were fighting through their trade unions to protect their living standards and local services from the biggest attack for a century This new Kenyan edition of Flanagan's book is therefore doubly welcome because it provides real life substance to these links The chapters from Shiraz Durrani himself a veteran of these struggles reveal how far the movements of resistance to colonial rule were rooted in and largely sprang from the trade union movement in the 1920s and 30s The importance of the contribution from Shiraz Durrani is that he places this resistance squarely in the special circumstances required for capitalist exploitation to take place in Kenya Resistance demands mass based political trade unions This is why Kenya's experience and that of other African nations is of relevance not just to workers in Africa but those who wish to rebuild the workers movement internationally But this process must be political It cannot be simply that of organising As Shiraz Durrani stresses without a vision of achieving equality and justice unions remain merely to make capitalism more acceptable to workers John Foster THE BROWN SKIN SCAR FACE JOSHUA LEVI BROWN,2014-09-30 This book will take you on a fast truly exciting ride From kingpins of prison to the streets of New York LA Atlanta and Chicago Four kings are taking over their cities with money and murder Their names are notorious in the streets One super fine female Micki Brown is trying to take them all down one by one However only the real brown skin scar face will do anything to be the last man standing Will it be 3Pac Rosco Trap or Bama G Beyond Mediation Daniel Njoroge Karanja,2020-09-29 This book offers narrative analysis theory as a vehicle to understand indigenous mediation The conceptual basis for this manuscript is the undisputed urgent need to understand mediation from a conflict transformation perspective highlighting the nexus between indigenous justice forgiveness and trauma healing This book is based on the assumptions that local communities have the tools capabilities that they need to build stable and enduring peaceful co existence These capacities have been weakened by the political elite and bankrupt corrupt leadership approaches that must be rejected through empowerment and rigorous mediation brigades at the local level The last chapter in the manuscript proposes a research center for indigenous justice forgiveness and trauma healing in East Africa that will guarantee decades of scholarship and research around this subject in East Africa and beyond The face of the earth Eduard Suess,1909
