Facilitating Community Change Donald R. Fessler, 1976 Army Organizational Effectiveness Journal, 1982
OE Communiqué, 1982 Community Policing Victor E. Kappeler, Larry K. Gaines, 2010-06-07 This text explores community policing a philosophy and an organizational strategy that expands the traditional police mandate It broadens the focus of fighting crime to include solving community problems urging police to form a partnership with the people in the community so average citizens can contribute to the police process in exchange for their support and participation Now includes a chapter on Community Crime Prevention Profiles feature community policing programs in various cities and problem solving case studies cover special topics Includes The Ten Principles of Community Policing Includes ten principles of community policing profiles in community policing and problem solving case studies Adult Learners, Adult Education And The Community Brookfield, Stephen, 1984-06-01 Adults are continually learning outside of conventional education frameworks acquiring new skills and knowledge in a range of community settings Stephen Brookfield explores the extent and quality of this informal independent learning and the ways in which adult educators can work with independent adult learners to support and enhance their learning Prevention Plus II, 1994 Designed to help program planners communities and others to develop an effective and comprehensive systems approach to fighting the war against alcohol and other drug use among youth in their communities Explains how individual interpersonal and environmental situations and conditions contribute to alcohol and other drug use Provides strategies for combating each of these forces Case studies of model communities around the country are described Includes worksheets planning charts and other aids Working with Groups Trevor Tyson, 1998 Examines the field of small group dynamics focusing on the behaviour and processes typical of management planning decision making and learning groups For this second edition the key concepts approach has been retained OE Communiqué, 1981 Prevention Plus, 1989 Prevention Plus II Sharon K. Amatetti, 1989 The Diversity Paradox J. Jacob Jenkins, 2013-11-22 In recent years a sense of community has declined throughout the United States This trend is especially evident among younger generations whether measured by civic participation political involvement or religious affiliation Central Community Church an intercultural congregation located in Tampa Bay's urban corridor has responded to this trend by promoting community as an organizational metaphor The Diversity Paradox Seeking Community in an Intercultural Church explores the ways in which that metaphor was co constructed by Central Community's racially ethnically diverse leaders and members as well as limitations and tensions that emerged from those efforts After surveying the three prevailing views of community community as physical space community as disembodied concept and community as communicative process Jenkins builds upon four years of ethnographic fieldwork in order to fully understand this community He concludes by introducing an original theoretical concept called the diversity paradox an emphasis placed upon one potential understanding of diversity which paradoxically limits opportunities for alternative expressions of difference     Transforming Schools into Community Learning Centers Stephen Parson, 2013-10-18 This book shows how schools can provide services to all members of the community not just to children of school age It also demonstrates how a school's instructional program and facilities can include community resources     Community Policing Dominique Wisler, Ihekwoaba D. Onwudiwe, 2009-06-10 Community oriented policing COP is the ideology and policy model espoused in the mission statements of nearly all policing forces throughout the world However the COP philosophy is interpreted differently by different countries and police forces resulting in practices that may in fact run far afield of the community based themes of partnership     Social Work Intervention in an Economic Crisis Martha Baum, Pamela Twiss, 2014-03-18 With the collapse of the steel industry in the 1980s economic devastation hit the Pittsburgh Pennsylvania region Social Work Intervention in an Economic Crisis strives to deepen understanding of the impact of the economic tragedy in the Pittsburgh region and to present social workers efforts to enhance recovery This case study serves as a model for social workers human service educators and agency personnel public health professionals community organizers policymakers economic strategists and researchers in social work public health sociology anthropology and political science to design and implement human service interventions for similar communities using techniques of action research community organization and demonstration projects Social Work Intervention in an Economic Crisis shows readers relatively simple and highly effective ways of assessing the social economic situation in their given geographical area This allows professionals to be in touch with their surrounding communities and estimate the clientele to be served their particular needs and their abilities to access services Chapters in Social Work Intervention in an Economic Crisis describe the responses of local institutions the roles of informal and formal support networks and the economic devastation inflicted upon individuals households and whole communities To this end Hide Yamatani Lambert Maguire Robin K Rogers and Mary Lou O Kennedy take the socioeconomic pulse of six communities launching a longitudinal monitoring effort that can be replicated elsewhere for long range planning and intervention Martha Baum Barbara K Shore and Kathy Fleissner address the special problems women face Mary Page and Myrna Silverman focus upon the elderly and their families Phyllis D Coontz Judith A Martin and Edward W Sites look at fathers facing altered childrearing and Lambert Maguire and Hide Yamatani discuss youth facing altered economic opportunities With this knowledge in hand readers acquire skills for using action research to assess how economic tragedy affects people's lives mobilizing appropriate actors to engage in intervention learning from community groups and leaders about their concerns to work with them rather than for them recognizing the properties of community cohesion versus fragmentation as they affect efforts of renewal identifying individuals and families suffering most under economic devastation realizing the limits of micro level intervention generating macro policies at the state and federal levels disseminating findings from action research and intervention demonstration efforts Finally Social Work Intervention in an Economic Crisis offers proposals for new societal mechanisms that might reduce the impact of future recessions The findings and policy proposals
