Facing Mount Kenya Vintage:

Facing Mount Kenya Jomo Kenyatta, 1962      Facing Mount Kenya Jomo Kenyatta, 1962-02-12 With an Introduction by Bronislaw Malinkowski Facing Mount Kenya is a central document of the highest distinction in anthropological literature an invaluable key to the structure of African society and the nature of the African mind Facing Mount Kenya is not only a formal study of life and death work and play sex and the family in one of the greatest tribes of contemporary Africa but a work of considerable literary merit The very sight and sound of Kikuyu tribal life presented here are at once comprehensive and intimate and as precise as they are compassionate      Glaciers, Nature, Water, and Local Community in Mount Kenya Kazuharu Mizuno, Yuya Otani, 2022-03-18 This book describes the challenges for the natural environments and local communities in the future Among the high mountains of Africa only Kilimanjaro Mount Kenya and the Rwenzori Mountains are still capped with glaciers The retreating rate of these glaciers has accelerated and they are expected to disappear in the near future In the area around Mount Kenya the precipitation is generally low such that rainfall cannot stably supply water for farmlands and daily life It has been revealed that the glacial meltwater has produced springs at the foot of the mountain It is therefore important to characterize the condition of water sources near Mount Kenya for use by local people This book discusses the relationships between the actual state of the climate and glacier shrinkage around Mount Kenya the surrounding vegetation soil and water environments and the lives of the foothill region inhabitants confronting the glacier shrinkage This book is valuable in the contemporary age when the assurance of a sustainable relationship between nature and mankind is critical      Reclaiming Indigenous Knowledge Systems Kendi Borona, 2019-01-03 Conservation has over the last couple of decades coalesced around the language of community engagement Models that seemed to prop up conservation areas as those emptied of human presence are cracking under their own weight This book grounds our understanding of people forest relationships through the lens of Indigenous Knowledge Systems IKS in the Nyandarwa Aberdare forest reserve in Kenya home to the Agikuyu people It confronts the history of land dispossession in Kenya demonstrates that land continues to be a central pillar of Agikuyu indigenous environmental thought and cements the role of the forest in sustaining the struggle for independence It also shines a light on seed and food sovereignty as arenas of knowledge mobilization and self determination The book concludes by showing how IKS can contribute to forging sustainable people forest relationships      Facing Mount Kenya Jomo Kenyatta, 1962      The Public Face of African New Religious Movements in Diaspora Afe Adogame, 2016-02-24 The growing pace of international migration technological revolution in media and travel generate circumstances that provide opportunities for the mobility of African new religious movements ANRMs within Africa and beyond ANRMs are furthering their self assertion and self insertion into the religious landscapes of Europe the Americas and Asia Their growing presence and public visibility seem to be more robustly captured by the popular media than by scholars of NRMs historians of religion and social scientists a tendency that has probably shaped the public mental picture and understanding of the phenomena This book provides new theoretical and methodological insights for understanding and interpreting ANRMs and African derived religions in diaspora Contributors focus on individual groups and movements drawn from Christian Islamic Jewish and African derived religious movements and explore their provenance and patterns of emergence their belief systems and ritual practices their public civic roles group self definition public perceptions and responses tendencies towards integration segregation organisational networks gender orientations and the implications of interactions within and between the groups and with the host societies The book includes contributions from scholars and religious practitioners thus offering new insights into how ANRMs can be better defined approached and interpreted by scholars policy makers and media practitioners alike

Reconstructing the Third Wave of Democracy Rita Kiki Edozie, 2009 Since the 1990s trends in African politics require the realization that the public policy practice and the theoretical analysis of democracy and democratization are becoming increasingly important tenets for understanding the contemporary political science of the region Reconstructing the Third Wave of Democracy explains these new political processes and ideas Author Rita Kiki Edozie identifies factors that Africans have encountered since the foundation of the modern African state and presents a critical analysis of African politics through the lenses of post colonial discourse by uniquely employing the ideas of democratic theory to guide an analysis of the Continent's democratic development and performance Edozie presents an intra regional comparative analysis of democratic politics in Africa in ways that few books on the same subject do for the continent Her methodology for examining democracy in Africa reveals the dynamism of several country cases and several more regime experiences with democracy encountered from the post World War II period to the current post Cold War period

Gender and Authority across Disciplines, Space and Time Adele Bardazzi, Alberica Bazzoni, 2020-09-07 This edited collection investigates the relationship between gender and authority across geographical contexts periods and fields Who is recognized as a legitimate voice in debate and decision making and how is that legitimization produced Through a variety of methodological approaches the chapters address some of the most pressing and controversial themes under scrutiny in current feminist scholarship and activism such as pornography political representation LGBTI struggles female genital mutilation the MeToo movement abortion divorce and consent Organized into three sections Politics Law and Religion and Imaginaries the contributors highlight formal and informal aspects of authority its gendered and racialized configurations and practices of solidarity resistance and subversion by traditionally disempowered subjects In dialogue with feminist scholarship on power and agency the notion of authority as elaborated here offers a distinctive lens to critique political and epistemic foundations of inequality and oppression and will be of use to scholars and students across gender studies sociology politics linguistics theology history law film and literature

Equality in Kenya's 2010 Constitution Victoria Miyandazi, 2021-02-25 This book makes a significant contribution to the ongoing global conversations on the various understandings of equality It illuminates the many ways in which diverse equality guarantees clash or are interrelated It also sets out principled approaches on how they can be coherently interpreted to address the myriad inequalities in Kenya Taking a comparative approach the book considers how other jurisdictions including the United States United Kingdom Canada South Africa India and Botswana have approached the conceptualisation interpretation and application of various equality concepts The book focuses on important issues such as transformative constitutionalism in relation to the interpretation of Kenya s 2010 Constitution expanding the list of enumerated grounds for non discrimination affirmative action accommodating religious and cultural diversity versus gender equality the interrelation between socio economic rights and status based equality

Chimakonam, Edwin Etieyibo, Ike Odimegwu, 2021-11-06 This volume is a collection of chapters about contemporary issues within African philosophy They are issues African philosophy must grapple with to demonstrate its readiness to make a stand against some of the challenges society faces in the coming decade such as xenophobia Afro phobia extreme poverty democratic failure and migration The text covers new methodical directions and there is focus on the conversationalist complementarist and consolationist movements within the field as well as the place of the Indigenous Knowledge System The collection speaks to African philosophy s place in intellectual history with coverage of African Ethics and African socio political philosophy Contributors come from a variety of different backgrounds institutions and countries Through their innovative ideas they provide fresh insight and intellectual energy The book appeals to philosophy students and researchers

In Search of the Primitive Stanley Diamond, 2017-06-21 Anthropology is a kind of debate between human possibilities a dialectical movement between the anthropologist as a modern man and the primitive peoples he studies In Search of the Primitive is a tough minded book containing chapters ranging from encounters in the field to essays on the nature of law schizophrenia and civilization and the evolution of the work of Claude L vi Strauss Above all it is reflective and self critical critical of the discipline of anthropology and of the civilization that produced that discipline Diamond views the anthropologist who refuses to become a searching critic of his own civilizations as not merely irresponsible but a tool of Western civilization He rejects the associations which have been made in the ideology of our civilization consciously or unconsciously between Western dominance and progress imperialism and evolution evolution and progress

Handbook of Counseling and Psychotherapy in an International Context Roy Moodley, Uwe P. Gielen, Rosa Wu, 2013-05-07 Many factors in the world today such as globalization and a rise in immigration are increasing the need for mental health practitioners to acquire the ability to interact effectively with people of different cultures This text will be the most comprehensive volume to address this need to date exploring the history philosophy processes and trends in counseling and psychotherapy in countries from all regions of the globe Organized by continent and country each chapter is written by esteemed scholars drawing on intimate knowledge of their homelands They explore such topics as their countries demographics counselor education programs current counseling theories and trends and significant traditional and indigenous treatment and healing methods This consistent structure facilitates quick and easy comparisons and contrasts across cultures offering an enhanced understanding of diversity and multicultural competencies Overall this text is an invaluable resource for practitioners researchers students and faculty showing them how to look beyond their own borders and cultures to enhance their counseling practices

Literature and Human Rights Ian Ward, 2015-03-10 The idea of human rights is not new But the importance of taking rights seriously has never been more urgent The eighteen essays which comprise Literature and Human Rights are written as a contribution to this vital debate Each moreover is written in the spirit of interdisciplinarity reaching across the myriad constitutive disciplines of law literature and the humanities in order to present an array of alternative perspectives on the nature and meaning of human rights in the modern world The taking of human rights seriously it will be suggested depends just as much on taking seriously the idea of the human as it does the idea of rights

The Rule of Empires Timothy Parsons, 2010-06-10 In The Rule of Empires Timothy Parsons gives a sweeping account of the evolution of empire from its origins in ancient Rome to its most recent twentieth century embodiment He explains what constitutes an empire and offers suggestions about what empires of the past can tell us about our own historical moment Parsons uses imperial examples that stretch from ancient Rome to Britain's new imperialism in Kenya to the Third Reich to parse the features common to all empires their evolutions and self justifying myths and the reasons for their inevitable decline Parsons argues that far from confirming some sort of Darwinian hierarchy of advanced and primitive societies conquests were simply the products of a temporary advantage in military technology wealth and political will Beneath the self justifying rhetoric of benevolent paternalism and cultural superiority lay economic exploitation and the desire for power Yet imperial ambitions still appear viable in the twenty first century Parsons shows because their defenders and detractors alike employ abstract and romanticized perspectives that fail to grasp the historical reality of subjugation Writing from the perspective of the common subject rather than that of the imperial conquerors Parsons offers a historically grounded cautionary tale rich with accounts of subjugated peoples throwing off the yoke of empire time and time again In providing an accurate picture of what it is like to live as a subject The Rule of Empires lays bare the rationalizations of imperial conquerors and their apologists and exposes the true limits of hard power

The Fernando Coronil Reader

Fernando Coronil,2019-04-15 In The Fernando Coronil Reader Venezuelan anthropologist Fernando Coronil challenges us to rethink our approaches to key contemporary epistemological political and ethical questions Consisting of work written between 1991 and 2011 this posthumously published collection includes Coronil s landmark essays Beyond Occidentalism and The Future in Question as well as two chapters from his unfinished book manuscript Crude Matters Taken together the essays highlight his deep concern with the Global South Latin American state formation theories of nature empire and postcolonialism and anthrohistory as an intellectual and ethical approach Presenting a cross section of Coronil s oeuvre this volume cements his legacy as one of the most innovative critical social thinkers of his generation Religion and

Contemporary Politics Timothy J. Demy,Jeffrey M. Shaw Ph.D.,2019-09-19 With respect to the countries of the world this work addresses two basic questions How does religion affect politics in this country and How does politics affect religion in this country Although there are many books on the topics of religion and politics reference works that consider the two together are few with those that do exist primarily addressing theory rather than trends The present work does the latter contextualizing them within regional and national boundaries In so doing it recognizes the power of political and religious ideas and movements on individuals communities and nations making the work a valuable resource for several disciplines among them political science international relations religion and sociology The work focuses on the interplay of religion and politics in countries around the world with an emphasis on the post 2000s It is organized by global geographic regions including Africa Central and South America and the Middle East and presents countries alphabetically within those sections Each region has a brief overview of the political religious dynamics of the area so readers can compare and contrast the dynamics between and among countries in a region The work also includes an introduction sidebars and a bibliography

Female Genital Mutilation/Cutting Kyoko Nakamura,Kaori Miyachi,Yukio Miyawaki,Makiko Toda,2023-02-11 This open access book shows how the adoption of global justice such as eradication of female genital mutilation cutting FGM C has given rise to controversy resistance and transformation at the national regional and grass roots levels in African and Asian countries where FGM C has been practiced It provides readers with up to date information about the effects of the campaign to eradicate FGM C and the present situation of those countries to which preceding books on FGM C have scarcely referred Adopting zero tolerance as a policy of eradication WHO and other UN agencies have opposed any type of FGM C and many African countries have criminalized the practice Although the campaign is based on the human rights discourse which is shared globally the controversies concerning eradication of FGM C on the national level and the responses of communities on the local level in those countries are diverse and complicated Various actors such as NGOs government officials religious leaders medical workers and local inhabitants are embroiled and negotiate with each other concerning its eradication With this book readers are provided with an in depth analysis of the complicated controversies and responses of local communities referring to their particular historical and social backgrounds The book provides two chapters on FGM C in Asian countries where not many studies have done yet It also presents readers with a study of the arguments and responses to FGM C of African immigrants by Australian health care professionals as well as a study of male circumcision eradication campaigns which have been carried on in tandem with FGM C eradication campaigns but still not have been successful With its many elaborate case studies this book is highly recommended to readers who seek an in depth and up to date integrated overview of the FGM C studies as well as studies on the applicability of global justice to local communities

This book won the 13th 2023 Japan Consortium for Area Studies JCAS Award for Social Collaboration Fiction & the Colonial Experience Jeffrey Meyers, 2022-02-14 British colonialism provided a rich vein of material for the novelists of the first half of the 20th century This study originally published in 1968 looks at five writers and their reaction to the Empire Rudyard Kipling E M Forster Joseph Conrad Joyce Cary and Graham Greene It shows how the romantic adventure stories of Kipling s early days in which the indigenous population plays almost no part gave rise to the much more important novels of spiritual and moral conflict in which the stereotyped values of Empire are questioned The decline of colonialism from its apogee in the 1880s within a relatively short period makes the novels discussed a compact group so that not only is the use of colonial material closely studied but its impact on the novelists themselves emerges clearly This is an important study of a major literary theme linking modern literature and modern history at a vital point African Religions Douglas

Thomas, Temilola Alanamu, 2018-12-01 This book supplies fundamental information about the diverse religious beliefs of Africa explains central tenets of the African worldview and overviews various forms of African spiritual practices and experiences Africa is an ancient land with a significant presence in world history especially regarding the history of the United States given the ethnic origins of a substantial proportion of the nation s population This book presents a broad range of information about the diverse religious beliefs of Africa that serves to describe the beliefs practices deities sacred places and creation stories of African religions Readers will learn about key forms of spiritual practices and experiences such as incantations and prayer dance as worship and spirit possession all of which pepper African American religious experiences today The entries also discuss central tenets of the African worldview for example the belief that humankind is not to fight nature but to integrate into the natural environment This volume is specifically written to be highly accessible to students It provides a much needed source of connections between the religious traditions and practices of African Americans and those of the people of the continent of Africa Through these connections this work will inspire tolerance of other religions traditions and backgrounds The included selection of primary documents provides users first hand accounts of African religious beliefs and practices serving to promote critical thinking skills and support Common Core State Standards
