Modernist Aesthetics in Taiwanese Poetry since the 1950s Chung-to Au,2008-05-31 Much of the previous scholarship on Taiwanese modernist poetry easily falls into ideological arguments This book participates in the development of an alternative approach to understanding Taiwanese modernist poetry Dr Au s approach emphasizes the diversity and intensity of experiences of place and placelessness in the work of five poets Lomen Luo Fu Rong Zi Yu Guangzhong and Zheng Chouyu

The phenomenon of placelessness is a problem in all modernity and so modern aesthetics is an outgrowth of modern society's sense of placelessness. This book not only shows how place becomes placelessness but also analyses Taiwanese modernist poets' responses to the phenomenon of placelessness. Four kinds of places are examined: namely the house, the city, homeland, and an imagined literary community in this work. The result is both refreshing and original. The Night Poet Robert N. Story, 2012-05-01. There is a fine line between sanity and madness. When five-year-old Viktor Szabo flees the havoc being wreaked upon his beloved Hungary by the Nazis, his father vows that his son will no longer have to suffer the cruel cycle of Fascism and Communism which has visited his homeland for decades. But his father's promise cannot save Viktor from the mind-bending ravages of a visitor that comes to him in the night, plunging him into a maelstrom of doubt about everything he has ever believed. Take Viktor's hand and journey with him from Budapest to Lisbon and then across the sea to America. Stay close to him as you watch him blossom into adulthood because very soon he'll need you more than ever as you both walk that thin line which will ultimately lead you both to the Truth. Ideas and Forms in English and American Literature: Poetry Homer Andrew Watt, James Buell Munn, 1925. Poetry Matters Heather Milne, 2018-05-15. Poetry Matters explores poetry written by women from the United States and Canada which documents the social and political turmoil of the early twenty-first century and places this poetry in dialogue with recent currents of feminist theory including new materialism, affect theory, posthumanism, and feminist engagements with neoliberalism and capitalism. Central to this project is the conviction that a poetics that explores the political dimensions of affect demonstrates an understanding of subjectivity as posthuman and transcorporeal. It critically reflects on the impact of capitalism on queer racialized and female bodies and develops an ethical vocabulary for reimagining the nation-state and critically engaging with issues of democracy and citizenship. It is now more urgent than ever before. Milne focuses on poetry published after 2001 by writers who mostly began writing after the feminist writing movements of the 1980s but who have inherited and built upon their political and aesthetic legacies. The poets discussed in this book include Jennifer Scappettone, Margaret Christakos, Larissa Lai, Rita Wong, Nikki Reimer, Rachel Zolf, Yedda Morrison, Marcella Durand, Evelyn Reilly, Juliana Spahr, Claudia Rankine, Dionne Brand, Jena Osman, and Jen Benka. They bring a sense of political agency to poetry. These voices seek new vocabularies and dissenting critical and aesthetic frameworks for thinking across issues of gender, materiality, capitalism, the toxic convergences of nationalism and racism, and the decline of democratic institutions. This is poetry that matters both in its political urgency and in its attentiveness to the world as matter as a material entity under siege. It could not be more timely or more relevant.
