Facing Death In Cambodia:

Facing Death in Cambodia Peter Maguire, 2005-03-30 The Khmer Rouge regime took control of Cambodia by force of arms then committed the most brazen crimes since the Third Reich at least 1 5 million people murdered between 1975 and 1979 Yet no individuals were ever tried or punished This book is the story of Peter Maguire s effort to learn how Cambodia s culture of impunity developed why it persists and the failures of the international community to confront the Cambodian genocide Written from a personal and historical perspective Facing Death in Cambodia recounts Maguire s growing anguish over the gap between theories of universal justice and political realities Maguire documents the atrocities and the aftermath through personal interviews with victims and perpetrators discussions with international and NGO officials journalistic accounts and government sources gathered during a ten year odyssey in search of answers The book includes a selection of haunting pictures from among the thousands taken at the now infamous Tuol Sleng prison also referred to as S 21 through which at least 14 000 men women and children passed and from which fewer than a dozen emerged alive What he discovered raises troubling questions Was the Cambodian genocide a preview of the genocidal civil wars that would follow in the wake of the Cold War Is international justice an attainable idea or a fiction superimposed over an unbearably dark reality Did issues of political expediency allow Cambodian leaders to escape prosecution The Khmer Rouge violated the Nuremberg Principles the United Nations Charter the laws of war and the UN Genocide Convention Yet in the decade after the regime s collapse the perpetrators were rescued and rehabilitated even rewarded by China Thailand the United States and the UN According to Peter Maguire Cambodia holds the key to understanding why recent UN interventions throughout the world have failed to prevent atrocities and to enforce treaties

Facing Death in Cambodia Peter H. Anthropological Witness Alexander Laban Hinton, 2022-10-15 Anthropological Witness tells the story of Alexander Laban Hinton's encounter with an accused architect of genocide and more broadly Hinton's attempt to navigate the promises and perils of expert testimony In March 2016 Hinton served as an expert witness at the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia an international tribunal established to try senior Khmer Rouge leaders for crimes committed during the 1975-79 Cambodian genocide His testimony culminated in a direct exchange with Pol Pot's notorious right hand man Nuon Chea who was engaged in genocide denial Anthropological Witness looks at big questions about the ethical imperatives and epistemological assumptions involved in explanation and the role of the public scholar in addressing issues relating to truth justice social repair and genocide Hinton asks Can scholars who serve as expert witnesses effectively contribute to international atrocity crimes tribunals where the focus is on legal guilt as opposed to academic explanation What does the answer to this question say more generally about academia and the public sphere At a time when the world faces a multitude of challenges the answers Hinton provides to such questions about public scholarship are urgent

Traces of Trauma Boreth Ly, 2019-11-30 How do the people of a morally shattered culture and nation find ways to go on living Cambodians confronted this challenge following the collective disasters of the American bombing the civil war and the Khmer Rouge genocide The magnitude of violence and human loss the execution of artists and intellectuals the erasure of individual and institutional cultural memory all caused great damage to Cambodian arts culture and society Author Boreth Ly explores the traces of this haunting past in order to understand how Cambodians at home and in the diasporas deal with trauma on such a vast scale Ly maintains that the production of visual culture by contemporary Cambodian artists and writers photographers filmmakers court dancers and poets embodies traces of trauma scars leaving an indelible mark on the body and the psyche Her book considers artists of different generations and family experiences a Cambodian American woman whose father sent her as a baby to the United States to be adopted the Cambodian French filmmaker Rithy Panh himself a survivor of the Khmer Rouge whose film The Missing Picture was nominated for an Oscar in 2014 a young Cambodian artist born in 1988 part of the post memory generation The works discussed include a variety of materials and remnants from the historical past the broken pieces of a shattered clay pot the scarred landscape of bomb craters the traditional symbolism of the checkered scarf called krama as well as the absence of a visual archive Boreth Ly's poignant book explores obdurate traces that are fragmented and partial like the acts of remembering and forgetting Her interdisciplinary approach combining art history visual studies psychoanalysis cultural studies religion and philosophy is particularly attuned to the diverse body of material discussed including photographs video installations performance art poetry and mixed media By analyzing these works through the lens of trauma she shows how expressions of a national trauma can contribute to healing and the reclamation of national identity Modern Genocide Paul R. Bartrop, 2018-10-18

An indispensable resource for those interested in the scourge of mass murder and genocide in the 20th and 21st centuries this book analyzes modern and contemporary controversies and issues to help readers to understand genocide in all its complexity This vital reference work looks at current areas of debate in genocide studies to provide insights into what a genocide is why genocides occur and what the consequences are once a genocide is recognized as such It also illuminates how and why rational people can view the same set of circumstances as genocide or not and how it might be possible in the future to alleviate or even prevent genocide Dozens of accomplished scholars provide perceptive insights into the controversies and issues that dominate genocide discussions The book is organized into five parts The first considers how genocide is defined while the second covers the pre 1945 period as it includes such controversial topics as the American Indian Wars Australian Aborigines Irish Potato Famine Armenian Genocide Ukrainian Starvation and Holocaust A Cold War section examines genocidal violence in Cambodia East Timor and Guatemala and against the Kurds a post Cold War period section covers Bosnia Rwanda Darfur and the Rohingya in Myanmar The final part concerns such issues as genocide prevention humanitarian intervention and the role of military personnel as perpetrators of genocide Becoming American Ly Y, 2022-08-10

Becoming American By Ly Y Ly Y and his wife Chantra Y are the survivors of the Killing Fields of the Khmer Rouge the Cambodian Communist Having come to the United States of America since 1980 by sponsorships of William O Taylor the publisher of The Boston Globe and Mathew V Storin the editor of The Boston Globe From his return on the travel a tour in Europe he said When passing through the U S customs in Boston I feel a big release and relax I m home his hope his wish for a better life is found in The United States of America Face Politics Jenny Edkins, 2015-04-10

The face is central to contemporary politics In Deleuze and Guattari s work on faciality we find an assertion that the face is a particular politics and dismantling the face is also a politics This book explores the politics of such diverse issues as images and faces in photographs and portraits expressive faces psychology and neuroscience face recognition face blindness facial injury disfigurement and face transplants through questions such as What it might mean to dismantle the face and what politics this might entail in practical terms What sort of a politics is it Is it already taking place Is it a politics that is to be desired a better politics a progressive politics The book opens up a vast field of further research that needs to be taken forward to begin to address the politics of the face more fully and to elaborate the alternative forms of personhood and politics that dismantling the face opens to view The book will be agenda setting for scholars located in the field of international politics in particular but cognate areas as well who want to pursue the implications of face politics for the crucial questions of subjectivity sovereignty and personhood The Routledge Handbook of Asian American Studies Cindy I-Fen Cheng, 2016-12-08

The Khmer Rouge Nhem Boraden, 2013-07-19 This book provides a comprehensive yet concise narrative of the history of the Khmer Rouge from its inception during the 1950s through its eventual reintegration into Cambodian society in 1998 The Khmer Rouge Ideology Militarism and the Revolution That Consumed a Generation examines the entire organizational life of the Khmer Rouge looking at it from both a societal and organizational perspective The chapters cover each pivotal period in the history of the Khmer Rouge explaining how extreme militarism organizational dynamics leadership policies and international context all conspired to establish maintain and destroy the Khmer Rouge as an organization The work goes beyond inspecting the actions of a few key leadership individuals to describe the interaction among different groups of elites as well as the ideologies and culture that formed the structural foundation of the organization

Dystopia Gregory Claeys, 2016-11-24 Dystopia A Natural History is the first monograph devoted to the concept of dystopia Taking the term to encompass both a literary tradition of satirical works mostly on totalitarianism as well as real despotisms and societies in a state of disastrous collapse this volume redefines the central concepts and the chronology of the genre and offers a paradigm shifting understanding of the subject Part One assesses the theory and prehistory of dystopia By contrast to utopia conceived as promoting an ideal of friendship defined as enhanced sociability dystopia is defined by estrangement fear and the proliferation of enemy categories A natural history of dystopia thus concentrates upon the centrality of the passion or emotion of fear and hatred in modern despotisms The work of Le Bon Freud and others is used to show how dystopian groups use such emotions Utopia and dystopia are portrayed not as opposites but as extremes on a spectrum of sociability defined by a heightened form of group identity The prehistory of the process whereby enemies are demonised is explored from early conceptions of monstrosity through Christian conceptions of the devil and witchcraft and the persecution of heresy Part Two surveys the major dystopian moments in twentieth century despotisms focussing in particular upon Nazi Germany Stalinism

the Chinese Cultural Revolution and Cambodia under Pol Pot The concentration here is upon the political religion hypothesis as a key explanation for the chief excesses of communism in particular Part Three examines literary dystopias It commences well before the usual starting point in the secondary literature in anti Jacobin writings of the 1790s Two chapters address the main twentieth century texts usually studied as representative of the genre Aldous Huxley s Brave New World and George Orwell s Nineteen Eighty Four The remainder of the section examines the evolution of the genre in the second half of the twentieth century down to the present

From the Land of Shadows Khatharya Um,2015-10-16 In a century of mass atrocities the Khmer Rouge regime marked Cambodia with one of the most extreme genocidal instances in human history What emerged in the aftermath of the regime s collapse in 1979 was a nation fractured by death and dispersal It is estimated that nearly one fourth of the country s population perished from hard labor disease starvation and executions Another half million Cambodians fled their ancestral homeland with over one hundred thousand finding refuge in America From the Land of Shadows surveys the Cambodian diaspora and the struggle to understand and make meaning of this historical trauma Drawing on more than 250 interviews with survivors across the United States as well as in France and Cambodia Khatharya Um places these accounts in conversation with studies of comparative revolutions totalitarianism transnationalism and memory works to illuminate the pathology of power as well as the impact of auto genocide on individual and collective healing Exploring the interstices of home and exile forgetting and remembering From the Land of Shadows follows the ways in which Cambodian individuals and communities seek to rebuild connections frayed by time distance and politics in the face of this injurious history

Housing, Land, and Property Rights in Post-Conflict United Nations and Other Peace Operations Scott Leckie,2009 This book is about the UN s role in housing land and property rights in countries after violent conflict

The Genocide Debate D. Beachler,2011-08-14 Neither a case study of a particular genocide nor a work of comparative genocide this book explores the political constraints and imperatives that motivate debates about genocide in the academic world and to a lesser extent in the political arena The book is an analysis of the ways that political interests shape discourse about genocide

A Biographical Encyclopedia of Contemporary Genocide Paul R. Bartrop,2012-07-06 This book documents the devastating effects of genocide in the world s most destructive human environments since the end of World War II and explores why such events still occur A Biographical Encyclopedia of Contemporary Genocide Portraits of Evil and Good is a unique study of humanity s most reprehensible actions It documents genocides that have occurred after World War II a period that was supposed to be the fulfillment of the promise never again by providing biographies rather than extensive historical narratives The entries describe the personal backgrounds careers and relationship to genocidal events humanitarian actions or international initiatives relevant to each person in the book Beyond examining the genocidaires who played key roles in mass murder individuals who contributed to efforts to stop genocide are also profiled By adopting a biographical approach to post World War II genocide the author sheds light on why people behave the way they do toward their fellow human beings and provides vital insights into the extremes of human positivity and negativity that have characterized this period of history Serving as a vital tool for scholars and students of genocide as well as compelling reading for general audiences the book highlights individual human behaviors motivations backgrounds and intentions that can form a platform from which to raise and discuss issues of morality and ethics in the modern world Old Evidence and Core International Crimes Morten Bergsmo, CHEAH Wui Ling, 2012-11-19 It is often only years after the commission of core international crimes that prosecutions and investigations take place This anthology addresses challenges associated with such delayed justice the location treatment and assessment of old evidence Part I considers the topic from the perspective of different actors involved in the prosecution of core international crimes at the domestic and international levels Part II comprises chapters focusing on the efforts of the Bangladeshi authorities to investigate and prosecute international crimes perpetrated during the 1971 war This book brings together experienced judges prosecutors lawyers scientists and commentators who have dealt with questions of old evidence in their work Among the contributors are Shafique Ahmed Andrew Cayley David Cohen Seena Fazel Siri S Frigaard M Amir Ul Islam Md Shahinur Islam Agnieszka Klonowiecka Milart Alphons M M Orie Stephen J Rapp Patrick J Treanor Otto Triffterer and Martin Witteveen The chapters describe the challenges encountered in practice and suggest concrete solutions that can be tailored to fit the circumstances of the case or country By providing a comprehensive analysis of the relevant problems in this area and a variety of views this anthology will serve as an invaluable resource for criminal justice actors and researchers seeking to address questions of old evidence Ferryman of Memories Deirdre Boyle, 2023-03-17 Ferryman of Memories The Films of Rithy Panh is an unconventional book about an unconventional filmmaker Rithy Panh survived the Cambodian genocide and found refuge in France where he discovered in film a language that allowed him to tell what happened to the two million souls who suffered hunger overwork disease and death at the hands of the Khmer Rouge His innovative cinema is made with people not about them even those guilty of crimes against humanity Whether he is directing Isabelle Huppert in The Sea Wall following laborers digging trenches or interrogating the infamous director of S 21 prison aesthetics and ethics inform all he does With remarkable access to the director and his work Deirdre Boyle introduces readers to Panh s groundbreaking approach to perpetrator cinema and dazzling critique of colonialism globalization and the refugee crisis Ferryman of Memories reveals the art of one of the masters of world cinema today focusing on nineteen of his award winning films including Rice People The Land of Wandering Souls S 21 The Khmer Rouge Killing Machine and The Missing Picture Performing Archives/Archives of Performance Gunhild Borggreen, Rune Gade, 2013-07-12 Performing Archives Archives of Performance contributes to the ongoing critical discussions of performance and its disappearance of the ephemeral and its reproduction of archives and mediatized recordings of liveness

The many contributions by excellent scholars and artists from a broad range of interdisciplinary fields as well as from various locations in research geographies demonstrate that despite the extensive discourse on the relationship between performance and the archive inquiry into the productive tensions between ephemerality and permanence is by no means outdated or exhausted New ways of understanding archives history and memory emerge and address theories of enactment and intervention while concepts of performance constantly proliferate and enable a critical focus on archival residue The contributions in Performing Archives Archives of Performance cover philosophical inquiries as well as discussions of specific art works performances and archives Contributions by Heike Roms Amelia Jones Julie Louise Bacon Peter van der Meijden Emma Willis Rivka Syd Eisner Rachel Fensham Sarah Whatley Tracy C Davis Barnaby King Laura Luise Schultz Malene Vest Hansen Mette Sandbye Bodil Marie Stavning Thomsen Margeritha Sprio Annelis Kuhlmann Morten S ndergaard Martha Wilson Catherine Bagnall Paul Clarke Solveig Gade Gunhild Borggreen Rune Gade Louise Wolthers Mathias Danbolt Marco Pustianaz Gunhild Borggreen is Associate Professor at the Department of Arts and Cultural Studies at the University of Copenhagen Rune Gade is Associate Professor at the Department of Arts and Cultural Studies at the University of Copenhagen

Killer Images Joram ten Brink, Joshua Oppenheimer, 2013-01-08 Cinema has long shaped not only how mass violence is perceived but also how it is performed Today when media coverage is central to the execution of terror campaigns and news anchormen serve as embedded journalists a critical understanding of how the moving image is implicated in the imaginations and actions of perpetrators and survivors of violence is all the more urgent If the cinematic image and mass violence are among the defining features of modernity the former is significantly implicated in the latter and the nature of this implication is the book's central focus This book brings together a range of newly commissioned essays and interviews from the world's leading academics and documentary filmmakers including Ben Anderson Errol Morris Harun Farocki Rithy Phan Avi Mograbi Brian Winston and Michael Chanan Contributors explore such topics as the tension between remembrance and performance the function of moving images in the execution of political violence and nonfiction filmmaking methods that facilitate communities of survivors to respond to recover and redeem a history that sought to physically and symbolically annihilate them
