Facings 1st Edition:

Facing Unpleasant Facts George Orwell, 2008 Honoring the author's mastery of the essay form brings together such classic works as Shooting an Elephant with passages from his wartime diary and lesser known journalistic pieces that weave together the personal and political in studies of his boyhood in an English boarding school and his experiences during the Spanish Civil War

Beowulf: Facing Page Translation - Second Edition Anonymous, 2012-10-25 R M Liuzza's translation of Beowulf first published by Broadview in 1999 has been widely praised for its accuracy and beauty The facing page translation is accompanied in this edition by genealogical charts historical summaries and a glossary of proper names Historical appendices include related legends stories and religious writings from both Christian and Anglo Saxon traditions These texts help readers to see Beowulf as an exploration of the politics of kingship and the psychology of heroism and as an early English meditation on the bridges and chasms between the pagan past and the Christian present Appendices also include a generous sample of other modern translations of Beowulf shedding light on the process of translating the poem This new edition features an updated introduction and an expanded section of material on Christianity and paganism

Challenges Facing Contemporary Didactics. Diversity of Students and the Role of New Media in Teaching and Learning Stefanie Hillen, Tanja Sturm, Ilmi Willbergh, 2011 This anthology raises the issue on current empirical and theoretical research approaches in the field of didactics in respect to diversity gender and new media The intention is to show the related contemporary use and the reflections on didactic approaches based on the tradition of Allgemeine Didaktik The brainchild to use English as publication language pursues the idea to make the concept of didactics accessible for the English speaking world The attempt is to mirror differences of provisions in current societal phenomena new media gender and diversity which educational institutions are facing It will reveal and demonstrate that this is a common issue which is to be addressed for satisfying the demands and necessities in today's schooling out of the national educational perspectives given through the different educational systems This anthology follows the idea to present approaches with their theoretical or empirical results Thus the reader will find a bunch of procedures suggestions and methods as well as critical questions shaped by the empirical and theoretical reflective work of the Norwegian Austrian US American and German authors who contributed to the book

Facing East Frederica Mathewes-Green, 2006-02-28 The Classic Story of a Family's Pilgrimage into the Orthodox Church Veiled in the smoke of incense the Eastern Orthodox Church has long been an enigma to the Western world Yet as Frederica Mathewes Green discovered it is a vital living faith rich in ritual beauty and steadfast in integrity Utilizing the framework of the Orthodox calendar Mathewes Green chronicles a year in the life of her small Orthodox mission church eloquently illustrating the joys and blessings an ancient faith can bring to the worshipers of today

The Double-Facing Constitution Jacco Bomhoff, David Dyzenhaus, Thomas Poole, 2020-01-30 Explores how constitutional orders engage with and are shaped by their exteriors

The Draining of the Fens H. C. Darby, 2011-08-18 The text is ambitious in scope reflecting the author's position as a historical geographer and covers a broad range of disciplinary perspectives ranging from geology to socio-economic analysis Numerous illustrative figures are contained including maps diagrams and photographs of the area and a bibliography is also provided

Facing Each Other (2 Volumes) Anthony Pagden, 2017-09-08 The perception of Europeans of the world and of the peoples beyond Europe has become in recent years the subject of intense scholarly interest and heated debate both in and outside the academy So too has the concern with how it was that those peoples who were variously discovered and then as often as not colonised understood the strangers in their midst This volume attempts to cover both these topics as well as to provide a number of crucial articles on the difficulties faced by modern historians in understanding the complex relationship between them and us Inevitably such relationships not only changed over time they also varied greatly from culture to culture The articles therefore cover most of the areas with which the European world came into contact from the earliest Portuguese incursions into Africa in the mid fifteenth century until the explorations of Cook and Bougainville in the Pacific in the late eighteenth It ranges too from Brazil to Russia from Tahiti to China

Facing Up to Inequality in Latin America Inter-American Development Bank, 1998 Statistical appendix pp 203 282

Facing the Revocation Carolyn Chappell Lougee, 2017 Facing the Revocation tells the story of one French Protestant Huguenot family the Champagn's as they faced the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes which criminalized their religion in 1685 In this sweeping family saga Carolyn Chappell Lougee narrates how the Champagn family's persecution and Protestant devotion unsettled their economic advantages and social standing The family provides a window onto the choices that individuals and their kin had to make in these trying circumstances the agency of women within families and the consequences of their choices Lougee traces the lives of the family members who escaped the kin and community members who decided to stay both complying with and resisting the king s will and those who resettled in Britain and Prussia where they adapted culturally and became influential members of society It challenges the way Huguenot history has been told for 300 years and thereby offers new insights into the reign of Louis XIV

Facing the Challenge of Democracy Paul M. Sniderman, Benjamin Highton, 2011-10-10 Citizens are political simpletons that is only a modest exaggeration of a common characterization of voters Certainly there is no shortage of evidence of citizens limited political knowledge even about matters of the highest importance along with inconsistencies in their thinking some glaring by any standard But this picture of citizens all too often approaches caricature Paul Sniderman and Benjamin Highton bring together leading political scientists who offer new insights into the political thinking of the public the causes of party polarization the motivations for political participation and the paradoxical relationship between turnout and democratic representation These studies propel a foundational argument about democracy Voters can only do as well as the alternatives on offer These alternatives are constrained by third players in particular activists interest groups and financial contributors The result voters often appear to be shortsighted extreme and inconsistent because the alternatives they must choose between are shortsighted extreme and inconsistent

Facing the Challenge of Democracy features contributions by John Aldrich Stephen Ansolabehere Edward Carmines Jack Citrin Susanna Dilliplane Christopher Ellis Michael Ensley Melanie Freeze Donald Green Eitan Hersch Simon Jackman Gary Jacobson Matthew Knee Jonathan Krasno Arthur Lupia David Magleby Eric McGhee Diana Mutz Candice Nelson Benjamin Page Kathryn Pearson Eric Schickler John Sides James Stimson Lynn Vavreck Michael Wagner Mark Westlye and Tao Xie
