Facts Behind The Helsinki Roccamatios And Other Stories:

The Facts Behind the Helsinki Roccamatios and Other Stories Yann Martel, 1993 The appearance of a young storyteller with a unique fictional voice is cause for celebration Yann Martel's title story described as unforgettable a truly stunning piece of fiction won the 1991 Journey Prize to universal acclaim The intensely human tragedy that lies at its heart is told with a spare careful elegance that resonates long after it has ended and is matched through all the stories by an immediacy an dazzling freshness

The Facts Behind the Helsinki Roccamatios Yann Martel, 2004-10-12 Revised and with a new author's note and cover here is Booker Prize winning author Yann Martel's debut First published in 1993 this remarkable collection of four stories launched the career of a masterful writer In the exquisite title novella a young man dying of AIDS joins his friend in fashioning a story of the Roccamatio family of Helsinki set against the yearly march of the twentieth century whose horrors and miracles their story echoes In The Time I Heard the Private Donald J Rankin String Concerto with One Discordant Violin by the American Composer John Morton a Canadian university student visits Washington DC and experiences the Vietnam War and its aftermath through an intense musical encounter Manners of Dying has variations of a warden's letter to the mother of a son he has just executed revealing how each life is contained in its end Finally in The Vita Aeterna Mirror Company a young man discovers a strange contraption in his grandmother's basement As the machine runs she reflects upon her beloved husband

The Facts Behind the Helsinki Roccamatios Yann Martel, 2005 Written earlier in Martel's career these four unforgettable tales are as moving as they are thought provoking as inventive in form as they are timeless

Great Authors of Popular Fiction Britannica Educational Publishing, 2014-01-01 While a number of genres including mystery romance fantasy science fiction horror literary fiction and thrillers among others comprise the broader category of fiction few authors in those genres can claim popular crossover appeal Culled from a variety of these genres the authors profiled in this appealing volume have penned books that have done just that Readers will be introduced to the lives and works of such writers as Judy Blume Michael Chabon Suzanne Collins

Dave Eggers Yann Martel Toni Morrison and Kurt Vonnegut learning how they achieved widespread acclaim and transcended literary conventions A History of Canadian Fiction David Staines,2021-08-05 The first one volume history of Canadian fiction covering its growth and development from earliest times to the present day Recounting the struggles and the glories of this burgeoning area of investigation it explains Canada s literary growth alongside its remarkable history Animal Writing Danielle Sands,2019-08-21 Combining recent insights from animal studies critical plant studies and the new materialisms Danielle Sands reads fiction and philosophy alongside each other to propose a method of thinking of and with animals that draws on a bestiary of affects She challenges the claim that empathy should be primary mode of engagement with nonhuman life Instead she looks at the stories that we tell and are told by insects beings at the edges of animal life The indifference even disgust that these creatures evoke in us forms the basis for a new ethics not limited by empathy Along the way she encounters fiction writers Yann Martel Karen Joy Fowler Han Kang and Jim Crace beside the philosophy of Graham Harman Donna Haraway Jacques Derrida and Roger Caillois This Is My Best Retha Powers,Kathy Kiernan,2005-05-05 Some of the world s most acclaimed writers including novelists essayists poets playwrights and cartoonists share what they consider their finest works accompanied by incisive commentary by each author on the work and the creative process

World Literature: A Non-British Approach Krishna Sharma, This book has been designed to help the students who prepare for competitive exams like UGC NET SET SLET PGT Assistant Professor Exams etc Every important writer across the world has been covered in this book The Caribbean African Canadian Australian German French Russian Italian Greek Roman New Zealandia and several other writers have been given in the book Postmodern Apocalypse Richard Dellamora,1995 From accounts of the Holocaust to representations of AIDS to predictions of environmental disaster from Hal Lindsey s fundamentalist 1970s bestseller The Late Great Planet Earth to Francis Fukuyama s The End of History and the Last Man in 1992 the sense of apocalypse is very much with us In Postmodern Apocalypse Richard Dellamora and his contributors examine apocalypse in works by late twentieth century writers filmmakers and critics The Cambridge Companion to Canadian Literature Eva-Marie Kröller,2004-02-05 This book offers a comprehensive and engaging introduction to major writers genres and topics in Canadian literature Contributors pay attention to the social political and economic developments that have informed literary events Broad surveys of fiction drama and poetry are complemented by chapters on Aboriginal writing francophone writing autobiography literary criticism writing by women and the emergence of urban writing in a country traditionally defined by its regions Also discussed are genres that have a special place in Canadian literature such as nature writing exploration and travel writing and short fiction Stories in Letters - Letters in Stories Rebekka Schuh,2021-10-04 This book deals with letters in Anglophone Canadian short stories of the late twentieth and the early twenty first century in the context of liminality It argues that in the course of the epistolary renaissance the letter which has often been deemed to be obsolete in literature has not only enjoyed an upsurge in novels but also migrated to the short story thus constituting the genre of the epistolary short story Prizing Literature Gillian Roberts,2011-10-29 When Canadian authors win prestigious literary prizes from the Governor General's Literary Award to the Man Booker Prize they are celebrated not only for their achievements but also for contributing to this country's cultural capital. Discussions about culture, national identity and citizenship are particularly complicated when the honorees are immigrants like Michael Ondaatje, Carol Shields or Rohinton Mistry. Then there is the case of Yann Martel who is identified both as Canadian and as rootlessly cosmopolitan. How have these writers' identities been recalibrated in order to claim them as representative Canadians? Prizing Literature is the first extended study of contemporary award-winning Canadian literature and the ways in which we celebrate its authors. Gillian Roberts uses theories of hospitality to examine how prize-winning authors are variously received and honoured depending on their citizenship and the extent to which they represent Canadianness. Prizing Literature sheds light on popular and media understandings of what it means to be part of a multicultural nation. Life of Pi Marilyn Herbert,2005-11 The story of a boy, a boat and a tiger promises an adventure which some may find hard to believe. However, with the Bookclub in a Box discussion companion to Yann Martel's novel Life of Pi, readers begin to consider how to believe the unbelievable. While Yann Martel takes readers on a voyage of discovery, Bookclub in a Box interprets his exploration: can miracles exist? what is the power of faith? what guarantees successful survival? Let Bookclub in a Box take readers into Pi's mind: the influences in his life, his physical struggle to survive at sea and his spiritual struggle to understand his own faith and his place in the world. There are a great many deep concepts to reflect upon in this small fictional narrative and Bookclub in a Box presents them for thoughtful consideration. Room Behavior Rob Kovitz,2013-11-01 A woman sits alone in a darkened boiler room. A man enjoys hanging suspended from the ceiling. A dirty room indicates the secret sexual proclivities of its occupant. A curtain rustling in the breeze portends fear and paranoia. The purpose of a room derives from the special nature of a room. A room is inside. This is what people in rooms have to agree on as differentiated from lawns, meadows, fields, orchards. Room Behavior is a book about rooms. Composed of texts and images from the most varied sources including crime novels, decorating manuals, anthropological studies, performance art, crime scene photos, literature and the Bible to name a few, Kovitz shapes the material through a process of highly subjective editing, ordering and juxtaposition to create an original, fascinating and darkly funny rumination about the behavior of rooms and the people that they keep. Like the rooms he depicts, the pages of this book are host to an evocative and thought-provoking life of their own. Uptown Magazine: Strange and clever. Globe Mail: The book is a unique mini coffee table paperback, beautifully designed. Much more than a gift book, Room Behavior is something to pause and reflect on whenever you think about rearranging your furniture. Fast Forward: This is a book to keep to review again and again. Funny but deep. Umbrella: Treyf 25th Anniversary edition. Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, L.W. Conolly,2004-11-30 Post-Colonial Literatures in English, together with English Literature and American Literature, form one of the three major groupings of literature in English and as such are widely studied around the world Their significance derives from the richness and variety of experience which they reflect In three volumes this Encyclopedia documents the history and development of this body of work and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975 Translating Canada Luise von Flotow,Reingard M. Nischik,2007-10-25 In the last thirty years of the twentieth century Canadian federal governments offered varying degrees of support for literary and other artistic endeavour A corollary of this patronage of culture at home was an effort to make the resulting works available for audiences elsewhere in the world Current developments in the study of translation and its influence as cultural transfer have made possible new assessments of such efforts to project a national image abroad Translating Canada examines cultural materials exported by Canada in addition to those selected for acquisition by German publishers theatres and other culture brokers It also considers the motivations of particular translators and the reception by German reviewers of works by a wide variety of Canadian writers novelists and poets playwrights and children s authors literary and social critics Above all the book maps for its readers a number of significant though frequently unsuspected roles that translation assumes in the intercultural negotiation of national images and values The chapters in this collection will be of value to students teachers and scholars in a number of fields Informed lay readers too will appreciate the authors insights into the different ways in which translation has contributed to German reception of Canadian books and culture The Literary Review ,2004 Engaged Philosophy David Braybrooke,2007-01-01 David Braybrooke is one of the most important figures in North American philosophy His work in political philosophy is both prolific and significant and he has contributed to the philosophical corpus books on topics as diverse as utilitarianism natural law and moral objectives Engaged Philosophy is a collection of original essays written in honour of Braybrooke by some of his colleagues and students at Halifax s Dalhousie University
