Dennis Gaffin, 2012-04-25 Running with the Fairies Towards a Transpersonal Anthropology of Religion is a unique account of the living spirituality and mysticism of fairyfolk in Ireland. Fairyfolk are fairyminded people who have had direct experiences with the divine energy and appearance of fairies and fairypeople who additionally know that they have been reincarnated from the Fairy Realm. While fairies have been folklore superstition or fantasy for most children and adults, now for the first time in a scholarly work, highly educated persons speak frankly about their religious spiritual experiences, journeys and transformations in connection with these angel-like spirit beings. Set in academic and popular historical perspectives, this first scholarly account of the Fairy Faith for over a hundred years since believer Evans Wentz's 1911 published doctoral dissertation The Fairy Faith in Celtic Countries integrates a participatory going native anthropology with transpersonal psychology. Providing extensive verbatim interviews and discussions, this path-breaking work recognizes the reality of nature spirit beings in a Western context. Through intensive on-site fieldwork, the PhD cultural anthropologist author discovers, describes and interviews authentic mystics aligned with these intermediary deific beings. With an extensive introduction placing fairies in the context of the anthropology of religion, animism, mysticism and consciousness, this daring ethnography considers notions of belief, perception and spiritual experience and with intricate detail extends the focus of anthropological research on spirit beings which previously have been considered as locally real only in indigenous and Eastern cultures.
