

Children have a real failure of imagination when it comes to thinking of the adults in their lives as having done anything of interest, anything at all, in the time known as before.

Failed Imagination:

Failed Imagination? Andrew J. Williams, 1998 Francisco Gomez de Sandoval Duke of Lerma 1553-1625 is the last major unknown statesman in modern European history Patrick Williams brings him dramatically to life and challenges the assumptions that historians have made about him and about Spanish history at a time of profound crisis inviting a re-evaluation of the phenomenon of government by favourites in this seminal period of European history Lerma served Philip III as his favourite and first minister between 1598 and 1618 His power dazzled contemporaries one petitioner telling Philip that he had come to see him because I could not get an appointment with the Duke of Lerma Within a decade of assuming office Lerma had raised his family from humiliating poverty to great riches and was the greatest patron of the arts in Europe His use of power provoked intense debate about the nature of corruption in government Yet Lerma remained deeply ambivalent about his position Determined to follow family tradition and retire into religious life to secure the salvation of his soul he secured a cardinalate in 1617 ending his life as a prince of the Church Failed Imagination? Andrew Williams, 2013-01-18

The main purpose of this book is to explain how mainly American but also British and other Western policy makers have planned and largely managed to create an international order in their own image the so called New World Order It shows how this seismic shift in international relations has developed through the major global wars of the twentieth and twenty first centuries It uses a wide variety of historical archival material to give the background to the current and historical American obsession with creating the world order one that both reflects the American national interest but also can be said to have established the major security economic organisational and normative pillars of our epoch In addition it provides excellent background reading for the current debate about American foreign policy and the origins of neo conservatism in international relations This edition updates a very successful first edition of the title with additional material to take into account changes in the global order since 2001 and the beginning of the War on Terror Routledge International

Handbook of Failure Adriana Mica, Miłoj Pawlak, Anna Horolets, Paweł Kubicki, 2023-01-30 This Handbook examines the study of failure in social sciences its manifestations in the contemporary world and the modalities of dealing with it both in theory and in practice It draws together a comprehensive approach to failing and invisible forms of cancelling out and denial of future perspectives Underlining critical mechanisms for challenging and reimagining norms of success in contemporary society it allows readers to understand how contemporary regimes of failure are being formed and institutionalized in relation to policy and economic models such as neo liberalism While capturing the diversity of approaches in framing failure it assesses the confluences and shifts which have occurred in the study of failure over time Intended for scholars who research processes of inequality and invisibility this Handbook aims to formulate a critical manifesto and activism agenda for contemporary society Presenting an integrated view about failure the Handbook will be an essential reading for students in sociology social theory anthropology international relations and development research organization theory public policy

Cox, 2012-11-19 Native American fiction writers have confronted Euro American narratives about Indians and the colonial world those narratives help create These Native authors offer stories in which Indians remake this colonial world by resisting conquest and assimilation sustaining their cultures and communities and surviving In Muting White Noise James H Cox considers how Native authors have liberated our imaginations from colonial narratives Cox takes his title from Sherman Alexie for whom the white noise of a television set represents the white mass produced culture that mutes American Indian voices Cox foregrounds the work of Native intellectuals in his readings of the American Indian novel tradition He thereby develops a critical perspective from which to re see the role played by the Euro American novel tradition in justifying and enabling colonialism By examining novels by Native authors especially Thomas King Gerald Vizenor and Alexie Cox shows how these writers challenge and revise colonizers tales about Indians He then offers red readings of some revered Euro American novels including Herman Melville's Moby Dick and shows that until quite recently even those non Native storytellers who sympathized with Indians could imagine only their vanishing by story's end Muting White Noise breaks new ground in literary criticism It stands with Native authors in their struggle to reclaim their own narrative space and tell stories that empower and nurture rather than undermine and erase American Indians and their communities

Dismantlings Matt Tierney, 2019-12-15 For the master's tools the poet Audre Lorde wrote will never dismantle the master's house Dismantlings is a study of literary political and philosophical critiques of the utopian claims about technology in the Long Seventies the decade and a half before 1980 Following Alice Hilton's 1963 admonition that the coming years would bring humanity to a crossroads machines for HUMAN BEINGS or human beings for THE MACHINE Matt Tierney explores wide ranging ideas from science fiction avant garde literatures feminist and anti racist activism and indigenous eco philosophy that may yet challenge machines of war control and oppression Dismantlings opposes the language of technological idealism with radical thought of the Long Seventies from Lorde and Hilton to Samuel R Delany and Ursula K Le Guin to Huey P Newton John Mohawk and many others This counter lexicon retrieves seven terms for the contemporary critique of technology Luddism a verbal and material combat against exploitative machines communion a kind of togetherness that stands apart from communication networks cyberculture a historical conjunction of automation with racist and militarist machines distortion a transformative mode of reading and writing revolutionary suicide a willful submission to the risk of political engagement liberation technology a synthesis of appropriate technology and liberation theology and thanatopography a mapping of planetary technological ethics after Auschwitz and Hiroshima Dismantlings restores revolutionary language of the radical Long Seventies for reuse in the digital present against emergent technologies of exploitation subjugation and death

The Cruel and Reparative Possibilities of Failure Jessica M. W. Kratzer, Desirée D. Rowe, 2024-12-15 The Cruel and Reparative Possibilities of Failure brings together a variety of scholars and research across disciplines with an emphasis on communication and gender studies to work toward reimagining the idea of failure Contributors consider failure as both a space for growth and repair and as a space from which hope can emerge The collection is divided into five parts investigating failure as consumption failure as media failure as pedagogy failure as narrative and finally failure as transformation Contributors spanning the fields of communication gender sexuality performance and media studies each employ unique disciplinary approaches to failure in their explorations of topics including queer counterpublics corporeal commodification misinformation abolitionist principles abuse and consent culture and everyday organizing among others Looking to the future the book takes these perspectives and experiences a step further to explore the reparative possibilities that may be found in failure

Badiou and the Political Condition Marios Constantinou, 2014-02-12 The essays in this volume including a new piece by Badiou himself reflect the formative traditions that shape the background of his political thought They intervene critically and evaluate the present state of Badiou's work while also breaking new ground

Conflict and Development Roger Mac Ginty, Andrew Williams, 2009-03-24 Over the past decade a new awareness of the relationship between conflicts and development has grown Developmental factors can act as a trigger for violence as well as for ending violence and for triggering post conflict reconstruction This book explores the complexity of the links between violent conflict usually civil wars and development under development and uneven development It emphasizes the connections between stable developed economies and civil wars in other parts of the world and examines how structural factors such as the organization of the global economy virtually condemn some regions to conflict and under development This valuable introductory text explains reviews and critically evaluates this complex relationship It focuses on intra state conflicts and complex political emergencies that combine transnational and internal characteristics Attention is also given to inter state conflicts Chapters emphasize how the relationship between conflict and development traverses many scales macro meso and micro and dimensions economic political and cultural Furthermore it explains how different developmental challenges and opportunities emerge along the full life cycle of conflict Specifically the role of poverty state market civil society globalization humanitarian aid refugees gender and health within conflict dynamics are examined The book also investigates specific developmental issues emerging during conflict management and post conflict reconstruction Both authors have a background in conducting research in deeply divided societies and argue that many of the processes connected with war and peace making deliberately write people out of the equation This book attempts to write people in By drawing on contemporary theoretical debates and examining current policies and events the text unpacks the difficult and complex aspects of the relationships between armed conflict and development and makes them accessible interesting and policy relevant It considers how peace making peace building and post war reconstruction are usually more sustainable and successful if politicians policy makers entrepreneurs and those working for international NGOs take on board local opinion and capacity Written in an accessible style the book considers the main contemporary theories and arguments on conflict development and the interactions between the two The text is illuminated throughout with case studies drawn from Africa the Balkans Asia and the Middle East

Making Space for Active Learning Anne C. Martin, Ellen Schwartz, 2015-04-28 This powerful collection will inspire new and veteran teachers to make space for children s interests for teaching as relational and intellectual work and for new insights and ideas The authors introduce the Prospect Center s Descriptive Review of Practice a collaborative inquiry process that provides an opportunity for teachers to examine their practice and gain new perspectives from other participants The contributors to this volume respond to each child s modes of thinking as they develop curriculum or find wiggle room in curricula they are given By demonstrating how it is possible to pursue careful knowledge of craft this book offers ways of teaching that allow for continuing growth and change

Book Features An inquiry methodology that assists teachers to reflect on the classroom and develop curriculum that responds to children s interests and needs Specific examples of a variety of sources teachers can draw on and think about to improve practice A method of data collection that can inform practice while allowing for the unevenness messiness and essential humanness of teaching and learning

Making Space for Active Learning is a collection that stands alone and gets to the heart of what we mean by learning and teaching Each contribution reminded me of how much I miss being in the classroom and how much we re missing in current so called school reform discourse Keep this book handy A chapter at a time will restore some needed sanity about what s important

Deborah Meier author and education activist This book is a moving and powerful collection of teachers work that holds the possibility of inspiring and changing new teachers practice

Kathy Schultz Dean and Professor School of Education Mills College This book will add significantly to the expanding and important literature about The Prospect Processes which were developed over many years at the Prospect School and Center in Vermont The chapters all by experienced educators profit from the back and forth between inquiry and stories of classroom life each informing the other

The Becoming of God Roland Faber, 2017-04-06 How should we believe in God today If we look beyond our little lives to the vast cosmos we may even ask Why all that And even if we spiritually feel the universe Why believe any religion After all there are many and haven t they contributed to the predicament of humanity Process theology gives provocative answers to these questions how we are bound by the organic cycles of this world but how in this web of life God shines even in the last least and forgotten event as the Eros of its becoming and as its mirror of greatness why anything exists because it is from beauty for harmony and intensity and through a consciousness of peace rising from our deepest intuitions of existence We can change not only in our thoughts and lives but even in the way we experience this world This book introduces such a new way of experiencing thinking and living Based on the fascinating work on cosmology religion and civilization of Alfred North Whitehead this book develops the main theses of process theology and elucidates it as a theopoetics of mutual care for the unexpected the excluded the forgotten and a future society of peace     Salesmanship National Council of the Young Men's Christian Associations of the United States of America. United Y.M.C.A. Schools,1922     Scientific Institutions and Practice in France and Britain, c.1700-c.1870 Maurice Crosland,2023-05-31 This second collection of studies by Maurice Crosland has as a first theme the differences in the style and organisation of scientific activity in Britain and France in the 18th and early 19th centuries Science was more closely controlled in France notably by the Paris Academy of Sciences and the work of provincial amateurs much less prominent than in Britain The most dramatic change in any branch of science during this period was in chemistry largely through the work of Lavoisier and his colleagues the focus of several articles here and the dominance of this group caused considerable resentment outside France not least by Joseph Priestley The issue of authority in science emerges again within France under the rule of Napoleon in a study of the exceptional power exercised by the great mathematician Laplace both in theoretical science and in academic politics This exploration of organisation and power is complemented by a comparative study of the practice of early physics and chemistry and their different reliance on laboratories This raises the question of whether chemistry provided a model for later experimental work in other sciences both through the construction of pioneering laboratories and in establishing early schools of research     The Moment and Late Writings Robert L. Perkins,2009 On 18 December 1854 Kierkegaard began to publish a series of newspaper articles critical of the Danish state church This book views these writings not only in the context of the theological philosophical and social events of that time but also the 2005 2006 Danish cartoon controversy     A Limbo of Shards Dennis Patrick Slattery,2007-01-02 A glance at these 30 essays reveals Professor Slattery's astoundingly vast and varied range of scholarly interests These disciplines function for Dennis as modes of knowing modes of imagining Peter C Phan Ignacio Ellacuria Chair of Catholic Social Thought Georgetown University Elizabeth Fergus Jean Ph D is an artist and professor at Columbus College of Art and Design in Ohio and faculty in the Humanities Program Pacifica Graduate Institute Her artwork appears on numerous book and journal covers     A World Safe for Democracy G. John Ikenberry,2020-09-22 A sweeping account of the rise and evolution of liberal internationalism in the modern era For two hundred years the grand project of liberal internationalism has been to build a world order that is open loosely rules based and oriented toward progressive ideas Today this project is in crisis threatened from the outside by illiberal challengers and from the inside by nationalist populist movements This timely book offers the first full account of liberal internationalism's long journey from its nineteenth century roots to today's fractured political moment Creating an international space for liberal democracy preserving rights and protections within and between countries and balancing conflicting values such as liberty and equality openness and social solidarity and sovereignty and interdependence these are the guiding aims that have propelled liberal internationalism through the upheavals of the past two centuries G John Ikenberry argues that in a twenty first century marked by rising economic and security interdependence liberal internationalism reformed and reimagined remains the most viable project to protect liberal democracy The Story of International Relations, Part One Jo-Anne Pemberton, 2019-09-09 This book is the first volume in a trilogy that traces the development of the academic subject of International Relations or what was often referred to in the interwar years as International Studies This first volume takes on the origins of International Relations beginning with the League of Nations and the International Studies Conference in Berlin in 1928 and tracing its development through the Paris Peace Conference the quest for cooperation in the Pacific the Institute of Pacific Relations and lessons from Copenhagen Shanghai and Manchuria This project is an impressive and exhaustive consideration of the evolution of IR and is aptly published in celebration of the discipline's centenary

Aristotle's Ethics and Legal Rhetoric Frances J. Ranney, 2017-07-05 Taking the novel position of dealing with law classical rhetoric and feminism concurrently this book considers the effects of beliefs about language on those who attempt to theorize about and use law to accomplish practical and political purposes The author employs Aristotle's terminology to analyze economic and literary schools of thought in the US legal academy noting the implicit language theory underlying claims by major thinkers in each school about the nature of law and its relationship to justice The underlying assumption is that as law can only work through language beliefs about its relationship to justice are determined by assumptions about the nature of language In addition the author provides an alternative feminist rhetoric that being focused on the production of texts rather than their interpretation offers a practical ethic of intervention

Truth, Trust And Relationships Barbara R. Krasner, Austin J. Joyce, 2013-06-20 The authors identify direct address a dialogic way of address and response as the fundamental means of healing in relationships especially in the family viewing residual trust as the keystone of the dialogic process

Individual and Organizational Success or Failure Brahim Derder, 2002-02-27 Do you want to be successful or are you scared of success Are you perfect Do you know anyone who is perfect Do you think you can improve and be happier more successful and a better person Do you know anyone who had the courage to get what he or she wanted in life by daring to change directions in life Do you have the courage to be successful in your life Are you afraid of success Did you ever wonder why some people keep doing the same things usually mistakes that keep them failures even though success can be theirs if they only acted differently This book shows you how to be successful and embrace it with courage Life is a simple system you were born raised and when you reached school age you attended classes and learned a system of reading and writing and perhaps you majored in some field That is all good but those things things you learned in school are only basic and raw tools Life has its own rules and secrets that this book will unravel and show you all you to know

It is up to you not your teachers or bosses or your parents or anyone else to act and make your life a success and get you what you want from it because nobody else will hand it to you You can do it Just start today and right now good things will happen for people who try Good things will happen for you

Eventually, you will enormously discover a supplementary experience and exploit by spending more cash. yet when? attain you take on that you require to acquire those every needs taking into account having significantly cash? Why dont you attempt to get something basic in the beginning? Thats something that will lead you to comprehend even more something like the globe, experience, some places, in the same way as history, amusement, and a lot more?
