The Feminist Architecture of Postmodern Anti-Tales Kendra Reynolds, 2019-10-23 This monograph aims to counter the assumption that the anti-tale is a subversive twin or dark side of the fairy tale coin instead it argues that the anti-tale is a genre rich in complexity and radical potential that fundamentally challenges the damaging ideologies and socializing influence of fairy tales The Feminist Architecture of Postmodern Anti-Tales Space Time and Bodies highlights how anti-tales take up timely debates about revising old structures opening our minds up to a broader spectrum of experience or ways of viewing the world and its inhabitants They show us alternative architectures for the future by deconstructing established spatio-temporal laws and structures as well as limited ideas surrounding the body and ultimately liberate us from the shackles of a single minded and simplistic masculine reality currently upheld by dominant social forces and patriarchal fairy tales themselves It is only when these masculine fairy tales and social architectures are deconstructed that new more inclusive feminine realities and futures can be brought into being

The Poetics of Early Russian Literature D.S. Likhachev, 2014-03-13 This translation of Likhachev s Poetika Drevnerusskoy Literatury The Poetics of Early Russian Literature provides a description of the basic themes of early tenth to seventeenth century Russian literature Likhachev compares literary narrative with narrative used in the representational arts Furthermore Likhachev stresses the genre based character of medieval Russian literature and shows how choice of style in medieval times depended on a genre with its own specific etiquette and how innovation was discouraged The text contrasts medieval abstraction and modern realism as Likhachev shows how realisticness gradually breaks through in specific situations such as those of princely crimes Likhachev draws contrasts in three different areas the basic stock of symbols and comparisons used in early Russian literature with those used in modern literature artistic time in folklore and early Russian literature and artistic space in folklore and early Russian literature Likhachev traces the gradual development into modern artistic time through a comparison of the chronicle the first Russian play the seventeenth century writer Avvakum and three modern authors Goncharov Dostoevsky and Saltykov Shchedrin Finally the text gives a justification for studying early literatures This book will be invaluable for students of Russian medieval and comparative literature
