Faith And Narrative:

Narrative Apologetics Alister E. McGrath, 2019-10-15 The Bible is a narrative the story of God's creation humankind's fall and God's plan of redemption And it is filled with countless smaller stories that teach us about people history and the nature of God It's no surprise that God would choose to reveal himself to us in story after all he hardwired us for story Despite this we so often attempt to share our faith with others not through story but through systems arguments and talking points methods that appeal only to our mind and neglect our imagination and our emotions In this groundbreaking book scholar and author Alister McGrath lays a foundation for narrative apologetics Exploring four major biblical narratives enduring stories from our culture such as Tolkien's The Lord of the Rings and Lewis's The Chronicles of Narnia and personal narratives from people such as Augustine of Hippo and Chuck Colson McGrath shows how we can both understand and share our faith in terms of story

In the Beginning Were Stories, Not Texts C.S. Song, 2011-11-14 The Christian Bible is fundamentally a story Writers painters sculptors artists and indeed people of all walks of life live by the telling of their stories Stories are the most basic mode of human communication Thus it is vital to ask why Christians and above all Christian theologians so often fail to express their faith in terms of story The vast majority of the Hebrew Scriptures for example consist of stories Jesus proclaimed and taught about the Reign of God through stories and parables At the heart of the Christian faith are stories not concepts propositions or ideas Given the deep rootedness of the Christian faith in storytelling this book seeks to address the fact that Christian theology has too often taken the form of concepts ideas and systems This book is an attempt to speak of Christian faith and theology in stories rather than systems Through stories both biblical and non biblical this book shows how we might reimagine the task of Christian theology in the life of faith today At its heart is the conviction that in the beginning there were stories and that in the end and indeed beyond the end are stories not texts ideas and concepts

Narrative Faith David Stromberg, 2017-10-18 Narrative Faith engages with the dynamics of doubt and faith to consider how literary works with complex structures explore different moral visions The study describes a literary petite histoire that problematizes faith in two ways both in the themes presented in the story and the strategies used to tell that story leading readers to doubt the narrators and their narratives Starting with Dostoevsky's Demons 1872 a literary work that has captivated and confounded critics and readers for well over a century the study examines Albert Camus's The Plague 1947 and Isaac Bashevis Singer's The Penitent 1973 83 works by twentieth century authors who similarly intensify questions of faith through narrators that generate doubt The two postwar novelists share parallel preoccupations with Dostoevsky's art and similar personal philosophies while their works constitute two literary responses to the cataclysm of the Second World War extending questions of faith into the current era The book's last section looks beyond narrative inquiry to consider themes of confession and revision that appear in all three novels and open onto horizons beyond faith and doubt to hope

Story and Faith in the Biblical Narrative Ulrich E. Simon, 1975 Faith as a Theme in Mark's Narrative

Christopher D. Marshall,1994-12-08 Mark's gospel has attracted an enormous amount of scholarly attention over recent decades. The major themes of the gospel have been studied exhaustively and from a variety of critical perspectives. But at least one important theme in Mark has been comparatively neglected in recent study: the theme of faith. This critically acclaimed book redresses such neglect through a thorough exegetical and literary study of all the references to faith in Mark's composition.

Stories of Desire and Narratives of Faith Victor Hunter, Lanny Hunter,2019-04-02 Stories are the foundation for identity and the ground of understanding. Stories of Desire and Narratives of Faith addresses humankind's search for identity and meaning through the stories of science and religion. Both arose in the mists of history. Both are awe-inspiring. Both beggar the imagination. Both have always competed for authority. Science gained preeminence in our postmodern pluralistic globalized world as evidenced based while religion for many reasons lost credibility. Yet religion has not disappeared. Stories is a concise, engaging, inspiring, accessible account of the history of science, geological and biological evolution perceived through increasingly sophisticated technology and the history of nine text-based world religions of antiquity. Stories avoids insider language, democratizing both God talk and scientific jargon without patronizing either. There is no attempt to identify the best or truest religion, and Stories disavows dogmatic religious triumphalism. The authors do follow the tradition of giving an account of their Christian faith, the only religious story with which they have experience. They invite others to do the same, paying attention to their own stories as they grapple with modern science, do theology, and engage faith. Stories proposes how and in what manner these disciplines can meaningfully converse in today's world.

The Worldview of the Word of Faith Movement: Eden Redeemed Mikael Stenhammar,2021-12-16 This volume approaches the Word of Faith as a worldview and analyses the movement through N. T. Wright's model for worldview analysis in order to provide necessary nuance and complexity to scholarly interpretations of the Word of Faith. The reader receives insights into the movement's narrative, semiotic, practical and propositional dimensions which cumulatively offer a multifaceted understanding of how the Word of Faith interprets reality and engages with the world. The analysis shows that there is a narrative core to Word of Faith beliefs in the form of a unique theological story with focus set on the present restoration of Eden's authority and blessings. This study demonstrates how the Word of Faith operates as a distinct worldview that parses the world through the lens of faith's causative power to affect a direct correspondence between present reality and Eden's perfection. The findings advance a critical and therapeutic approach that acknowledges how the worldview both strengthens and subverts Pentecostalism.

Story Theology Terrence W. Tilley, Terrence Tilley,1990 The author reminds us that our Christian stories are at the heart of the faith. Without these stories, formulated doctrines and theological systems would be bereft of meaning and substance. With the breadth of bright vision, he explains what story theology is all about and he tells us why it is gripping the minds and hearts of so many.

Biblical Narrative Learning Tung Chiew Ha,2015-10-02 Biblical narrative learning is a non-critical educational approach for Christian communities with diverse learning backgrounds.

involving three sets of movement inquire and invent interpret and imagine inspire and imitate and impart It is grounded in humankind's universal capacity to teach and learn through stories and built on practices in narrative learning along with biblical narratives The Gospel of John provides a model for this interpretive process that continues the teaching of living in a loving relationship with God and one another John uses many literary devices to enhance an affective and reflective learning The literary devices create the familiar strange effect John's narrative fosters remembrance of the Story and guides the learner to adequate faith in God It inculcates adequate faith to wait in suspense while the Jesus Story and our stories when they are remembered create new understanding and transform the life experiences of the person

Human Development and Faith (Second Edition) Felicity B. Kelcourse, 2015-07-28 This book now in its second edition brings together the best available understandings of human development from a multidisciplinary perspective Uniquely inclusive of the moral and faith dimensions of context and life cycle development Human Development and Faith examines the interplay of mind body family community and soul at every stage of development It addresses two central questions What are the good enough conditions of parenting family and community in each phase of life from birth to death which support growth and development What gives life adequate meaning as development proceeds If human development describes the normative and hoped for passages of life then faith provides the necessary component of meaning Throughout the various perspectives offered in this volume is the premise that faith is that quality of living that makes it possible to fully live The Journal of Pastoral Theology called the first edition of Human Development and Faith an excellent text for pastoral theology courses because it fulfills its ambitious goal of bringing a holistic faith perspective to the usual topics of development This second edition includes a new chapter on infancy updates reflecting our growing awareness of cultural diversity and a new preface

Re-Storying Your Faith Suzanne M. Coyle, 2013-11-29 Re Storying Your Faith has caught our culture's imagination from nouveau experiences of spirituality through channeling and meditation to traditional spiritual practices of personal devotions scripture reading and prayer Building on Christian spirituality this spiritual practice of re-storying our faith offers people an everyday experience of discovering multiple faith stories to give meaning to their spiritual journey Built into this process is a way of discovering individual uniqueness as well as sharing discovered stories in faith communities whether it is a Sunday school class or a group of like minded friends

O Woman, Great is Your Faith! Douglas Sean O'Donnell, 2021-08-26 The concept of faith holds a central position in New Testament and early Christian thought yet this concept has not received the careful attention it deserves in the Synoptic Gospels The present study offers a comprehensive analysis of faith as a key motif in the Gospel of Matthew where it plays a major role in communicating this Gospel's vision for how readers should respond to the person and message of Jesus The argument propounded is that Matthew's unique narrative portrayal of the Canaanite woman's faith 15:21-28 is used for pedagogical purposes namely that by comparing and contrasting her great faith with those characters expressing no faith and little faith Matthew uses Jesus's quantitative terms to teach on the nature of true faith She embodies Matthew's theological vision of faith Even though she is a gentile outsider enemy she comprehends the universal scope and abundant blessings of Jesus's mission Moreover she acknowledges Jesus's messianic identity correctly perceiving him to be both David's royal heir and David's Lord Finally based on who she perceives Jesus to be and the purpose of his mission she demonstrates faith as trust manifested in action Faith, Tradition, and History Alan Ralph
